

Non-Standard Format Permission – Example Guide

Author's Name	[Your full name.]
Thesis Title	[The full title of your thesis (or as much as you can fit – shortened titles are acceptable).]
Degree Name	[The full name of the degree gained by the completion of your thesis; e.g. Master of Arts, Doctor of Philosophy, etc.]
Discipline	[The discipline(s) in which you completed your thesis; e.g. International Relations, Education, Architecture, etc. If you are unsure of your discipline, consult your supervisor.]
School	[The specific school under which you completed your thesis; e.g. School of Architecture, School of Languages and Cultures, etc. Please note that faculties (in which schools are a member of) or the wider university do not count.]
Supervisor(s)	[List the full names of all your supervisors as they are professionally known.]
Year	[The year printed on the title page of your thesis.]
Format Details	My Head of School has granted me approval to submit my thesis in a non-standard format. My thesis format includes: [Please state how the print version of your thesis deviates from the standard formatting requirements. These requirements can be found here: http://library.victoria.ac.nz/library/using-library/submit-your-thesis/formats-theses] <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
Name of Head of School	[The full name of the head of your specific school.]
Signature of Head of School	[Your Head of School's personal, hand-written, legal signature.]
Signature of Author	[Your own personal, hand-written, legal signature.]
Date	[The date this form was signed.]