

BACHELOR OF ARTS

A Bachelor of Arts (BA) from the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences (FHSS) encourages you to intentionally explore a range of subjects in order to discover your passions and develop a truly broad base of learning.

The humanities include subjects where we explore what it means to be human—such as English literature, history, and languages—while the social sciences include subjects in which we explore how humans interact with each other—such as criminology, international relations, and linguistics.

Victoria University of Wellington is well known for its strengths and breadth in the humanities and social sciences. The Faculty is ranked among the top 100 in the world (QS World University Rankings) and ranked first in many fields in the New Zealand university research rankings (Performance-based Research Fund Quality Evaluation).

Taking a BA will give you a set of skills highly valued by employers. These skills include analytical and critical thinking, problem-solving, building relationships, self-management, team work, and verbal and written communication. If you want to supercharge your employment prospects, you are able to enrol in a number of courses, such as the FHSS Internship and the Future of Work (see page 149), designed to give you an appreciation of the current and changing nature of New Zealand's workforce.

The BA at Victoria University of Wellington—a globally ranked capital city university—offers international opportunities. Wellington is the centre of politics, the base for foreign embassies and the public service, and the home of archives, libraries, and museums. Wellington is also a vibrant centre of creativity and an exciting city to study in—it is rich in music, theatre, art, and heritage, and is home to thriving digital and film industries.

The University has a particularly rich languages programme and we encourage you to try a new language or build on one you have learnt before. We also strongly recommend that you try new subjects, or major in one subject that suits your career ambitions, while keeping your passions alive with study in other areas. You can include a second major or minor from either the BA or another Bachelor's degree.

Combining the BA with another degree, such as the Bachelor of Commerce, Bachelor of Communication, Bachelor of Health, Bachelor of Laws, or Bachelor of Science gives you a broader view of the social world in which we live.

POTENTIAL CAREERS

We encourage you to choose subjects in which you are interested so you can enjoy the learning journey and the career paths this opens. Bachelor of Arts graduates are employed in every part of the workforce. Universities New Zealand research, released in 2016, found that arts graduates will earn an average of $1 million to $1.3 million more than non-graduates over their working life. Whether it be as an aid worker, artist, criminologist, diplomat, journalist, librarian, market researcher, policy analyst, social worker, teacher, or translator, a BA is suited to hundreds of careers. Graduates who want to position themselves for a career of their choice will have the opportunity to engage in a number of BA employability courses and programmes unique to Victoria University of Wellington.

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

Three years of full-time study.

A total of 360 points is required:

- at least 240 points must be from courses listed for the BA
- at least 80 points from 100-level courses listed for the BA
- a maximum of 180 points at 100 level
- at least 180 points must be at 200 and 300 level
- at least 75 points must be at 300 level and from courses listed for the BA.

You must satisfy the requirements for at least one major subject (from the table on the left).

Many students elect to take two majors, the second of which can be from any undergraduate degree at the University, as long as the first major is from Part A of the BA (marked with§).

- A maximum of 120 points may be credited to the BA from courses listed for the second major if it is not listed in the table (when included as a major for a BA).
- If your first major is from Part B (the subjects in the table that are marked with§), your second major must be from Part A (not marked), and your degree must then include at least 180 points from courses listed for the BA (rather than 240).

Other important information

Each subject has specific courses you need to take to meet the requirements of a major and involves in-depth study to 300 level. If you are not sure which subject to choose as your major, you can include a number of different options in your first year, and make a more specific choice in your second year. Most students major in two subjects in the BA.

A BA double major is achieved by completing the full major requirements for two subjects. Your degree certificate will say 'Bachelor of Arts in X and Y'.

Bachelor of Arts students may also select up to two minors in undergraduate subject areas offered for the BA or the Bachelors of Architectural Studies, Building Science, Commerce, Communication, Design Innovation, Health, Music, and Science, and not taken as a major or from additional minor subject areas listed in these degree regulations.

A minor comprises at least 60 points from the relevant subject area at 200 level or above, of which at least 15 points must be at 300 level. No 300-level course may be counted towards a major or another minor. Many courses have specific prerequisites, so you will normally need to start studying subjects you wish to minor in during your first year.

Go to www.victoria.ac.nz/courses for details.

If you are considering taking a second major taught by another faculty or adding a minor to your BA, you should contact your student adviser for degree-planning advice.

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

The requirements listed below are the requirements to complete a major; degree regulations are listed in the University's Calendar. There may be minor changes to some majors. Check the major requirements on our website before enrolling for 2020.

In most cases, but not all, the courses listed under (a) of the major requirements below are what you need to take in your first year. To find out details of what a particular course is about and when it is timetabled, look in the subjects and courses pages (from page 125).

HANAHIVA ROSE

Te Atiawa, Ngāi Tahu, Ngāti Toa

Graduate, Bachelor of Arts with
Honours in Art History

“Victoria University of Wellington provided me with opportunities for thoughtful and considered learning—both inside and outside the traditional classroom space. I was inspired to think harder and deeper, and to push myself outside my comfort zone. Internships allowed me to engage in the real-world applications of art history research.”
