

Prize Draw Terms and Conditions

1. About

These Terms and Conditions relate to the prize draw for respondents to the 2026 Academic Freedom and Freedom of Expression Survey.

The Academic Freedom and Freedom of Expression Survey is being run to better understand students' experiences of academic freedom and freedom of expression at the University. The results will help the University assess how well students feel able to explore ideas, express their views, engage with different perspectives, and understand the processes available to raise concerns. The survey also contributes to a new sector-wide reporting framework being adopted by New Zealand universities, helping ensure that academic freedom and freedom of expression are supported and monitored consistently across the tertiary sector, both for students and staff.
