

How to install Office to your home computer(s)

From you home computer log in to your Victoria University of Wellington mail account.

Now click on 'Install Office' and follow the online prompts to complete the download and install of Office. If you are interested in a phone or tablet app or one of the other options available select that from the right side and follow the instructions or link. You should be able to install Office on 5 devices.