

"simply another thing to keep clean": New Zealand Architecture in the 1990s: a one day symposium

a one day symposium held under the auspices of the Centre for Building Performance Research, Victoria University

Friday 4th December 2020
VUW School of Architecture

PROGRAMME

8.30 Coffee and registration

8.55 Introduction and Welcome

9.00 art vs architecture?

chair: tba

Tyson Schmidt ""The mural's value far outstripped the building's worth": art, architecture and protest at Aniwaniwa"

Linda Tyler "The last decade: the New Zealand architectural designs of Friedensreich Hundertwasser (1928-2000) in the 1990s"

Kerryn Pollock ""That building with the palm trees": Wellington Central Library"

10.30-11.00 morning tea

11.00 truths and lies: tales of re-use & restoration

chair: tba

David Kernohan "The Move from Kelburn to Vivian Street in 1995: an idyll?"

Jessica McDonnell-Buwalda "Fact or Façadism: the rise of skin deep heritage in New Zealand"

Tamsin Falconer, Ronnie Pace and Jamie Jacobs "Heritage Preservation, Conservation and/or Restoration: Old Government Buildings in the 1990s"

12.30-1.30 lunch

1.30 government performances

chair: tba

Christine McCarthy "From Roper to Regional Prisons"

Nigel Isaacs "Keeping cost effectively warm – the inclusion of thermal performance in the NZ Building Code"

2.30-3.00 afternoon tea

3.00 new new zealand architecture

chair: tba

Michael Dudding "Taking the initiative: Melling:Morse and John Tait Village"

Andrew Barrie and Julia Gatley "Peak Architecture: The decline of international influence in New Zealand architecture"

Peter Wood "Once upon a time in Venice: The Invention of New Zealand Architecture at the 1991 Mostra di Architettura di Venezia"

4.30 Havana