

Te Mahere Whai Tikanga a Te Pātaka Kōrero - Library Strategies Map Priorities 2022

The Library's strategy map is framed within the context of Te Herenga Waka-Victoria University of Wellington's Strategic Plan and commitment to the Te Tiriti o Waitangi Statute

Mission The Library provides world class services and resources supporting quality learning, teaching and research.

Values Our core ethical values are respect, responsibility, fairness, integrity, and empathy.
With, and as, tangata whenua, we realise the values under Mai i te Iho ki te Pae of rangatiratanga, manaakitanga, kaitiakitanga, whai mātauranga, whanaungatanga, and akoranga

Principles We realise the opportunities under Te Tiriti o Waitangi Statute through the principles of kāwanatanga, kōwhiringa, kaitiakitanga, rite tahi, rangatiratanga, mahi tahi, whai wāhi, whakaoranga

AMBITIOUS RESEARCH FOR TRANSFORMATIVE IMPACT	EDUCATION PREPARING STUDENTS FOR AN EXTRAORDINARY LIFE	ENGAGEMENT THAT DEEPENS RELEVANCE, IMPACT, AND REPUTATION	EQUITABLE OUTCOMES FOR ALL	BELONGING TO THE ASIA-PACIFIC REGION	TRANSFORMING THE WAY WE WORK
Whai mātauranga We provide expertise and services to support our researchers	Akoranga We provide expertise and services to support learning and teaching	Whanaungatanga Collectively we grow meaningful and long-lasting relationships	Kaitiakitanga We work with our community partners to ensure sustainable access to content and collections	Rangatiratanga We value leadership at all levels	Manaakitanga We are open and generous and foster an environment for inclusiveness and growth
Develop a digitisation strategy	The wellbeing and achievement of Māori students and staff is supported and enhanced through their interactions with the Library	Encourage cross team /university collaboration	Optimise navigations, discoverability and access to content	Ensure collection expenditure reports are managed efficiently	Monitor the Iho and Pae of Te Rautaki Māori a Te Pātaka Kōrero
Develop a document delivery roadmap including Rapido	Continue to revitalise library spaces across all campuses	Encourage staff to participate in library related activities and projects	Improve data relevant to e-resources to improve user access	Prepare and deliver new client service model for frontline services	Identify and promote opportunities and participation for staff in coaching and mentoring programmes
Develop plan to discover JCBR content	Contribute to the implementation of the Learning Management Platform	Ensure staff are aware of upcoming conferences and events and encouraged to present and attend	Review the print collection evaluation to streamline processes	Update Collection Development Management Policy	Develop a library induction programme
Collaborate, develop, and deliver on research initiatives	Create innovative online library help content for students and staff	Ensure staff are aware and encouraged to nominate staff members and teams for awards outside the library	Ensure a clear transparent process is implemented for acknowledging and rewarding staff achievements	Encourage all levels of staff in learning, practicing, and demonstrating te reo and tikanga Māori	Empower staff to apply sustainable practices in what we do
Develop and promote tools and strategies to enable academics to increase research reach, visibility and engagement	Increase the use of e resources by academics in learning and teaching	Ensure staff are aware of and encouraged to apply for Supported Study opportunities		Empower leadership and support for Māori students, staff and researchers regarding their research and study needs	Develop and deliver a programme for enhancing staff engagement
	The Library's Māori collection is world class, well managed, continuously developed, and accessible	Lead developments in Open Access			Implement the Information & Records Management roadmap