Course Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, students should be able to:

- explain the social and economic objectives underlying competition law in New Zealand, and analyse some of the different views concerning these;
- describe the operation of the regime for control under the Commerce Act (and to some degree also, the Australian Trade Practices Act) and the various regulatory regimes;
- apply the provisions of the Commerce Act to fact situations;
- 4 critically assess the reasoning of judges in competition law cases, with respect to the words and underlying policies of the Commerce Act;
- 5 identify the concerns underlying changes to the Act (and proposal changes), and critically analyse the effectiveness (or likely effectiveness) of these changes.

Expected Workload

A total of 240 hours of work is expected from students in this course. That consists of 40 hours of classes (including workshops), twelve hours per week outside classes during teaching weeks spent reading, studying, and preparing your essay and completing your essay, and a further 56 hours revising during the mid-trimester break and study week.

Readings

The readings relevant to each topic area will be set out in handouts made available as the course progress. There will be set material to be read in preparation for most lectures. You should make a practice of bringing your relevant materials book and/or legislation (as appropriate) to class.

Set texts:

The Commerce Act 1986 (incorporating all amendments).

Competition Law Materials (2010) - vols I & II.

Recommended Reading:

There are a number of useful reference books on Competition Law held in the Law Library (some on Closed Reserve (C/R)). These include:

Assessment Requirements

The items of assessment for this course are a terms test, a research essay, and a final examination. Students MUST do all three items of assessment. However, the marks for these items of assessment will be totalled in whichever of the following three ways is most favourable to the student.

EITHER	Terms Test Research Essay Final Exam TOTAL	100 marks 150 marks 250 marks 500 marks
OR	Terms Test Final Exam TOTAL (In this case the mark for the Re	100 marks 400 marks 500 marks esearch Essay will not count)
OR	Research Essay Final Exam TOTAL (In this case the mark for the To	150 marks 350 marks 500 marks erms Test will not count)

The $\underline{\text{Terms Test}}$ will be held on Friday 23 April, 12.40 - 1.30pm (location to be advised). The test is an open book test. You may bring any material you wish into the test room.

The Research Essay is 2000 words (max), due Monday 24th May (see attached information).

The Final Examination is in June. (Please note that students who enrol in courses with examinations are obliged to attend an examination at the University at any time during the formal examination period). The final examination is an open book exam. You may bring any material you wish into the exam room.

Note: Your assessed work may also be used for quality assurance purposes, such as to assess the level of achievement of learning objectives as required for accreditation and audit purposes. The findings may be used to inform changes aimed at improving the quality of FCA programmes. All material used for such processes will be treated as confidential, and the outcome will not affect your grade for the course.

Research Essay (Due Monday 24th May 2010)

Essay Topic

In January 2010 the Ministry of Economic Development issued a Discussion Document ("Cartel Criminalisation") which invites submissions on various proposals for the criminalisation of cartel conduct. It sets out three possible approaches to criminalising cartel conduct – listed as option 1, 2, and 3. The table of contents, the Executive Summary and Questions for Submitters are attached to this Course Outline, but the remainder of the Discussion Document is available at www.med.govt.nz.upload/70683/Cartel-Criminalisation.pdf

Required:

Write a submission (as if to the Ministry of Economic Development) which addresses either

- a) Questions 1 6 and question 25 of the Questions for Submitters ("Detecting and deterring cartels"), or
- b) Question 25 and any 5 or 6 other questions from questions 7-24 of the Questions for submitters ("Defining the offence").

Research Materials:

A number of research sources (including OECD, Canadian and Australian publications) are mentioned in the Discussion Document, including the following (those marked with an asterisk will be included in Volume II of your course materials).

- David King, "Criminalisation of Cartel Behaviour", occasional paper available at www.med.govt.nz
- Information on the Australian provisions, including guideline to the ACCC approach to Cartel investigations, available at www.accc.gov.au, and www.accc.gov.au/cartels
- *Caron Beaton-Wells and Brent Fisse, "Criminalising Serious Cartel Conduct: Issues of Law and Policy (2008) 36 ABLR166.
- *Brent Fisse, "The Cartel Offence: Dishonesty?" (2007) 35 ABLR 235.
- Caron Beaten-Wells and Brent Fisse, "The Australian Criminal Cartel Regime: A Regime for New Zealand?" paper for the 19th Annual Workshop of the Competition Law and Policy Institute of New Zealand, Vol.1, 2008. (Available in Closed Reserve Commerce Library).
- *Part IV of the Australian Trade Practices Act 1974: Division 1 Cartel Conduct (ss.4422RA 4422RV).

BASIC REQUIREMENTS FOR YOUR ESSAY

- 1. You may chose to include an Executive Summary otherwise there should be an introduction and a conclusion, clearly headed as such.
- 2. Do not grossly exceed the word limit (10% tolerance is acceptable) after this point the work will not be marked.
- 3. The due date will be strictly adhered to. However, if you consider you have a good reason for not meeting this deadline, please see the course co-ordinator as soon as you know you will have this problem. Otherwise, the penalty will be 5% per day (after the due date).
- 4. All ideas or quotations from another work must be referenced. You could either use footnotes (for guidance, look at the way this is done in the chapters and articles included in the materials books), or use the APA system you were shown in FCOM 110 or 111. Remember to include the page reference, not just the title of the work being referenced. Do not quote the course materials books as a reference – quote the original source of the work you are referencing.

- 5. There should be a bibliography, listing the sources of information you have used for your essay; (note that a bibliography is not a substitute for referencing).
- 6. Provide a separate cover sheet that shows:

The Title

Your Name

The Course Code

- 7. Leave a 2 inch (5 cm) margin, to enable room for comments.
- 8. Write clearly or type your work.
- 9. Do not plagiarise (see p.107 of the University Calendar for further information). Plagiarism is defined there as "the presentation of the work of another person or other persons as if it were one's own work, whether intended or not. This includes published and unpublished work, material on the Internet and the work of other students and staff". If you want to include a passage from another person's work, use quotation marks at the beginning and end of the passage, then include the appropriate reference. If you want to include the ideas of another person, but not their exact words, you must include a reference to that person's work (but no quotation marks are necessary).

Examinations

Students who enrol in courses with examinations are obliged to attend an examination at the University at any time during the forma examination period.

The final examination for this course will be scheduled at some time during the period from Examination Period: Friday 11^h June – Wednesday 30th June 2010.

Penalties

(See "Basic Requirements for Your Essay", above).

Mandatory Course Requirements

All three items of assessment are mandatory, i.e. the Terms Test, the Research Essay and the Final Exam. Note that you will receive a fail grade if you do not receive at least 40% over the Terms Test and Research Essay combined.
