Course description

INFO 540, Preservation Management, is an introduction to the principles and practice of information preservation of both analogue and digital media, in libraries and archives. Topics include preservation standards, policies and strategies for analogue and digital media, collection assessment, and programme development.

Learning objectives

By the end of the INFO 540 course, students should:

1. Gain knowledge of local and overseas issues, problems, challenges, and initiatives in the preservation management field today.
2. Identify agents of deterioration of library and archival materials, as well as preservation functions that help mitigate deterioration.
3. Explore treatment and reformatting options.
4. Identify basic issues and trends in digital preservation.
5. Demonstrate awareness of the role of preservation in ensuring ongoing access to digital information.
6. Identify components of a preservation programme.
7. Understand principles of effective disaster planning.

Time commitment

To achieve satisfactory grades, you should expect to spend around twelve hours per week on INFO 540 (including time spent in the weekly session). Up to two hours per week will be spent in the weekly seminar, in which you will be expected to contribute to the discussion. The balance of your time should be spent reading material on the CD-ROM, any additional material posted on Blackboard, and doing your preparation work for the weekly session and assignments.

Assessment

This course will be internally assessed. Full details, including explanatory notes and criteria, are available under “Assessment” on Blackboard.

Assignments	Date due	Value	Length
1. Online Participation	various due dates	20%	see Blackboard
2. Collection Analysis	see Blackboard	40%	1500 words
3. Workshop Training Programme	see Blackboard	40%	1500 words

Late assignments

Assignments submitted or postmarked after they are due will have a 5% penalty imposed unless an extension has been granted by the course coordinator.

Assignments submitted or postmarked more than one week after they are due will not be accepted unless there are exceptional circumstances and the late submission has the prior approval of the course coordinator.

Presentation

Details of assignment policies, including information regarding presentation and plagiarism, will be found in the Information Studies pages under 'My Organizations' on Blackboard.

Word count

Each submitted assignment MUST contain a word count, easily available from your word-processing program. The word count should appear under your name. (Note: your name should appear only on the back of the last page of the assignment.) The penalty for not including your word count, or going over the word count, will be 5%.

Plagiarism

You must acknowledge all sources you use. You are expected to present information in your own words, based on your understanding of the background material you read. Any assignment which is extensively plagiarised will receive an automatic fail grade.

Note: Student work provided for assessment in this course may be checked for academic integrity by the electronic search engine <http://www.turnitin.com>. Turnitin is an on-line plagiarism prevention tool which compares submitted work with a very large database of existing material. At the discretion of the Head of School, handwritten work may be copy-typed by the School and subject to checking by Turnitin. Turnitin will retain a copy of submitted materials on behalf of the University for detection of future plagiarism, but access to the full text of submissions will not be made available to any other party.

Submission

All assignments for INFO 540 will be submitted digitally. See the Assessment section of the INFO 540 Blackboard site for details. Remember to keep a copy of each assignment you send, just in case the original goes astray.

Mandatory course requirements

To fulfil the mandatory requirements for this course, you must:

- attend a minimum of 75% of the scheduled class sessions, and participate in class discussions;
- complete all of the assignments in the required timeframe.

Note: Your assessed work may also be used for quality assurance purposes, such as to assess the level of achievement of learning objectives as required for accreditation and audit purposes. The findings may be used to inform changes aimed at improving the quality of FCA programmes. All material used for such processes will be treated as confidential, and the outcome will not affect your grade for the course.

Course resources

The course resources for INFO 540 include a CD-ROM containing readings associated with each of the modules, augmented by material on the Blackboard website for INFO 540; see "Online information" below for further details.

You should prepare any work listed in the relevant Blackboard section before the weekly Internet or internal session for that module. The group discussion/tutorial sessions should not be regarded as a time to catch up on reading and/or exercises not done. Active participation in these sessions will be expected.

Online information

In addition to material on the CD-ROM, you will be required to use the online resources for this course that are available in the Blackboard online learning environment:

<http://blackboard.vuw.ac.nz/>

The Blackboard pages will contain a Web-based forum for discussion of issues related to the course, links to sites of interest, additional readings and information, updates, etc. You should read the appropriate module pages in conjunction with the readings on your CD-ROM. If you have any difficulties logging on please contact the Help Desk, at:

its-service@vuw.ac.nz

All students will also be automatically enrolled in the Information Studies community under 'My Organizations' on Blackboard. General announcements and information will be posted here, and students should check this site regularly.

Internet conferencing

Distance sessions are conducted via the Internet; in order to participate students will need an Internet-connected PC running Windows 7, Vista, or XP, microphone, and headphones/speakers.

To connect, go to the Internet conferencing page (and read the "Getting Started" information) at

<https://conferencing.sim.vuw.ac.nz/>

There is also an 'Internet Conferencing' button linking to this page in your course website on Blackboard.

Some days before your first session, and at least 15 minutes before each subsequent session, you should test your system by going to the Echo Room.

Regular classes will be held in the IST Room; additional Discussion Rooms are available for breakout groups, and as a "waiting room" if a class is proceeding in the main IST room. Study groups can use the discussion rooms out of regular class times. For further information, follow the help links on the Internet Conferencing page; further details, including screen name conventions, are also available on the Information Studies pages under 'My Organizations' on Blackboard.

For problems with the Internet Conferencing site itself, first check the online help information. If your problem is not resolved please contact our in-house IT Support, which is available only during the evening Internet Conferencing sessions:

- Freephone: 0800 116 299 (5-8 p.m. only) -- office phone forwarded directly to distance education support analyst during evenings
- Email: simconferencing@vuw.ac.nz

If for some reason a session does not run, check on Blackboard for an announcement of any alternative arrangements that the lecturer is making. Recordings of all distance sessions are also available for downloading from Blackboard.

Students email list

Staff of the Information Studies Programmes use the ist-students email discussion list to make important announcements, and to share news and ideas relating to the programmes. It is very important that you are subscribed to this list. Please make sure that a current email address which you check regularly is subscribed. We suggest that you remain a member of this list until after you graduate, because the list is used as the main channel to communicate important administration messages (including those about arrangements for graduation).

Emails are sent to ist-students regularly, so if you have not received any list messages for a few weeks it is a good idea to make sure you are still subscribed. If a list message is rejected by your email account you will automatically be unsubscribed from the list.
