FINAL EXAMINATION (2 hours)
during the examination period, 22 October – 13 November (actual date to be advised)

This is a general lecture outline only. Some topics may be addressed in a different week from that shown here.

NZT ≡ Alley, et.al., (2010) New Zealand Taxation 2010 – Principles, Cases and Questions, Thomson Reuters, Wellington.

Note: Not all of the material in each chapter is covered in this course. Specific pages of readings in the above chapters will be provided in lectures.

Course Delivery

This course is delivered via lectures and tutorials. (See under Attendance at Lectures and Lecture Outline above, and under Tutorials below).

Expected Workload

You should expect to spend on average 10 hours per week on the course (excluding time to study for the test and final examination). How this time is made up varies from week to week, but typically comprises:

- 2 hours in scheduled lectures;
- 5 hours preparing for, and participating in, tutorials and completing your bullet-point summaries (referred to under Tutorials below);
- 3 hours reading for lectures, and revising lecture and tutorial notes.

In order to benefit fully from lectures, you should read the relevant sections of the textbook relating to each lecture topic before the lectures.

Group Work

Working in groups is an important component of this course. The content and expectation of group work for tutorials is explained under Tutorials below.

Readings

The prescribed text for this course is:

Alley, et al., (2010) New Zealand Taxation 2010 – Principles, Cases and Questions, Thomson Reuters, Wellington.

While not directly taught in this course, you have the opportunity to improve your writing and oral expression skills, which are critical to working in the accounting and general commercial environment. To assist you in this respect, you are advised to purchase or refer to a copy of Fleet, W., Summers, J. and Smith, B., (2004) Communication Skills Handbook for Accounting, Wiley, Milton.

Any additional reading material will be provided in lectures and on Blackboard.

Materials and Equipment

Most course materials can be downloaded from Blackboard. Lecturers do not hold spare copies of any course materials. If you are having any trouble obtaining course materials, please contact the Course Administrator.

Electronic calculators and foreign language dictionaries may be used in the test and final examination. Calculators must be battery powered and silent in operation. Mobile phones are not permitted. No electronic device may connect to the Internet.

Tutorials

1. Tutorial presentations

The course contains 9 tutorials. The topics/questions for the tutorials will be posted on Blackboard approximately 7–10 days before the week of the tutorial.

Tutorials take place in the following weeks:

	Week beginning
Tutorial 1	26 July 2010
Tutorial 2 (KH)	2 August 2010
Tutorial 3 (KH)	9 August 2010
Tutorial 4 (DD)	16 August 2010

Mid-trimester break

Tutorial 5 (KH)	13 September 2010
Tutorial 6 (KH)	20 September 2010
Tutorial 7 (DD)	27 September 2010
Tutorial 8 (DD)	4 October 2010
Tutorial 9 (DD)	11 October 2010

Tutorial sign-up is on-line (<https://signups.victoria.ac.nz>) during the first week of the trimester. The exact time that the signup starts (and any access denial times) will be given in the lecture on Tuesday 13 July 2010. Instructions for signing up are on page 10. The 16 places in each tutorial are allocated on a “first-come, first-served” basis. Tutorial groups and presentation teams (see below) will be posted on Blackboard by 21 July 2010.

Tutorials 2–9 are conducted as follows: Generally 4 students (depending on the size of the tutorial) are required to lead the discussion on the topic nominated for the tutorial. You will be required to lead 2 tutorials during the course: one in Tutorials 2-5 and the other in Tutorials 6-9.

In Tutorial 1, tutors will outline their expectations of your presentations and your bullet point summary solutions (see below). You will also have an opportunity to exchange email addresses, telephone numbers and other contact details with other students in your tutorial for the purpose of planning your presentations.

The success of your tutorial presentations depends on you getting together with the other students in your group before the presentation to plan the content and how the presentation will be run. Hence, it is expected that you will contact each other once the tutorial lists are published on Blackboard, using your VUW student email address. If you do not use your VUW email address, you must ensure that you create a diversion within the VUW email system to your preferred email address, e.g. Gmail, Yahoo, Hotmail, etc.

Up to 20% of your final grade for this course is awarded for your preparation for, presentation in, and leading of, the discussions in the 2 tutorials in which your team presents. Ten marks are allocated to each presentation, as follows:

- 2 marks for preparation and coordination with the other presenters in your group
- 2 marks for confident oral expression
- 6 marks for strength of argument, facilitating the discussion with the other students and your ability to debate your view convincingly.

Note that under the second bullet-point above, you will automatically lose the 2 marks for each of your presentations if you fail to actively contribute at other students' presentations, or fail to satisfactorily answer questions put to you by the presenters. (See also under Tutorial participation below).

At the conclusion of each tutorial in which you present, your tutor will discuss your presentation. Your mark will be uploaded on Blackboard in the week following each of your presentations. Your mark cannot be seen on Blackboard by other students.

If you are unhappy with your mark, you must first discuss, and attempt to resolve, the matter with your tutor before the following tutorial. If you cannot reach a satisfactory resolution with your tutor, the tutor will forward the matter to the Course Coordinator for consideration.

If you have a compelling reason for not attending the regular tutorial group in which you are enrolled in a particular week, and you are not presenting in that week, you may attend another tutorial group (subject to seating capacity in that group). If you do so, you must advise the "alternative" tutor of your details and also inform the Course Administrator of the one-off change in your tutorial attendance. You must not make a habit of switching tutorials.

2. Tutorial participation and bullet-point summaries

For each tutorial in which you are not giving a presentation, you must prepare in electronic form a bullet-point summary solution to the tutorial questions and send it to the assignment folder on Blackboard before 5:00pm on Friday of the week before the tutorial. Blackboard will accept MS Word and .pdf files. Late summaries will not be accepted. Note that Blackboard automatically provides us with the date and time that you submitted your bullet-point summaries and automatically declines submissions after the due time. Your summaries must be written in comprehensible and legible English.

Even when you are not making a formal presentation in a tutorial, you are expected to contribute to the discussion, and to answer coherently questions put to you by the presenters. Failure to do so will result in loss of marks for your own presentations (see under Tutorial presentations above). This means that you must be properly prepared for all tutorials that you attend. To assist your participation in the tutorials, you should retain a hard copy of your bullet-point summary solution for use at the tutorial.

No suggested solutions to tutorial questions are provided on Blackboard or elsewhere, or distributed by tutors. Therefore, you need to attend the tutorials to ensure that you get the full benefit of the discussion and debate on the subject material. Tutors have notes to ensure that the presentations and discussion in the tutorials adequately cover the topic.

Your tutorial participation and bullet-point summary solutions are part of the Mandatory Course Requirements (see below).

Assessment Requirements

To pass this course, you must obtain a weighted average mark of 50% or more from the 3 pieces of assessment in the course stated below:

	Percentage of final grade	Date
Tutorial presentations	20%
Test (2 hours)	40%	6:00pm, Monday, 6 September 2010 (to be confirmed)
Examination (2 hours)	40%	During the mid-year examination period (22 October – 13 November 2010) – actual date and time to be advised by the Student and Academic Services Office

(Note that the above assessment percentages differ from, and supersede, those shown in the Faculty of Commerce and Administration Bachelors' Degrees Prospectus 2010 and in the Accounting and Commercial Law Undergraduate Prospectus 2010.)

Rooms for the test will be advised on Blackboard at least one week before the test.

Assessment of your ability in the test and final examination takes a variety of forms to cater for different aptitudes of different students. The assessment methods may include multiple choice questions, short-answer questions, calculation questions, and essay questions.

In addition to obtaining a weighted average mark of 50% or more across tutorial presentations, the test and the final examination, you must also meet the Mandatory Course Requirements (see below). If you obtain a weighted-average mark of 50% or more but fail to meet the Mandatory Course Requirements, you will FAIL the course and be given a 'K' grade.

If your performance is affected by sickness or other personal difficulties (e.g. bereavement of a close relative), you must contact the Course Administrator as soon as possible. You must not delay this until the end of the course or when final results are posted. In case of sickness, it is essential that you see a registered medical practitioner as soon as possible while you are sick and obtain a medical certificate that certifies that in the opinion of the doctor you are sick and the extent of disability suffered by you during the period of sickness.

Note: Your assessed work may also be used for quality assurance purposes, such as to assess the level of achievement of learning objectives as required for accreditation and audit purposes. The findings may be used to inform changes aimed at improving the quality of FCA programmes. All material used for such processes will be treated as confidential, and the outcome will not affect your grade for the course.

Examinations

Students who enrol in courses with examinations are obliged to attend an examination at the University at any time during the formal examination period.

The final examination for this course will be scheduled at some time during the period Friday 22 October – Saturday 13 November 2010 (inclusive).

Mandatory Course Requirements

In addition to the Assessment Requirements above, to pass the course you must:

- (i) deliver 2 tutorial presentations; and
- (ii) satisfactorily complete and submit at least 4 of the 6 bullet-point summary solutions for the weeks in which you are not giving your tutorial presentations; and
- (iii) attend at least 6 of the 9 tutorials.

“Satisfactorily complete” in (ii) above means that all questions must be attempted to a standard where the assessor considers that you have made a reasonable effort to offer cogent answers.

Class Representative

A class representative will be elected in the first class, and that person’s name and contact details will be available to VUWSA, the Course Coordinator and the class. The class representative provides a communication channel to liaise with the Course Coordinator on behalf of students.

Communication of Additional Information

This Course Outline, along with other information and materials relating to the course, is available on Blackboard. You are expected to have access to Blackboard to participate in this course. All announcements and notices are posted in the Announcements section of Blackboard. If you have problems accessing Blackboard, you should contact Student Computing Services or the Course Administrator.

Additional information is also conveyed to you in the lectures, and important announcements are e-mailed to your VUW student email.

Use of Turnitin

Student work provided for assessment in this course may be checked for academic integrity by the electronic search engine <http://www.turnitin.com>. Turnitin is an on-line plagiarism prevention tool which compares submitted work with a very large database of existing material. At the discretion of the Head of School, handwritten work may be copy-typed by the School and subject to checking by Turnitin. Turnitin will retain a copy of submitted materials on behalf of the University for detection of future plagiarism, but access to the full text of submissions will not be made available to any other party.
