Course Learning Objectives

Students who are successful in this course will be able to:

- Explain the role of management accounting in organisations;
- Classify costs according to their basic classification and behavioural concepts;
- Apply and contrast the absorption costing and the marginal costing principles;
- Apply the method of activity-based-costing;
- Apply various costing methods to both service and manufacturing industries;
- Use planning, decision making, and control techniques such as (i) cost-volume-profit analysis, (ii) budgeting and (iii) management by exception.

Course Delivery

The course is delivered in one two-hour lecture a week, plus one student lead activity. The two hours will be lecturer lead, including lecturing, discussion and practice questions. Material will be assigned as pre or post lecture work. For the technical content, use will be made of the MyAccountingLab resource associated with the textbook.

The student lead activity hour includes presentations of student individual projects and group projects, both projects contribute to final grades for the course. The remaining weeks will be used to discuss more conceptual material and practice case study preparation.

Expected Workload

Total expected workload for an average student in this course is 150 hours.

It is expected that an average of 10 hours per week will be spent on this course during the 12 teaching weeks. This should consist of:

3 hours	Lecture attendance
2 hours	Preparation for student lead discussion (when not presenting)
1 hour	Group project (12 hours in total = undertaken in a block rather than weekly)
1-2 hours	Preparation for lectures (pre-reading)
2-3 hours	Post lecture revision (including revision questions and using MyAccountingLab)
½ hour	Individual project (6 hours in total = undertaken in a block rather than weekly)

Outside teaching weeks, a further 30 hours is expected on revision, study and course work.

Readings

Required Textbook:

Peter Atrill, & Eddie McLaney; 2009 Management Accounting for Decision Making (6th edition)
Financial Times Press, Essex.

Recommended:

Wendy Fleet, Jane Summers, & Brett Smith; 2004 Communication Skills Handbook for Accounting John Wiley & Sons, Milton.

Additional readings will be provided in class and on Blackboard.

Materials and Equipment

Calculators should be brought to all lectures.

Students that are unfamiliar with management accounting should ensure they have access to the MyAccounting Lab resource associated with the textbook.

Assessment Requirements

Individual Project	15%	hand in by 4 May 2011, presentations on 9 May 2011
Group Project	15%	due on day of presentation, see course schedule
Test	20%	1 April 2011 (To be confirmed)
Examination	50%	between 10 June – 2 July 2011

Note: Your assessed work may also be used for quality assurance purposes, such as to assess the level of achievement of learning objectives as required for accreditation and audit purposes. The findings may be used to inform changes aimed at improving the quality of FCA programmes. All material used for such processes will be treated as confidential, and the outcome will not affect your grade for the course.

Individual Project (15%)

Provide a report based on a management accounting article.

Instructions:

- Select a peer reviewed article of at least 8 pages length on any aspect of management accounting. You may not chose any article already provided as part of the class readings.
- Write a 600 word report on the article for the chief executive of a company. The report should outline the content of the article, the implications for your firm and your proposed recommendations based on the article for changes in the company.
You can chose the company type; i.e. industry, country, size, strategy, etc. Include with your project a one paragraph summary of your company.
Projects should be placed in the MMPA 502 assignment box on the mezzanine floor in Rutherford House no later than 5.00 pm 4 May 2011.
- In addition to handing the report by the due date, all projects will be presented to the class on Monday 9 May 2011. This will be in the form of 'speed presentation' where each presenter will have no more than 3 minutes to transmit the key ideas on their selected paper as if to the senior management of your company.

Mark allocation for individual project is:

Report
Content	20%
Implications	20%
Recommendations	20%
Speed presentation	40%

Group Project (15%)

The class will be allocated into small groups. Each group will be responsible for the presentation to the class of one case study. The presentation will take about 45 minutes per group, including time for questions. For each case presentation the presenting group will be acting as a team of consultants (or an internal project work group) hired (or constituted) to address a particular problem and present their recommendations to the management. An oral presentation and a written, executive style, report will be required, each worth 50% of the overall marks. More detail is provided on the case presentation marking scheme, which will be circulated, and students will have the opportunity to participate in a practice case presentation and gain feedback on their performance.

The written report should be handed to the lecturer immediately BEFORE the oral presentation. The presenting group will need to outline the case problem, explain the relevant management accounting techniques they have used to address the problem and present the analysis undertaken and appropriate recommendations and conclusions, i.e. their proposed solution to the case. They will also be expected to answer questions from other groups, and justify their recommendations as necessary.

All other groups should have worked on the case and prepared their own answers and hence be in a position to “challenge” the presenting group if they have different interpretations or answers. The other groups will each be expected to ask at least one question of the presenting group who will gain marks for the quality of their answers.

We expect that students should spend on average 12 hours working on this project. A significant amount of this time, although not all, will be working as a group.

Test (20%)

The test will be 1 hour long and will consist of multiple choice and/or short answer questions. Time and place for test will be advised in lectures and via Blackboard.

Examinations (50%)

The examination will be 2 hours long. Further details will be provided in due course. Students are obliged to attend an examination for this course at the University at any time during the formal examination period.

The final examination for this course will be scheduled at some time during the period from Friday 10 June – Saturday 2 July 2011

Mandatory Course Requirements

In addition to obtaining an overall course mark of 50% or more, students must:

- Participate in the Group project, including both the preparation of the report and the presentation.

Class Representative

A class representative will be elected in the first class, and that person's name and contact details will be available to VUWSA, the Course Coordinator and the class. The class representative provides a communication channel to liaise with the Course Coordinator on behalf of students.

Communication of Additional Information

Additional information will be conveyed by Blackboard or by email to all class members. Once you have registered for this course you should be able to connect to Blackboard at <http://blackboard.vuw.ac.nz>.

Use of Turnitin (if applicable)

The following words below (modified as necessary for particular circumstances) should be added to the section on plagiarism when work submitted by students is likely to be checked by Turnitin.

Student work provided for assessment in this course may be checked for academic integrity by the electronic search engine <http://www.turnitin.com>. Turnitin is an on-line plagiarism prevention tool which compares submitted work with a very large database of existing material. At the discretion of the Head of School, handwritten work may be copy-typed by the School and subject to checking by Turnitin. Turnitin will retain a copy of submitted materials on behalf of the University for detection of future plagiarism, but access to the full text of submissions will not be made available to any other party.
