Attendance at Lectures

A significant part of this course is lecture based. Therefore, you are strongly recommended to attend all lectures and tutorial group sessions. Much information, which is examinable, is conveyed by the spoken word only and is not posted on Blackboard or otherwise distributed!

Tutorials

During the second week of trimester, you will be given the opportunity to sign up to a tutorial group electronically (via S-cubed) on a first-come-first-served basis. The instructions for signing up are on page 6 of this course outline. The completed tutorial group lists with their group identification number will be posted on Blackboard as soon as practically possible after the closing date of the tutorial group sessions' signup. Subsequent changes to those tutorial group lists can only be made by the Course Administrator. Tutorials will start in week 4.

Tutorials are not compulsory but they are recommended and an attendance roll will be recorded. Tutorials are generally designed to clarify and reinforce material covered in lectures.

Duty Tutoring

A Duty Tutor will be available for additional assistance outside of your assigned tutorial group sessions (see page 1 for availability). Please seek your tutor's help first (during tutorial group sessions) before approaching the Duty Tutor or your lecturer (during their contact hours). Any additional Duty Tutor sessions will be announced in class and posted on Blackboard.

Course Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, students should be able to:

- Describe the development and functions of the New Zealand company and partnership law and associated areas of law;
- Explain the legal principles and policies that underlie the law of organisations;
- Identify and evaluate legal problems and issues that arise in selected areas within the law of organisations;
- Analyse the law from a perspective of identifying defects and proposing reforms.

Course Delivery

The course will be delivered by lectures and tutorials. Before lectures you should read the assigned material on the reading list and for tutorials, students need to read and consider the tutorial questions before each tutorial. Some tutorials will be problem solving. It is recommended that students attempt to answer such questions before the tutorial by identifying the key issues, analysing the applicable law and applying to the facts.

Expected Workload

This is a 15 point course. As such it equates to 150 hours of work spread over its duration of: (i) 12 lecture weeks, (ii) 2 mid-trimester study break weeks, and (iii) 1 study week prior to the final examination period. That is on average a total of 10 hours of work per week (150 hours of work ÷ 15 weeks).

Group Work

Group work is limited to your participation in your Tutorial Group Sessions.
