PART A: ALL ABOUT THE COURSE...

Course Objectives

Rationale and Reach

Perhaps the underlying rationale for a course of this kind can be captured by a speech given by a New Zealand politician back in 2003. At that time he said the following:

There is certain timelessness about the core functions of government: what governments do. They create the nation state and ensure the safety and security of the citizenry. They create internal order, and they create markets through which the citizens can specialise in economic production and exchange the rewards from their labour and the returns to their capital.

I make this rather obvious point because debate on the role of government sometimes sees the state as the enemy of the market. The reality is that the market is a product of the state. Without a government to define property rights, and establish and enforce the terms under which property rights transfer, there is anarchy, not markets.

I will come back to this, because the fundamental role of the government in defining property rights is potentially one of the more contentious roles it has to carry out. We see this in arguments about foreign investment, access to land, and the seabed and foreshore issue in the high public profile cases. But governments are constantly aligning property rights and market rules as different participants feel that existing laws disadvantage them. Competition laws and rules around the issuing of securities, on takeovers and the like all fall into this category.

How governments do these things evolves slowly and continuously. As an example, the notion of the safety and security of the population can be limited to safety of life and limb, or it can extend to cradle-to-grave welfare. History tells us that we move along a continuum over time, rather than redefine the role of the state through episodic but dramatic ideological repositioning.

The politician was Dr Michael Cullen, then Minister of Finance, but the personality and more to the point the political preferences of that particular politician are less important than the substance of what he had to say. In many respects his comments capture the overall theme for this course, and that theme is ‘governing the market’.

Of course the state of the international economy is such that we would not have to go far to find other more recent illustrative examples of statements that go to the relationship between state and market. The past year has seen unprecedented levels of market instability, and – in historical terms – unprecedented levels of state or government action designed to remedy that instability.

Here are some extracts from a speech given in January 2009:

Nor is the question before us whether the market is a force for good or ill. Its power to generate wealth and expand freedom is unmatched, but this crisis has reminded us that without a watchful eye, the market can spin out of control - and that a nation cannot prosper long when it favours only the prosperous. The success of our economy has always depended not just on the size of our gross domestic product, but on the reach of our prosperity; on our ability to extend opportunity to every willing heart - not out of charity, but because it is the surest route to our common good.

And here are some more recent remarks by the same man made on 4 February 2009

But in order to restore trust in our financial system, we're going to have to do more than just put forward our plans. In order to restore trust, we've got to make certain that taxpayer funds are not subsidizing excessive compensation packages on Wall Street.

We all need to take responsibility. And this includes executives at major financial firms who turned to the American people, hat in hand, when they were in trouble, even as they paid themselves customary lavish bonuses. As I said last week, this is the height of irresponsibility. It's shameful. And that's exactly the kind of disregard of the costs and consequences of their actions that brought about this crisis: a culture of narrow self-interest and short-term gain at the expense of everything else.

This is America. We don't disparage wealth. We don't begrudge anybody for achieving success. And we certainly believe that success should be rewarded. But what gets people upset - and rightfully so - are executives being rewarded for failure, especially when those rewards are subsidized by U.S. taxpayers, many of whom are having a tough time themselves.

For top executives to award themselves these kinds of compensation packages in the midst of this economic crisis isn't just bad taste - it's bad strategy - and I will not tolerate it as President. We're going to be demanding some restraint in exchange for federal aid - so that when firms seek new federal dollars, we won't find them up to the same old tricks

The person speaking? - Barack Obama, President of the United States of America.

And here is a final and further extract given by another prominent politician in January of last year...

There's one final thing we in Europe need to have more confidence about and that is our values. The value of liberal democracy used to be sacred in the West.

Now some people are doubting it. They've seen authoritarian capitalism and the way it works. They see political leaders with the power of juggernauts, forcing decisions through and they argue that against this, our liberal values look outdated, ineffective - even an obstacle to success.

I passionately disagree. It's those values that create the climate for innovation. Look at where the big ideas come from - from the Facebooks and the Spofifys - and the vast majorities are from open societies.

That's because good ideas come through freedom- free thinking and the free association of like-minded people. Our values create the right climate for business, too.

If you're looking to set up headquarters abroad, are you going to invest?

- Where your premises can be taken away from you?
- Where contracts are routinely dishonoured?
- Where there's a threat of political upheaval?
- Or, are you going to invest where there are property rights, the rule of law, democratic responsibility?

These values aren't some quaint constitutional add-on they are an integral and invaluable part of our success today and tomorrow - and all of us must always remember that.

The speaker - The British Prime Minister, David Cameron

These extracts go to many things, but at their core they go to governing the market.

But the formal title of this course is not 'governing the market', but 'Government, Law and Business' - less catchy perhaps, but accurate nonetheless.

The main rationale for the course is to set out for those who take it - BCA and other students – the governmental and legal context for business in New Zealand. This is not to suggest that the focus will be exclusively on New Zealand, and we hope both that the content will speak to issues and challenges in other jurisdictions, and that the process of teaching and learning will allow those of us who are not originally of this place (Aotearoa/New Zealand) to bring our own knowledge and experience to that learning.

Teaching and Learning Objectives

At the end of this course students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate an understanding of the key elements of New Zealand's constitutional and political arrangements, explaining the role of formal and conventional institutional arrangements
2. Identify how those constitutional and political arrangements might variously impact on the New Zealand commercial environment
3. Survey and appraise possible changes to those constitutional and political arrangements over the medium to long term
4. Demonstrate an awareness of the nature of the law and the law-making process, and the general operation of the legal system
5. Explain the way in which the law is reformed and developed through legislation and case law to meeting the changing needs of government, business and society, including by the illustrative use of a particular area of law reform
6. Demonstrate the competence to apply legal problem-solving skills in selected case situations
7. Illustrate an understanding of the significance of ethics in the context of the private and the public sectors, the nature of some ethical dilemmas and the various ways in which some ethical problems and issues of control and guidance are dealt with under the law and under other instruments of guidance and control
8. Demonstrate an understanding of the public policy process, including the various stages of the process and the interrelationships between them, and explain how civil society actors, including business may be able to engage with the policy process and exercise some measure of influence
9. Analyse New Zealand's links with the rest of the world in terms of trade, financial institutions and governance.

10. Plan, write and edit an essay to an acceptable first year/100-level academic standard of presentation. This includes full and accurate referencing, using APA style where appropriate.

Victoria University of Wellington has identified a number of graduate attributes. The intention is that students graduating from Victoria University of Wellington will be able to demonstrate and apply knowledge, skills and competencies in:

- Communication
- Critical and creative thinking and
- Leadership

To complement these graduate attributes, Learning Goals have also been developed for the BCA degree. FCOM 111 is one of the core courses for the Bachelor of Commerce and Administration Degree.

The Learning Goals for the BCA are as follows:

- Learning Goal 1 Critical and Creative Thinking
- Learning Goal 2 Communication
- Learning Goal 3 Global and Multicultural Perspectives
- Learning Goal 4 Leadership

Taken together the intention is to ensure that the core of the BCA degree will enable you to meet the learning goals.

Teaching and Learning Objectives and Assessment Mix

The teaching and learning objectives will be assessed using the following instruments:

COURTESY CODE FOR FCOM 111 LECTURES AND TUTORIALS

The fundamental lesson of a University is that YOU need to be responsible for your own learning. If you engage with the course, then you have a wonderful opportunity for a creative exploration of the ideas presented. As part of this learning experience please be courteous to your lecturers and fellow students by adhering to the following:

1. Turn off all mobile phones while attending the lectures and tutorials. This also includes sending and receiving text messages.
2. Be punctual. The lectures start at 10 mins past the hour. Tutorials start on the hour in the morning and 10 minutes after the hour from 1.10pm.

5. Avoid sitting in the aisles.
6. Show respect towards the lecturer/tutor and your fellow students at all times.
7. Lastly - enjoy the course!

EXPECTED WORKLOAD

FCOM 111 is a first year, Introductory Course worth 15 points towards your final degree. As such a total of 150 hours should be devoted to your course of study over the entire Trimester.

These hours should be divided between the following areas of study that are necessary to achieve a passing grade in FCOM 111:

- Lecture Attendance
 - Tutorial Attendance and Preparation of Tutorial Worksheets
 - Assignment Research and Writing
 - Study for the Legal Test and Final Course Examination

WHAT ARE THE COURSE READINGS?

The essential readings for this course are included on the FCOM 111 Blackboard site under Course Documents. Additional material and readings may be distributed at lectures or Tutorials or posted on Blackboard.

Students need to study the readings closely, and make full use of them in their tutorials and written assignments. In marking assignments, it will be assumed that you have studied the relevant readings, reflected on them, and formed a considered view of the issues raised. This is what is meant by “critically” as set out in the Course Objectives. Note that the Course Criteria for marking the Essays in this Course includes marks for “...showing evidence of completing the relevant readings”.

Students are reminded that a substantial part of their overall grade is based on tutorial Worksheets which directly test your understanding of the Course Readings. The specific Readings for each Worksheet are listed at the top of each Worksheet.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT TUTORIALS

Prepare:

The tutorials aim to provide you with general assistance with the course requirements. Tutors will give you guidance about how to approach the set assessments, and give you feedback on assignments. You will be expected to think for yourself and develop your own view on the issues raised in the course. Your tutors will help you to debate and discuss these issues.

Worksheets:

At the start of each tutorial, students are required to hand in the TUTORIAL WORKSHEET due that week. Students should refer to the schedule on Page 3 of this Course Outline regarding the due dates of Worksheets. These assignments are available on the Blackboard site. Students should type their answers in size 11 font within the boxes provided (without altering their size) and hand in their printed worksheet at the relevant tutorial. It is essential that electronic copies of each worksheet be kept and it may be necessary to submit for quality assurance purposes.

Assignments:

The Tutorial Worksheets make up 20% of the overall course grade for FCOM 111. All students MUST submit AT LEAST 6 tutorial worksheets. Each Worksheet is worth a maximum of 4%. PART E: ALL ABOUT THE COURSE ASSESSMENTS...

THERE ARE FOUR (4) ASSESSMENTS IN THIS COURSE:

Assessment One: Government Assignment (25%)

Due: Thursday 5 April between 10.00am and 1 pm
(Week 5)

Assessment Two: Legal Test (25%)

Date: Monday 14 May
(Week 9)

A one hour Test commencing at 6.15pm.

Rooms will be advised in Tutorials and will be published on Blackboard.

Assessment Three: Tutorial Worksheets (20%)

Due: To be handed in at the beginning of tutorials.

The Tutorial Worksheets make up 20% of the overall course grade for FCOM 111. All students MUST submit AT LEAST 6 tutorial worksheets. Each worksheet is worth a maximum of 4%. The best 5 marked worksheets will be used to calculate this proportion of your FCOM 111 final grade.

Assessment Four: Final Course Examination (30%)

A two hour examination covering the material from the entire course.

The final examination for this course will be scheduled at some time during the period from Friday 15 June to Wednesday 4 July (inclusive).

Details of the Assessments are set out below.

WHO MARKS THE ASSESSMENTS?

Your FCOM tutor will mark and provide appropriate feedback for the Government Assignment and Tutorial Assignment Worksheets. If you feel that the mark or feedback you received is unfair, then you must discuss this matter with your tutor, who may remark your Assessment. If you still feel that you have been treated unfairly then you may ask that your Assessment be reconsidered by the Course Co-ordinator. Your assessment, signed by your tutor, should be taken to the FCOM Office (EA 114). Dr. Michael Cash will review the mark.

Requests to review the mark must be made within ten (10) days of the Assessment being handed back. Note that both your tutor and Michael Cash may increase or decrease your grade if you request a remark.

A system of Moderation is in place and all work will be moderated by FCOM 111 Academic Staff.

Students wishing to receive a copy of their final examination script should refer to:

<http://www.victoria.ac.nz/fca/studenthelp/FAQ.aspx> for more information.

WHAT ARE THE CRITERIA FOR MARKING THE GOVERNMENT ASSIGNMENT AND TUTORIAL ASSIGNMENT WORKSHEETS?

The criteria for marking this Assignment are that your essay should:

1. Be substantially your own work.
2. Succeed in answering the Question(s) asked.
3. Show a good understanding of the relevant issues.
4. Give evidence of knowledge of relevant readings and research.
5. Demonstrate the ability to critique ideas.
6. Attain a good first-year University level of presentation of academic writing and research. Students are expected to use the APA referencing system in their Assignments.

In order to pass these assessments and do well, you must avoid a “cut and paste” Assignment. You will be rewarded, above all else, for your own thinking and engagement with the topic

REFERENCING AND PLAGIARISM

Your essays will be checked for plagiarism, so you need to carefully read the section on plagiarism and Turnitin usage (page 30). All references from your readings, other research undertaken, or from the Internet must be cited correctly and fully, using the APA referencing system.

Information on the APA Referencing system can be found here:

http://www.victoria.ac.nz/st_services/slss/studyhub/reference/APA.pdf

http://www.victoria.ac.nz/st_services/slss/studyhub/handouts.aspx

REMEMBER: Direct quotes OR paraphrasing (including ideas and concepts) MUST be referenced. Plagiarised material will be given 0 marks.

You must ensure to keep an electronic copy of all your submitted work that may be retrieved when requested. Teaching Staff and/or the Course Coordinator reserves the right to check for plagiarism using whatever means required, including running work through turnitin.com.

ASSESSMENT ONE: GOVERNMENT ASSIGNMENT (25%)

In the 2011 Referendum on the Voting System, held in conjunction with the General Election on 26 November, the majority of voters chose to keep MMP as New Zealand's voting system.

This triggered an independent review of MMP, conducted by the Electoral Commission, in which all New Zealand citizens can have a say on any changes they would like to see made to the way MMP works.

Critically review the arguments advanced for the adoption of the MMP system, and – in the context of the present Review of MMP – for changes to the way in which MMP works.

NB – your discussion of changes to the way in which MMP works will need to address at least two of the issues decided by Parliament as part of the Electoral Referendum Act passed in 2010.

All references from your readings, other research undertaken, or from the Internet must be cited correctly and fully, using the APA referencing system.

You should utilise the materials and skills you have acquired from the three Writing Skills Workshops to ensure your essay meets the standards required of a first year/100-level piece of academic writing.

Information on the APA Referencing system can be found here:
http://www.victoria.ac.nz/st_services/slss/studyhub/handouts.aspx and in the FCA Writing Resource booklet.

Due: Thursday 5 April 2012 by 1pm

Word length: No more than 1500 words – PLEASE NOTE THE TOTAL WORD LENGTH OF YOUR ASSIGNMENT ON YOUR COVER SHEET.

Place your assignment in the box with your tutor's name on it.
Boxes are located on Level 2, Murphy Building.

For Late Assignments please see page 28.

Note: Your assessed work may also be used for quality assurance purposes, such as to assess the level of achievement of learning objectives as required for accreditation and audit purposes. The findings may be used to inform changes aimed at improving the quality of FCA programmes. All material used for such processes will be treated as confidential and the outcome will not affect your grade for the course.

You must retain a copy in an electronic form. You may be required to submit that electronic copy for quality assurance purposes.

ASSESSMENT TWO: LEGAL TEST (25%)

The Test covers legal lectures up to the end of Week 6, including Tutorial Worksheets #3 and #4.

The Test will consist of a mixture of short to medium length written answer questions.

The rooms allocated for this test will be posted on Blackboard and advised in Lectures and Tutorials.

Date: Monday 14 May 2012.

A one hour test commencing at 6.15pm. Details of where to sit will be posted on Blackboard.

ASSESSMENT THREE: TUTORIAL ASSIGNMENT WORKSHEETS (20%)

The Tutorial Worksheets make up 20% of the overall course grade for FCOM 111. All students MUST submit AT LEAST 6 tutorial assignment worksheets. These should be handed in at the beginning of the relevant tutorial (see p. 3)

The best 5 marked worksheets will be used to calculate this proportion of your FCOM 111 final grade.

The Worksheets will be available for downloading on blackboard.

ASSESSMENT FOUR: THE FINAL COURSE EXAMINATION (30%)

A two hour examination covering all the material from the entire course.

Students who enrol in courses with examinations are obliged to attend an examination at the University at any time during the formal examination period.

Examination dates for Trimester one: Friday 15 June – Wednesday 4 July (inclusive).

Check Blackboard for details and the date of this test.

WHAT HAPPENS TO LATE ASSESSMENTS?

Late Assignments and Essays will have their total mark reduced by 1 mark for each day they are overdue unless PRIOR permission has been granted. Late Assignments and Essays are to be brought to the FCOM Office during office hours (EA 114).

Assignments and Essays submitted over ten (10) days late will not be marked and you will be awarded 0% for this assessment.

To complete the mandatory requirements for this course you must:

- a) Attend all three of the Writing Skills Workshops (Weeks 2, 3, and 4).
AND
- b) Attend at least SIX of the EIGHT Tutorials (starting in Week 5) and sign the roll as present. If you arrive late then your tutor may not award you with 'attendance' for that tutorial.

Academic Integrity, Plagiarism, and the use of Turnitin

Plagiarism is presenting someone else's work as if it were your own, whether you mean to or not.

'Someone else's work' means anything that is not your own idea. Even if it is presented in your own style, you must still acknowledge your sources fully and appropriately. This includes:

- material from books, journals or any other printed source
- the work of other students or staff
- information from the Internet
- software programs and other electronic material
- designs and ideas
- the organisation or structuring of any such material.

Acknowledgement is required for all material in any work submitted for assessment unless it is a 'fact' that is well-known in the context (such as "Wellington is the capital of New Zealand") or your own ideas in your own words. Everything else that derives from one of the sources above and ends up in your work – whether it is directly quoted, paraphrased, or put into a table or figure, needs to be acknowledged with a reference that is sufficient for your reader to locate the original source.

Plagiarism undermines academic integrity simply because it is a form of lying, stealing and mistreating others. Plagiarism involves stealing other people's intellectual property and lying about whose work it is. This is why plagiarism is prohibited at Victoria.

If you are found guilty of plagiarism, you may be penalised under the Statute on Student Conduct. You should be aware of your obligations under the Statute, which can be downloaded from the policy website (www.victoria.ac.nz/home/about/policy/students.aspx). You could fail your course or even be suspended from the University.

Plagiarism is easy to detect. The University has systems in place to identify it.

Student work provided for assessment in this course may be checked for academic integrity by the electronic search engine <http://www.turnitin.com>. Turnitin is an on-line plagiarism prevention tool which compares submitted work with a very large database of existing material. At the discretion of the Head of School, handwritten work may be copy-typed by the School and subject to checking by Turnitin. Turnitin will retain a copy of submitted materials on behalf of the University for detection of future plagiarism, but access to the full text of submissions will not be made available to any other party.

There is guidance available to students on how to avoid plagiarism by way of sound study skills and the proper and consistent use of a recognised referencing system. This guidance may be found at the following website <http://www.victoria.ac.nz/home/study/plagiarism.aspx>

If in doubt seek the advice of your course coordinator.

Plagiarism is simply not worth the risk

Class Representatives

A class representative/s will be elected in the first class, and that person's name and contact details will be available to VUWSA, the Course Coordinator and the class. The class representative provides a communication channel to liaise with the Course Coordinator on behalf of students.
