Course Learning Objectives

It is expected that you will attain the following learning outcomes in this course:

LO1: Review the most relevant concepts and methods in international strategy and organisation (assessed in tutorials and the exam).

LO2: Explain and interpret the key elements of international business strategies (assessed in tutorials and the exam).

LO3: Apply frameworks, tools, and methods to solve problems, demonstrating alternative solutions and constructing solutions for international business strategy, organisational structure, and implementation (assessed in the case study project and the exam).

LO4: Assess the effectiveness of certain strategies and organisation structures in different environments and recommend alternative courses of action (assessed in the case study project and the exam).

Course Delivery

The course will be delivered through class room lectures, tutorials and Blackboard. There will be 6 tutorials starting from week 3. Tutorials are designed to support your case study project and enhance understanding of international strategy literature. Students are expected to undertake prior reading of the weekly topics. All the lecture slides (partially incomplete) will be put on Blackboard before the lectures have been delivered. Students are expected to remain in touch with Blackboard to stay current with class activities and developments.

Expected Workload

You should expect to spend 150 hours for this course.

Attendance (classes and tutorials):	30 hours (over 12 weeks)
Reading, reviewing and exam prep:	60 hours (over 15 weeks)
Assignments and Discussion Boards:	45 hours (over 12 weeks)
Group work:	15 hours (over 6 weeks)

Group Work

Group work consists of 15% of the total weight comprising of written group reports (10% of total weight) and group proposal presentations (5% of total weight). Each group will consist of 3 to 4 students and should be diverse in terms of nationality/ethnicity/culture and gender to add an international and cross cultural perspective. In addition to the class time and reading and reviewing time, each group is expected to spend about 15 hours for group meetings and group work discussions to complete the project successfully well in time.

Each group member gets the allocated group marks. If there are any group performance or cooperation issues among the group members, those must be brought to the attention of the lecturer immediately so that they can be addressed well in time. Free riders and the students contributing less to the group output will be marked down accordingly. Please refer to the marking criteria (see Blackboard) for further details.

Readings

The required and suggested textbooks are available at Pipitea VicBook Shop and are also in the library on closed reserve.

Required Text

In addition, any text book which contain 'international business strategy', 'multinational strategy and structure', 'transnational strategy and structure', 'global strategy', 'international business', 'world business' etc is likely to provide valuable information and can be used as an additional source for reference.

Materials and Equipment

The textbooks provide the starting point for reading. This should NOT be considered the minimum necessary to complete assignments. Students are encouraged to make use of printed media (newspapers, magazines), academic material (journals and books), and resources available on the web (library databases, web pages of universities, companies, and international organisations, and media-related sites) as additional sources of reading and reference material.

Additional references and reading material can be obtained from:

- the bibliographies of the textbooks,
- library electronic databases such as Proquest or Expanded Academic ASAP,
- the ibresources website at www.vuw.ac.nz/ibresources ,
- www.globaledge.com, or www.scholar.google.com or
- Blackboard.

Typed material, books, electronic devices, and mobile phones are NOT allowed in the final examination. However, you are allowed to bring one double sided hand written (not typed) A4 sheet of notes to the final examination.

The outcome will be a standard grade (A+ to E).

Information on individual pieces of assessment will be provided in class and on Blackboard. Turnitin submission of individual analysis and the final report is required by noon on the respective due dates.

Quality Assurance Note

Your assessed work may also be used for quality assurance purposes, such as to assess the level of achievement of learning objectives as required for accreditation and audit purposes. The findings may be used to inform changes aimed at improving the quality of FCA programmes. All material used for such processes will be treated as confidential, and the outcome will not affect your grade for the course.

Examinations

Students who enrol in courses with examinations are obliged to attend an examination at the University at any time during the formal examination period.

The final examination for this course will be scheduled at some time during the period from Friday 15 June – Wednesday 4 July (inclusive).

Penalties

Late assignment submissions will incur a penalty of 10% per day. Exceptions will be made only for special circumstances (bereavement, illness, etc.) where documentation is provided.

Any student caught cheating on an assignment or examination will receive an automatic mark of zero (0) and/or disciplinary actions may be taken under the Statute on Student Conduct. This includes plagiarism. You are strongly advised to consult the Academic Integrity and Plagiarism policy website, which is mentioned at the end of the document.

Mandatory Course Requirements

You are required to obtain an overall mark of at least 50%, and obtain a minimum mark of 40% in the final examination to pass this course.

Class Representative

A class representative will be elected in the first class, and that person's name and contact details made available to VUWSA, the Course Coordinator and the class. The class representative provides a communication channel to liaise with the Course Coordinator on behalf of students.

Communication of Additional Information

Any additional information or changes will be posted on the IBUS 305 Blackboard website: (www.blackboard.scs.vuw.ac.nz)

Use of Turnitin

Student work provided for assessment in this course may be checked for academic integrity by the electronic search engine <http://www.turnitin.com>. Turnitin is an on-line plagiarism prevention tool which compares submitted work with a very large database of existing material. At the discretion of the Head of School, handwritten work may be copy-typed by the School and subject to checking by Turnitin. Turnitin will retain a copy of submitted materials on behalf of the University for detection of future plagiarism, but access to the full text of submissions will not be made available to any other party.
