Introduction to TOUR 101

Tourism is a large and complex phenomenon. It can be regarded as a significant social and economic activity, a business, an industry, and a source of environmental and social change. Many of the challenges of studying tourism, and subsequently working or researching in this field, arise from the multi-faceted nature of tourism. That is, tourism is made up of many different sectors (including transport, accommodation, attractions, supporting services and infrastructure), each of which in turn may be quite diverse and viewed from a variety of perspectives: economic, socio-cultural, environmental, and political. Moreover, tourism is a geographically complex activity characterised by multiple origins and destinations linked together in various ways, by flows of people, ideas, information and resources, by transport networks and distribution channels.

As an introductory course and platform for further study, TOUR 101 seeks to provide a systematic and conceptual basis for exploring and understanding the complexities of tourism. The course follows an origin-linkage-destination framework. The overall approach is outlined in the first lectures before attention is directed at the nature of demand generated in the origins. The various linkages that bring together origins and destinations are then examined. The latter part of the course focuses on destinations and systematically examines the ways in which these develop. As well, different components of a destination are explored.

Bachelor of Tourism Management (BTM) Learning Goals and Objectives

Learning Goal #1: Our graduates will possess and apply specific knowledge of tourism management as well as a range of transferable skills

Learning Objectives

Graduates will be able to:

- (a) demonstrate a systematic understanding of theoretical and applied aspects of tourism management

- (b) display an appreciation for concepts and methods that inform the management of tourism organizations, businesses, and resources
- (c) demonstrate a breadth of tourism management expertise: managing tourism businesses, visitors, and impacts
- (d) acquire skills and knowledge that provide a solid platform for graduate study

Learning Goal #2: Our graduates will demonstrate application of critical and creative thinking skills to practical and theoretical tourism management problems

Learning Objectives

Graduates will be able to:

- (a) assess, appraise, and synthesise a range of tourism management issues, plans, and concepts
- (b) identify, access, and evaluate a range of information and data sources
- (c) undertake and apply research in tourism management
- (d) analyse, evaluate, and interpret tourism data (on businesses, destinations, and industry sectors)
- (e) use innovative thinking and creative skills in the context of the tourism business environment and tourism research

Learning Goal #3: Our graduates will be effective and confident communicators

Learning Objectives

Graduates will be able to:

- (a) present original ideas and material effectively using a range of media
- (b) apply advanced written communication skills
- (c) prepare and deliver polished and professional oral presentations
- (d) communicate effectively with peers when undertaking group projects

Learning Goal #4: By meeting the above learning goals, our graduates will display leadership and be able to assume positions of responsibility

Learning Objectives

Graduates will be able to:

- (a) engage in effective individual and group decision making
- (b) develop an understanding of tourism leadership qualities and issues
- (c) acquire an appreciation for good leadership in the workplace through the practicum

Overall Course Objectives

This course complements TOUR104, The Business Environment of Tourism. The course objectives are to provide you with a systematic introduction to the study of tourism and a sound foundation for the BTM by:

1. outlining the multi-faceted nature of tourism and the need for an integrated approach to its study and management
2. developing a conceptual basis for the study and management of tourism
3. examining key issues and their inter-relationships by reference to selected examples
4. fostering critical and creative thinking about theory and practice in tourism
5. encouraging students to adopt a structured, enquiring approach to the study of tourism

Course-related Student Learning Objectives and Skills

On successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. recognize the complexity of tourism both as an industry and a field of study
2. identify and describe the roles of public, private, and third sector entities involved in the global and national tourism industry
3. think systematically, critically, and creatively about selected tourism concepts and models
4. consider tourism cases and examples in an analytical manner
5. locate, record, organise, and analyse relevant tourism information from a variety of library- and web-based sources
6. research, plan, and produce written work that meets academic standards
7. manage different tasks and deadlines effectively
8. demonstrate oral communication and listening skills in tutorials

Items 1 to 7 on the list above will be assessed through the two essays in this course. The final examination will assess items 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7. The course's tutorial programme will provide students with the opportunity to develop their oral communication and listening skills (item 8).

Expected Workload

Undergraduate courses in tourism management are 20 point courses. Students can expect the workload to be approximately 13 hours per week, including both scheduled contact time (lectures and tutorials) and work outside class. Work outside of class will include readings provided in support of lectures and tutorials as well as essay preparation.

Course Delivery

The course objectives are pursued by an integrated programme of lectures, tutorials, written assignments, and wider reading. Students are expected to attend all lectures. Key themes will be introduced in lectures and followed up by discussion in tutorials and by reference to the wider literature. Important announcements concerning the course will also be made in lectures.

Tutorials and Tutorial Sign-up

Tutorials are a key part of the learning process and active participation in them is expected: the more you put in, the more you will get out of this course. Each tutorial session will require some preparation. The tutorial assignments and any required reading will be available via Blackboard. Attendance at tutorials is also required to complete the course's mandatory requirements. You must attend at least 7 out of 9 tutorials to complete the course. Moreover, you must always attend your allocated tutorial session; if you attend a different session, your attendance will not be recorded. Exemption from tutorials will only be accepted with a medical certificate or in exceptional circumstances.

Tutorials start in the second week of the course.

Tutorial sign up will be via an online sign-up system called s-cubed (<https://signups.victoria.ac.nz/>).

This online signup system is available around the clock over the Internet. You must use s-cubed to sign up for a TOUR 101 tutorial before noon on Friday 9 March 2012. Allocations are on a first come, first served basis so you are encouraged to sign up early. You can go back into s-cubed and change your tutorial as long as places are available but all changes must be made by noon on Friday 9 March 2012.

Confirmation of your tutorial group will be posted on Blackboard by 4pm Friday 9 March 2012 as well as on the Tourism Management notice board on Level 2 of the Murphy Building (Kelburn Campus).

If you miss the Friday 9 March tutorial enrolment deadline you will need to contact out tutorial assistant (robert.capistrano@vuw.ac.nz). Your e-mail should state why you were not able to sign up on time using the online system, along with other relevant documentation such as a medical certificate. You should detail all the tutorial times you can make and you will then be allocated into a tutorial which has space. There is NO GUARANTEE that you will get your preferred tutorial time. If there are “exceptional circumstances” why you require a particular tutorial session these should be set out in the e-mail.

If you have any serious problems about the allocations of tutorial spaces please contact our tutorial assistant, Bob Capistrano, as soon as possible (robert.capistrano@vuw.ac.nz).

Readings

Selected readings will be made available to students via Blackboard. These readings are a vital component of TOUR 101’s lecture and tutorial programme. They address – and expand on – topics covered in the course.

To provide you with guidance on additional introductory reading, we have compiled this list of titles (see below) distinguishing between books that deal with tourism in general and those that focus on specific aspects of the subject. In addition to providing you with useful and broad background reading, they are handy for reading up on specific themes discussed in lectures and for writing the essays.

Books can also be accessed through the Course Reserve search function in the Library Catalogue.

When researching your assignments you should also look at articles in journals such as Tourism Management, Journal of Travel Research, Annals of Tourism Research, Journal of Sustainable Tourism, and Current Issues in Tourism. Journal articles can be accessed through the library databases (such as Hospitality and Tourism Complete) that will be shown to students in week #2.

There are video tutorials (<http://library.victoria.ac.nz/library/resources/guides/tutorials.html>) available through the library to help you with your research as well as a list of recommended resources for tourism students (<http://library.victoria.ac.nz/library/resources/guides/tourism.html>).

You can access books about tourism at the Central Library (Rankin Brown Building, Kelburn Campus) or at the Commerce Library (Railway Station, Level 2, Pipitea Campus).

The following titles provide a general introduction to tourism and the tourism industry:

Assessment Requirements

Assignment	Title	Weight	Due Date
1	Essay #1	25%	Monday 2 April 2012 (12 noon)
2	Essay #2	25%	Tuesday 22 May 2012 (12 noon)
3	Final Examination	50%	Friday 15 June – Wednesday 4 July (inclusive)
	TOTAL	100%

Essay #1 and Essay #2

Objectives:

- 1) The essays provide the opportunity to follow-up selected tourism themes introduced in the lecture and tutorial programmes. They build upon material presented in lectures but require you to develop the topics much further through wider reading, analysis, and reflection. The first essay addresses broader issues that are fundamental to an introductory course on tourism management; the second enables you to focus on a specific area of interest.
- 2) The essays develop your skills in library research, synthesizing material from diverse sources, and essay writing.

Topics:

Essay #1 (due Monday 2 April 2012 by 12 noon)

Answer only one question:

1. Explain why the management of tourism involves more than marketing.
2. Choose one country (excluding New Zealand). Explain how and to what extent this country is both a tourism origin and destination. What are the implications of these dual roles for the study of tourism?

Essay #2 (due Tuesday 22 May 2012 by 12 noon)

Answer only one question:

3. What are the characteristics of Stanley Plog's dependables (or psychocentrics), venturers (or allocentrics), and mid-centrics? Why is it important for the managers and marketers of tourism businesses and destinations to understand the behaviour of these three types of tourists?
4. Why should tourism managers and marketers understand the cultural traits of tourists? Use examples to illustrate your answer.
5. What are the functions of intermediaries in tourism distribution? Discuss the advantages and disadvantages of using intermediaries from the perspective of tourism suppliers.
6. Explain how visitor attractions can be classified (use examples of named attractions to illustrate your answer). Why is it useful to classify attractions?

Essays must be between 2000 and 2500 words long, fully referenced in line with the Guide for Tourism Management Courses (available on Blackboard), and include – where appropriate – maps, graphs, and tables. Credit will be given for evidence of wide reading and the ability to develop, structure and present material, ideas and arguments clearly and effectively. Further guidance on essay topics, essay writing, and useful resources will be provided in the lectures and tutorials during week 2 and weeks 7 of the course. Student Learning Support Services (SLSS) will also be running TOUR101 Assessment Workshops. In addition, you are invited to raise any queries during any of the tutorials. For detailed guidance on referencing and essay format please consult the Guide for Tourism Management Courses.

Essay Preparation

While we each have our own way of going about writing an essay, it may be useful to consider the following points:

- 1) Think carefully about what the topics/questions mean and how they might be tackled. What are the key points? What sort of material will you need? Read with a purpose to maximise the return on your efforts. This means having a good idea of what will be useful before you go to the library or access library resources online.
- 2) Read over the relevant lecture material and refer to the key references and basic texts before following up more specific sources. Consider using journals such as Tourism Management, Journal of Travel Research, Annals of Tourism Research, Journal of Sustainable Tourism, and Current Issues in Tourism as well as books.
- 3) Having read and absorbed the relevant material, carefully think through the ideas you want to develop, and plan your essay before writing it. On completion, read through your essay carefully before submission to ensure it is free of typographical and grammatical errors, that the references are complete, that tables and figures are named, sourced and linked into the text.
- 4) Organize your time for each of these tasks. Very few people are able to write good essays in one night.

Grading Criteria for the TOUR 101 Essays

The TOUR 101 essay should:

- 1) respond fully to the question
- 2) be clearly organized. It should begin and end effectively (clear introduction and conclusion)
- 3) provide adequate supporting evidence, examples, and details. There should be evidence of wide reading and insight
- 4) acknowledge and document sources (following the referencing scheme outlined in the Guide to Tourism Management Courses)
- 5) use clear, concise, and appropriate language; be free of errors in grammar, spelling, and punctuation; and employ words/terminology correctly

A Faculty of Commerce and Administration (FCA) rubric will be used to assess the written communication skills of TOUR 101 students. This rubric will be used by the TOUR 101 tutors as they grade your essays. The rubric specifically tests items #1, #4, and #5 of the grading criteria (see above). The overall results of this assessment exercise will be reviewed by the Associate Dean (Teaching and Learning). These results will be reported to her anonymously. Your TOUR 101 tutor will read your essay and then you will receive a rating of exemplary, satisfactory, or not satisfactory for each of the quality categories noted below. The quality of your writing skills will in part determine your overall grade.

1. structure and style (sentences and paragraphs are well structured)
2. clarity and conciseness (the essay remains focused on the question)
3. technical writing skills (few spelling errors, proper punctuation, correct grammar)

4. vocabulary (the words used in the essay are well chosen)
5. appropriate use of a referencing system (following the referencing scheme outlined in the Guide to Tourism Management Courses)
6. academic integrity (appropriate use of others' work)

Quality Assurance Note

Your assessed work may also be used for quality assurance purposes, such as to assess the level of achievement of learning objectives as required for accreditation and audit purposes. The findings may be used to inform changes aimed at improving the quality of FCA programmes. All material used for such processes will be treated as confidential, and the outcome will not affect your grade for the course.

Further assistance with help on essay writing and planning: Student Learning Support Services (SLSS) is an excellent source of support for study skills. See their website for self-help resources and their programme of workshops: http://www.victoria.ac.nz/st_services/slss

Handing in Assignments

Assignments should be dropped in the relevant TOUR 101 Box on Level 2 of the Murphy Building (Kelburn Campus) in hard copy form by 12 noon on the due date. All completed assignments must have a cover sheet (see the Guide for Tourism Management Courses). You must also keep an electronic copy of your work. It is also wise to keep paper copies of your assignments for your own files. Failure to do so will jeopardise any claim by you that your work was submitted in the rare cases where your work goes astray.

Essays submitted by email or fax will not be accepted.

Group Work

While the course has a tradition of study group collaboration, there are important elements in the assessment process that are strictly individual. Collaboration on individual assignments is not allowed beyond general discussion as to how one might interpret the nature of the assignment question. Please do not work together to formulate a response and do not loan out your completed assignments. You will be expected and encouraged to work in groups on in-tutorial assignments; however essays must be individual submissions.

Examination

The final examination for this course will be scheduled at some time during the period from Friday 15 June – Wednesday 4 July (inclusive). Students who enrol in courses with examinations are obliged to attend an examination at the University at any time during the formal examination period. The examination is worth 50% of the total marks available for this course. It is closed book 3-hour examination. Essay style answers are expected. You will be asked to answer four questions that will require you to draw on different concepts and themes covered in the course. All readings covered during the course are examinable.

Mandatory Course Requirements

To meet mandatory course requirements, students are required to:

- a. Attend at least 7 of the 9 tutorial sessions;
- b. Submit all assignments within the allowable timeframe (see the 'Penalties' section below); and
- c. Obtain at least 40 per cent of the final examination marks available.

Students who fail to satisfy the mandatory requirements for this course but who obtain 50% or more overall, will be awarded a "K" grade. Standard fail grades (D or E) will be awarded when the student's overall course mark falls below the minimum pass mark, regardless of whether the mandatory course requirements have been satisfied or not. Notice of Failure to meet Mandatory Course Requirements will be posted on Blackboard.

Penalties for Lateness & Excessive Length of Assignments

Assignments submitted after the due date (both late assignments and those with an authorised extension) need to be submitted to Gilliam Higgins, Victoria Management School Reception (RH1022) on Level 10 of Rutherford House, Pipitea Campus.

- (i) In fairness to other students, work submitted after any deadline will incur a penalty for lateness. The tourism management group has implemented a standardized late penalty for all tourism courses. Students who submit late assignments will be penalized at a rate of 5% per day. Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays will be included when counting the number of days late. Assignments received more than 7 days after the due date will not be accepted and the student will automatically fail the mandatory course requirements.
- (ii) Course outlines provide a signal to students of forthcoming workload, dates of submission etc., and thus student study plans should take account of course requirements across all courses. Consequently, workload issues related to other courses and employment will not be accepted as reason for dispensation from mandatory requirements or waiver of penalties. Extensions to submission deadlines for any assigned work will only be granted in exceptional circumstances.
- (iii) Students who are unable to comply with any of the mandatory requirements should make a written application for an extension to the due date for submission of assigned work or for waiver of a penalty, in advance, to one of the course co-ordinators, providing documentary evidence of the reasons of their circumstances.

All such applications must be made before the deadline and be accompanied by documentary evidence, for example a medical certificate, or counsellor's report clearly stating the degree of impairment, and the dates the illness or event prevented you from undertaking your academic studies. This can be applied retrospectively.

- (iv) In the event of unusual or unforeseeable circumstances (e.g. serious illness, family bereavement or other exceptional events), that precludes an application in advance, students should make contact with one of the course co-ordinators by email or telephone as soon as possible, and make application for waiver of a penalty as soon as practicable.

Word limits should be adhered to, especially so when they provide a guide to limiting the student's coverage of a topic. The penalty will be 10% of the grade for an assignment which is 10% over the word limit.

Policy on Remarking

Every attempt is made to ensure that assignment marking is consistent and fair to students. In TOUR 101, the course coordinators will moderate the grading process. If you have a question about your mark, first talk to your tutor and then to one of the TOUR 101 course coordinators. Students may ask for their written work to be remarked. A course coordinator will do the remarking and provide comments. An application for remarking must be made within 5 working days of the marks becoming available.

Referencing

There are many different styles of referencing. For tourism management courses, please refer to the 2012 version of the Guide for Tourism Management Courses. This document will be circulated in the first tutorial in TOUR 101 and a copy is available on Blackboard.

Grading Guidelines

The following broad indicative characterisations of grade will apply in grading assignments and the exam:

A+	excellent performance in all respects at this level
A	excellent performance in almost all respects at this level
A-	excellent performance in many respects at this level
B+	very good, some aspects excellent
B, B-	good but not excellent performance at this level
C+, C	work satisfactory overall but inadequate in some respects
D	poor performance overall, some aspects adequate
E	well below the required standard
K	failure to achieve mandatory course requirements and have achieved at least an average "C" over all the assessment. Note this is a failing grade.

Communication of Additional Information

Information on course-related matters will be announced at class and posted on the Blackboard website at <http://blackboard.vuw.ac.nz/>. It will be crucial for you to regularly check Blackboard for messages, announcements and materials.

Class Representative

A class representative will be elected in the first class, and that person's name and contact details made available to VUWSA, the Course Coordinator and the class. The class representative provides a communication channel to liaise with the Course Coordinator on behalf of students.
