Course Content

Entrepreneurial thinking and entrepreneurial behaviour are associated with product development and innovation, the development of new services, new processes and accessing new markets. This course explores theoretical and practical issues in entrepreneurship in tourism. The focus is on Small and Medium Tourism Enterprises as the majority of tourism businesses in most New Zealand and overseas destinations fall into this category. Topics include characteristics of entrepreneurship and small businesses in tourism, entrepreneurial behaviour, tourism business networks, innovation and business planning in a tourism context.

The first part of the course examines and discusses the relevant tourism literature, particularly recent journal articles, in order to develop an appreciation of current issues in tourism entrepreneurship. The second part of the course concentrates on practical issues related to strategic management for small and medium sized tourism businesses and their application in a local tourism business case study that forms part of the assessment of the course.

It is the aim of TOUR407 Tourism Entrepreneurship

- to explain the nature and relevance of entrepreneurship in tourism,
- to explore and critically discuss research on entrepreneurship in tourism,
- to develop an appreciation of practical issues and techniques in tourism entrepreneurship through a local tourism business case study and
- to build effective communication and leadership skills through discussion and an individual presentation.

Course Learning Objectives (CLOs)

By the end of this course, students should be able to

1. explain the nature and relevance of entrepreneurship in tourism,
2. explore and critically discuss research on entrepreneurship in tourism,
3. appreciate and explain practical issues and techniques in tourism entrepreneurship;
and
4. demonstrate effective oral communication and leadership skills.

Course Delivery

All classes are delivered in three-hour sessions. Students are expected to undertake preparatory reading each week for class activities and discussion.

Expected Workload

According to the University's Assessment Handbook, students are expected to devote 10 hours per week to a 15-point course. Students are expected to come to class having read any preparatory materials and undertaken any directed preparation. Readings will be distributed during class each week.

Readings

Selected references and readings will be given throughout the course but students are expected to use their own initiative for the assignments.

Assessment Requirements

ASSIGNMENTS 1 and 2

The purpose of assignments 1 and 2 is to develop and evaluate students' ability to a) identify relevant topics in tourism entrepreneurship and b) to critically discuss one topic of their choosing in the context of the wider tourism and tourism entrepreneurship literature and theory.

Using relevant tourism literature databases, each student is to identify a topic in tourism entrepreneurship that forms the basis for discussion in the essay as well as the presentation. In the class session on Friday 16 March 2012, students are to briefly (3min) introduce their individual topics, highlight relevant aspects and explain their chosen essay discussion question(s). Once the course coordinator has accepted the chosen topic and questions as appropriate, students can start working on Assignments 1 and 2. Students are advised not to start work on the assignments before the class session on 16 March 2012.

ASSIGNMENT 1 – Individual Presentation (20%) 20 min presentation, 15 min moderated discussion

Presentation of their essay topic provides students with the opportunity to explore and to critically assess a tourism entrepreneurship issue of their choice and to communicate and discuss their ideas and arguments. The assessment of the presentation will be based on content, communication, (if applicable) visualisation of the content, presentation skills and the moderation of the discussion after the presentation. Students are free to use PowerPoint, posters, handouts and/ or other presentation methods.

Presentations are scheduled for 30 March 2012 and 27 April 2012. Dates are subject to change and will be confirmed once student numbers and topics are known.

ASSIGNMENT 2 – Individual Essay (30%) 2,500 – 3,000 words

The essay must address the essay question(s) selected by the student and approved by the course coordinator in the class session on Friday 16 March. Essays should be fully referenced. Credit will be given for choice of a relevant topic in tourism entrepreneurship, coverage of the literature, the depth of the discussion and the appropriateness of interpretation and conclusion.

Deadline: 12noon, Friday 4 May 2012 – submit to Gillian Higgins in RH 10.22.

ASSIGNMENT 3 – Individual Report: Local Tourism Business Case Study (40%) 3,500 – 4,000 Words

Developing and conducting a tourism business case study will help students to gain insights into practical issues in tourism entrepreneurship. Aggregating and presenting relevant points in the form of a report will assist students in identifying and communicating central matters for tourism businesses.

Each student is to choose a local tourism business, analyse the respective business environment and interview the owner/ operator/ manager in order to gain insights into business planning decisions and to comprehend the rationale behind the business plan. A report that aggregates, discusses and analyses the knowledge gained and that provides a future outlook for the business is to be prepared.

Evaluation of the report will be based on the assessment of the business environment of the chosen tourism business, the discussion of insights into decision-making and business planning and the overall quality of the report in terms of structure, purpose and clarity.

Written consent from the business owner and/ or operator will be required for this assessment. Further details will be announced in the first session on 9 March 2012.

Deadline: 12noon, Friday 1 June 2012 – submit to Gillian Higgins in RH 10.22.

Class participation

Students’ active participation in discussion and class activities is essential to developing critical thinking and communication skills and to acquire leadership experience.

Assessment: 10% of the final grade

This will cover your preparation for each class (including the set readings), contribution to class discussions and debate. You are expected to attend all classes.

ASSESSMENT REQUIREMENTS

Assignment	Title	Weight	Date	Course-related Student Learning Objectives
1	Presentation	20%	30 March or 27 April	4
2	Individual Essay	30%	4 May	1
3	Local business case study	40%	1 June	3
4	Class participation	10%		2
	TOTAL	100%

The four pieces of assessment are designed to evaluate your understanding of the key ideas from throughout the course and to assess the skills obtained from it. The assessments each relate to the Course-related Student Learning Objectives.

Quality Assurance Note

Your assessed work may also be used for quality assurance purposes, such as to assess the level of achievement of learning objectives as required for accreditation and audit purposes. The findings may be used to inform changes aimed at improving the quality of FCA programmes. All material used for such processes will be treated as confidential, and the outcome will not affect your grade for the course.

Mandatory Course Requirements

To fulfil the mandatory course requirements for this paper you must

1. submit all written assignments within 7 days of the due date and
2. carry out your presentation on the agreed date (see Section Penalties (ii) for exceptions).

Students who fail to satisfy the mandatory course requirements for this course but who obtain 50% or more overall, will be awarded a “K” fail grade. Standard fail grades (D or E) will be awarded when the student’s overall course mark falls below the minimum pass mark, whether or not the mandatory course requirements have been satisfied.

Class Representative

A representative for all TOUR 400 level classes will be elected in the first week, and that person’s name and contact details will be available to VUWSA, the Course Coordinator, and the class. The class representative provides a communication channel to liaise with the Course Coordinator on behalf of students.

Penalties - for Lateness & Excessive Length of Assignments

- (i) In fairness to other students, work submitted after any deadline will incur a penalty for lateness. The Tourism Management Group has implemented a standardised late penalty for all tourism courses. Students who submit late assignments will be penalised at a rate of 5% per day (including weekends). Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays will be included when counting the number of days late. Assignments received more than 7 days after the due date will not be accepted and the student will automatically fail the Mandatory Course Requirements.
- (ii) Extensions will only be granted under special circumstances. Students who wish to apply for an extension must contact the course coordinator before the due date. Students who apply for an extension due to illness must obtain a medical certificate. Medical certificates must specify that the student is ‘unfit to study’ or ‘unfit to sit an examination.’ Medical certificates must also indicate the duration of the illness. Please take note: workload pressures and computer problems are not a case for extension. Please submit late assignments to one of the course coordinators.
- (ii) Course Outlines provide a signal to students of forthcoming workload, dates of submission etc, and thus student study plans should take account of course requirements across all courses. Consequently, workload issues related to other courses and employment will not be accepted as reason for dispensation from mandatory requirements or waiver of penalties. Extensions to submission deadlines for any assigned work will only be granted in exceptional circumstances.
- (iii) Students who are unable to comply with any of the mandatory requirements should make a written application for an extension to the due date for submission of assigned work or for waiver of a penalty, in advance, to a course coordinator, providing documentary evidence of the reasons of their circumstances.

All such applications must be made before the deadline and be accompanied by documentary evidence, e.g. a medical certificate, or counsellor’s report clearly stating the degree of impairment, and the dates the illness or event prevented you from undertaking your academic studies. This can be applied retrospectively.

- (iv) In the event of unusual or unforeseeable circumstances (e.g. serious illness, family bereavement or other exceptional events), that precludes an application in advance, students should make contact with one of the course coordinators as soon as possible, and make application for waiver of a penalty as soon as practicable.
- (v) Word limits should be adhered to, especially so when they provide a guide to limiting the student's coverage of a topic. The penalty will be 10% of the grade for an assignment which is 10% over the word limit.
