Course Delivery

The delivery of the course will involve eight tutorials, commencing in the third week. Tutorial assignments will be posted to Blackboard by Wednesday 5pm in the preceding week, and should be completed in preparation for the tutorial class. Tutorial attendance is not compulsory but is highly beneficial. Students should choose and sign up for a tutorial through S-Cubed at <http://signups.victoria.ac.nz>

You should go to this site over a period yet to be finalised and then follow the onscreen instructions.

Tutorials will take place in the weeks beginning July 30, August 6, 20, Sept 10, 17, Oct 1 and 15.

Expected Workload

The anticipated workload is about 10 hours per week, comprising two hours for lectures, one hour for a tutorial, three hours to prepare the tutorial assignment, and four hours for reading.

Readings

The prescribed text is T. Copeland, J. Weston and K. Shastri, Financial Theory and Corporate Policy, 4th edition, Pearson Addison Wesley, 2005 (CWS). The readings for each week are indicated in the attached Course Content schedule. A copy of the readings from the 3rd edition (CW) will be placed on Blackboard.

The examinable material constitutes the lecture material and tutorial assignments. The prescribed reading is intended to assist in the comprehension of this. Accordingly it should be read prior to the relevant lectures, and possibly also afterwards as a follow-up.

Assessment Requirements

Assessment for the course will be determined in the following way.

In-Term Exam Sept 15, 10.30am-12.30pm, RHLT1, course objectives C1-C5	30%
Final Exam (in the period Oct 26-Nov 17), course objectives C1-C8	70%

The In-Term test will cover the material presented in lectures in the first six weeks (and the associated tutorial assignments). The final exam will cover the entire course, with about 30% based on the first six weeks material and the remaining 70% on the last six weeks material. Only calculators that are non-programmable and without a full set of alphabetic keys are permitted.

Your assessed work may also be used for quality assurance purposes, such as to assess the level of achievement of learning objectives as required for accreditation and audit purposes. The findings may be used to inform changes aimed at improving the quality of FCA programmes. All material used for such processes will be treated as confidential, and the outcome will not affect your grade for the course.

Examinations

Students who enrol in courses with examinations are obliged to attend an examination at the University at any time during the formal examination period. The final examination for this course will be scheduled at some time during the period from Friday 26 October – Saturday 17 November.

Additional Courses

Students anticipating undertaking 400 level Finance, or who anticipate working in the finance industry, are strongly advised to undertake more mathematics/statistics than that prescribed as a prerequisite for FINA201 and FINA202. Relevant statistics courses are QUAN 201, 202, ECON 301, 303 and STAT 292, 293, 332, and 391. The relevant mathematics courses are QUAN 203, MATH 243, 244 and 301.

In addition, students who anticipate working in the finance industry are strongly advised to undertake courses in financial accounting, since Annual Reports are significant sources of information in valuing companies. The relevant courses are ACCY 231, 306, 308.

Students anticipating 400 level study need to ensure that they have the appropriate undergraduate pre-requisites to permit a full 8 course programme at 400 level. Such students are strongly encouraged to discuss this with a member of the School of Economics and Finance (SEF) before they finalise their courses for their final undergraduate year.
