Readings

The required text for this course is Cavusgil et al. (2012), International Business: The New Realities, 2nd edition (Australian adaptation), Pearson. An e-book version is also available for purchase at a lower price. Additional readings (including a chapter from another textbook on technological environment) will be provided by the lecturer. The assigned textbook comes with web-site support (see materials and equipment below). Other materials for in-class discussions will be provided in advance.

Materials and Equipment

The textbook provides ONLY the starting point for reading. This should NOT be considered the minimum necessary to complete assignments. Students are encouraged to make use of printed media (newspapers, magazines) such as The Economists and Financial Times, resources available on the web (library databases, web pages of universities, companies, and international organisations, and media-related sites), and academic material (journals and books) such as Journal of International Business Studies as additional sources of reading and reference material. There is a separate site for this course on Blackboard. All announcements pertaining to the course will be posted here. No additional materials will be permitted during the final examination.

Assessment

A breakdown of the final mark and description of each pieces of assessment follows:

Assessment	Learning objectives	Weight	Due Date
Essay (1,000 words)	LO 1 & 2	15%	17 January
Business environmental report (1,500 words)	LO 1 & 3	25%	1 February
Final examination (2 hours)	LO 1, 2 & 3	60%	TBA

Detailed instructions of essay and business environment report will be provided by the Course coordinator.

Penalties

In fairness to other participants, work submitted after the deadline will incur a penalty for lateness. Late assignments will carry a penalty of 10 per cent for each day late (including weekends). In the event of unforeseen circumstance e.g., serious illness, family bereavement, participants should discuss waiver of the penalty with the course co-ordinator.

Use of Turnitin

Student work provided for assessment in this course may be checked for academic integrity by the electronic search engine http://www.turnitin.com. Turnitin is an on-line plagiarism prevention tool which compares submitted work with a very large database of existing material. At the discretion of the Head of School, handwritten work may be copy-typed by the School and submitted to Turnitin. A copy of submitted materials will be retained on behalf of the University for detection of future plagiarism, but access to the full text of submissions will not be made available to any other party.

Examinations

Students who enrol in courses with examinations are obliged to attend an examination at the University at any time during the formal examination period. The final examination for this course will be scheduled at some time during the following period:

18 – 23 February 2013

Mandatory Course Requirements

In addition to obtaining an overall course mark of 50 or above, students must obtain a minimum mark of 40% in the final examination to pass the course. All students MUST also submit essay and the environment report.

Class Representative

A class representative will be elected in the first class, and that person's name and contact details made available to VUWSA, the course coordinator and the class. The class representative provides a communication channel to liaise with the course coordinator on behalf of students.

Communication of Additional Information

All of your course marks will be uploaded to Blackboard as soon as they are available. Course notices will also be updated under Announcements.
