The application form is available from either of the Faculty's Student Customer Service Desks.*

COURSE CONTENT

This course looks at Human Resource Management (HRM) theories, and how they might be applied (or not) in the real world. HRM theories are competing and conflicting. There is no one 'best' way to manage an organisation's people, but some things seem to work better than others. HRM presents significant issues for the analysis and operation of the employment relationship.

HRM is evolving rapidly in response to globalization, technology, economic circumstances and the rise of individualism. Consequently, many organisations have adopted more proactive strategies that seek to link employee management with wider business concerns. This course focuses on theories of HRM, and how well they respond to the challenges posed by emerging factors.

This project-based course is focused on students conducting and presenting a paper on a particular industry, the HRM challenges it faces, and possible solutions. The course seeks to provide both critical and pragmatic treatment of specific HRM topics. It is designed to develop understanding of key theoretical constructs and the core elements of HRM; so as to foster critical judgments of the practical issues involved.

The course commences with an overview of key HR theories, and a close review of the main models and frameworks in HRM. These seminar-based sessions are designed to develop understanding and knowledge which can then be used in individual projects. The latter part of this paper focuses more closely on each individual project and is structured into workshops, designed to provide individually-focused feedback. Cases and guest visitors are also used in the course.

COURSE LEARNING OBJECTIVES

By the end of this paper, students should be able to:
- Analyse and synthesise the wider competitive contexts of different HR strategies,
- Employ a range of problem-solving techniques to solve a variety of HR workplace issues,
- Participate actively in a group environment,
- Carry out an in-depth investigation into a particular HR issue in the context of a broad understanding of HRM theories.

COURSE DELIVERY

Delivery of this course is structured around a series of milestones with regard to each student's project. To ensure the necessary theoretical background to apply to their chosen industry, the paper begins with student lead seminars on selected papers and the broader, surrounding literature. Students are expected to prepare critical reviews of key readings and engage in class discussion in order to facilitate the formation of their critical judgements. Seminars are designed to introduce concepts, theories and evidence. To this end, class participation, independent reading and reflection are essential components of the design of this paper. It is expected that students read widely for this paper and to engage with the relevant material prior to sessions so that issues can be explored in greater depth during the session.

Please attend class prepared to participate by having read at least one key reading for that week. Students will be asked questions in the class.

There is no core textbook for this course. A set of course readings, along with supplementary reading lists, will be distributed during the first session. Students wishing to obtain copies after that class should contact Ina Yoo, the HRIR administrator, on the 10th floor of Rutherford House.

For students with no prior or limited HRM knowledge, the following supplementary textbooks are recommended. These books, which are available in the library, introduce the field of HRM and its basic concepts:

Bolton, S. and Houlihan, M. (2007). Searching for the Human in Human Resource Management, London: Palgrave.

Bryson, J & Ryan, R (2012) Human Resource Management in the Workplace, Pearson Education, Auckland.

Macky, K (2008). Managing Human Resources: Contemporary Perspectives in New Zealand. Auckland: McGraw Hill.

EXPECTED WORKLOAD

Students can expect the workload to be approximately 10-12 hours per week of student work, including both scheduled contact time (lectures, tutorials, workshops) and outside class.

COURSE ASSESSMENT

The assessment for this paper will consist of the following:

Assessment item	Weight	Date
Critical Review	20%	Weeks 2-7
Proposal (scoping document)	5%	Week 3 Monday 18 March 1.00pm
Literature Review	15%	Week 5 Friday 12 April 1.00pm
Industry Analysis	15% +5%	Week 8 & 9 Presentations Tuesday 7 May Written Friday 10 May 1.00pm
Final Report & Presentation	30% + 10%	Weeks 11 and 12 Final Oral Presentations 28 May, 4 June Written Friday 11 June 1pm

The brief for the individual project is as follows:

> Identify and critically analyse a contemporary HRM issue within a New Zealand Industry. Discuss the main HR challenges and possible solutions currently facing this industry.

(1) Critical Review (variable due dates weeks 2-7)

20% of the total marks for this paper will be awarded for the submission and presentation of a critical review of selected course readings. Students will be expected to prepare a written critical review (max. 5 pages each) of the assigned topic and lead a discussion within class. Students are required to position the readings within the broader literature on the topic and also to respond to questions relating to the readings. Students should email their discussion questions to the course co-ordinator by 12.00pm on the Friday prior to their presentations. Presenters are expected to identify key critical questions relating to the readings and lead the discussion of these in class. Individual presentations should be no longer than 30 minutes. Each student will be expected to respond to issues raised by other class members. A copy of each review will be made available to the class on blackboard.

(2) Proposal (due Monday 18 March 1.00pm) (max one page single spaced)

5% will be allocated for the submission of a project proposal on which the remaining assignment will be based. This scoping document should outline the HR issue and industry for investigation (choose an industry for which you can easily access information). Indicate which theoretical approach you intend to take and which HR practices and policies you intend to focus on (be realistic about what you can achieve in a 10 week period). Indicate what sort of data you intend to collect and how you intend to collect it (i.e. company reports, stock market information, company brochures, union newsletters, newspaper articles, government and industry reports, interviews, industry surveys etc.).

(3) Literature Review (due week Friday 12 April 1.00pm) (max 2,000 words)

15% will be assigned for the submission of a full literature review on your chosen research topic. The purpose of the literature review is to connect the proposal to the theoretical literature on the topic. Its purpose is to give you the opportunity to critically examine, in greater detail, the literature related to the research issue or problem you have identified in your proposal. The frameworks or theories identified in this section will form the tools with which to evaluate the HRM issue within your chosen industry. This literature review will form part of the final report in a revised form (guidelines on conducting a literature review will be available on Blackboard).

(4) Industry Analysis (Presentations 7 May, written analysis Friday May 10 1.00pm) (max 2,000 words)

20% of the final marks will be allocated to the presentation (5%) and submission of an industry analysis (15%). This is the context within which the HR issue or theory will be placed. Students should seek to describe the industry and its environment. (Guidelines on how to approach the industry analysis will be available on Blackboard).

(5) Final Report & Presentation (presentation 28 May or 4 June, and written Tuesday 11 June 1.00 pm) (findings, analysis and conclusions sections max. 2,500 words)

This document is the major output from your research project − to provide an analysis of the HRM issue or problem within the chosen industry. Worth 30%, this report should outline the HR issue or theory under examination, explain why it is relevant to the chosen industry, and assess the nature of the issue in the industry and, finally, the implications for the industry. A final 10% will be allocated for the presentation of key findings of your research. While initially providing an overview of the HRM issue or problem within the industry, it is envisaged that students will focus more closely on the outcomes of the analysis and recommendations. (Assessment criteria for the presentation are available on Blackboard).

Handing in assignments:

Assignments should be dropped in to Box 17 on the Mezzanine floor by the due date and time. Late assignments should be handed to Ina Yoo, the HRIR administrator, on the 10th floor of Rutherford House (Pipitea Campus). All completed assignments must have a cover sheet. The cover sheet is in Annex A. In addition, an electronic form of each assignment should be emailed to the course coordinator by the due date. Students are also requested to keep a copy of their assignment and all source materials used in their assignments.

MANDATORY COURSE REQUIREMENTS (TERMS)

To fulfil the mandatory course requirements for this course you must:

1. Attend all scheduled class sessions. Students who are absent from class should contact the course co-ordinator to inform them.
2. Submit all assignments and complete scheduled presentations.

Students who fail to satisfy the mandatory requirements for this course but who obtain 50% or more overall, will be awarded a "K" grade. Standard fail grades (D or E) will be awarded when the student's overall course mark falls below the minimum pass mark, regardless of whether the mandatory course requirements have been satisfied or not.

Please note: Your assessed work may also be used for quality assurance purposes, such as to assess the level of achievement of learning objectives as required for accreditation and audit purposes. The findings may be used to inform changes aimed at improving the quality of FCA programmes. All material used for such processes will be treated as confidential, and the outcome will not affect your grade for the course.

Use of Turnitin
Student work provided for assessment in this course may be checked for academic integrity by the electronic search engine http://www.turnitin.com Turnitin is an on-line plagiarism prevention tool which compares submitted work with a very large database of existing material. Turnitin will retain a copy of submitted materials on behalf of the University for detection of future plagiarism, but access to the full text of submissions will not be made available to any other party.

Penalties- for Lateness & Excessive Length of Assignments

(i)   In fairness to other students, work submitted after any deadline will incur a penalty for lateness. The penalty is 5% for each day it is overdue, unless there is a valid reason as to why it is late and this is accepted by the course coordinator. Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays will be included when counting the number of days late. Assignments received more than 7 days after the due date will not be accepted and the student will automatically fail the Mandatory Requirements.

(ii)   Course Outlines provide a signal to student of forthcoming workload, dates of submission etc, and thus student study plans should take account of course requirements across all courses. Consequently, workload issues related to other courses and employment will not be accepted as reason for dispensation from mandatory requirements or waiver of penalties. Extensions to submission deadlines for any assigned work will only be granted in exceptional circumstances.

(iii) Students who are unable to comply with any of the mandatory requirements should make a written application for an extension to the due date for submission of assigned work or for waiver of a penalty, in advance, to the course coordinator, providing documentary evidence of the reasons of their circumstances.

All such applications must be made before the deadline and be accompanied by documentary evidence, eg a medical certificate, or counsellor's report that indicates the degree of impairment, and for how long the student has been impaired. Please be sure to ask at the time of consultation for the degree of impairment to be stated in any certificate you provide to support your case.

(iv) In the event of unusual or unforeseeable circumstances (e.g. serious illness, family bereavement or other exceptional events), that precludes an application in advance, students should make contact with the course coordinator, as soon as possible, and make application for waiver of a penalty as soon as practicable.

(v) Word limits should be adhered to, especially so when they provide a guide to limiting the student's coverage of a topic. Assignments exceeding the word limit by over 10% will have 5 marks deducted.

Grading Guidelines

The following broad indicative characterisations of grade will apply in grading assignments and the exam:

A+	excellent performance in all respects at this level
A	excellent performance in almost all respects at this level
A-	excellent performance in many respects at this level
B+	very good, some aspects excellent
B, B-	good but not excellent performance at this level
C+, C	work satisfactory overall but inadequate in some respects
D	poor performance overall, some aspects adequate
E	well below the required standard
K	failure to achieve mandatory course requirements and have achieved at least an average "C" over all the assessment. Note this is a failing grade.

Referencing

There are many different styles of referencing and the Faculty of Commerce & Administration at VUW has decided to make APA (American Psychological Association) referencing style the common standard across the Faculty. The Commerce and Central Libraries hold the APA Style Guide. You can also access the information from the online VUW library site: http://www.victoria.ac.nz/library/research/reference/referencingguides.aspx or http://www.waikato.ac.nz/__data/assets/pdf_file/0017/51632/APA_Referencing_6th_ed.pdf Many researchers also effectively use endnote, or online tools such as Mendeley or Zotero to help reference and avoid late night panics.

Class Representative

A class representative will be elected in the first class, and that person's name and contact details made available to VUWSA, the Course Coordinator and the class. The class representative provides a communication channel to liaise with the Course Coordinator on behalf of students.

Email Contact

Students wishing to contact staff by email should adhere to the following instructions:

Include the Course Code, your Name, your Student ID and the Topic in the subject area of the email, eg

> MGMT405_Smith_John_3012345900_Ass1 Query

All students must use their VUW SCS email account and ID. Otherwise, email will be classified as Spam and will be dumped without being read. All emails with attachments will be dumped, unless requested by staff.
