Withdrawal from Course

1. Your fees will be refunded if you withdraw from this course on or before Friday 26 July 2013.
2. The standard last date for withdrawal from this course is Friday 27 September 2013. After this date, students forced to withdraw by circumstances beyond their control must apply for permission on an 'Application for Associate Dean's Permission to Withdraw Late' including supporting documentation. The application form is available from either of the Faculty's Student Customer Service Desks.

Class Times and Room Numbers

Thursdays: 12.40-3.30pm

Venue: RH LT 3 (Rutherford House Lecture Theatre 3), Pipitea Campus

There are 12 classes scheduled in this course. It is essential that students attend all classes.

Course Delivery

Each 3 hour class will involve a mixture of lectures, class discussions and problem based assignments. A break will be scheduled approximately midway through each class.

From time to time lecturers may specify required reading prior to a lecture. It is essential that students do this preparatory reading as the lectures will be run at a level that assumes some prior knowledge.

Group Work

While some of the classes will involve group work, none of the assessed pieces of work in this course are based on group work. The Assignment must be sole work of each student. Any student who submits an Assignment for grading which contains evidence of plagiarism will be subject to the University's disciplinary procedures in addition to the penalties explained later in this Course Outline.

Expected Workload

You should expect to spend on average 150 hours studying over the whole course which is broken down approximately as follows:

- 36 hours in scheduled classes;
- 36 hours for background reading outside classes;
- 35 hours preparing and writing the assignment; and
- 43 hours preparing for the mid-trimester test and final examination.

Prescription

An in-depth examination of key aspects of New Zealand's tax regime from a domestic and international perspective. The impact of taxation on business decisions in New Zealand is also examined.

Course Learning Objectives

Students who are successful in the course will be able to:

- (a) Have an understanding of the key parts of New Zealand's public finance and key policy issues;
- (b) Understand and apply the basic principles of income tax law in New Zealand;
- (c) Determine the tax liability for a sole trader, partnership and company;
- (d) Understand how income tax is administered in New Zealand including compliance obligations of taxpayers;
- (e) Understand how taxation impacts on business decision making and how transactions can be arranged legally to minimise a tax liability including ethical issues.
- (f) Have an understanding of the implications of cross-border transactions and investment.

Course Content

This course is designed to provide an in-depth examination of key aspects of New Zealand's tax regime from a domestic and international perspective. The impact of taxation on business decisions in New Zealand is also examined.

Details of the lecture programme are provided in a table on page 6 of this Course Outline.

Readings

The following textbook and materials are required for this course:

1. Alley et. al., New Zealand Taxation 2013: Principles, Cases and Questions, Thomson Brookers, Wellington, 2013. (The 2012 editions of this text would suffice for this year's course.)
2. New Zealand Taxation 2013 Legislation Handbook, Thomson Brookers, Wellington, 2013. Alternatively you can use the CCH New Zealand Income Tax Legislation 2013.
3. Handouts distributed in lectures and/or posted on Blackboard.

The Thomson Brookers publications listed in (1) and (2) above may be purchased as a set at a discount.

In addition there are the following resources which you may wish to refer to if you wish to find out more about a particular topic:

1. CCH New Zealand Master Tax Guide 2013, CCH New Zealand Limited, Auckland 2012. (Law Library, KUQ2832 A13 N532 - some copies on Closed Reserve)
2. New Zealand Income Tax Law & Practice in 5 volumes, by David H. Simcock and John F.S. Rooke with the CCH tax editors. Loose-leaf service. (KUQ2832 N532 1986 - on Closed Reserve in the Law Library.)
3. CCH New Zealand Online Library -access through MyVictoria (VUW Homepage → Log on to MyVictoria → Library Tab → Library Online Resources → Box 'C' → CCH New Zealand Online Library → Log On → Tax)

Students are permitted to take income tax legislation into the Mid-Trimester Test and Examination and these assessments will be set assuming that students have access to their income tax legislation. To ensure that you can use your legislation in the Mid-Trimester Test and Examination, please note the following:

1. Your legislation must not contain any additional writing or notes (other than your name) -the legislation must be "clean" as it was when it was newly printed. It is, however, permissible to emphasis text in your legislation by underlining or using coloured highlighter pens.
2. The indexing of your legislation whether by tabs, the use of "Post-it" notes or any other means is prohibited.
3. Your legislation will be checked at the beginning of the Mid-Trimester Test and Examinations for compliance with these conditions.
4. Any student who does not have tax legislation to use in the tests because his/her text did not meet the above conditions or the student forgot to bring their legislation will not be able to borrow a replacement copy from the examiners or to share a copy with another student.

Materials and Equipment

Electronic calculators and non-electronic foreign language dictionaries may be used in the Mid-Trimester Test and Examination. Calculators must be battery powered and silent in operation. Calculators with alphanumeric keyboards and programming functions will not be permitted. If you are in doubt, check with the Course Coordinator.

Penalties

A penalty will apply to any Assignment submitted late without a special dispensation. The penalty will be 10% of the mark awarded for each day it is late. Any Assignment submitted for grading which contains evidence of plagiarism may be subject to disciplinary action by the University.

Use of Turnitin

Student work provided for assessment in this course may be checked for academic integrity by the electronic search engine <http://www.turnitin.com>. Turnitin is an on-line plagiarism prevention tool which compares submitted work with a very large database of existing material. At the discretion of the Head of School, handwritten work may be copy-typed by the School and submitted to Turnitin. A copy of submitted materials will be retained on behalf of the University for detection of future plagiarism, but access to the full text of submissions will not be made available to any other party.

Examinations

Students who enrol in courses with examinations are obliged to attend an examination at the University at any time during the formal examination period. The final examination for this course will be scheduled at some time during the following period:

Friday 25 October – Saturday 16 November (inclusive)

Mandatory Course Requirements

In addition to obtaining an overall course mark of 50 or better, students must:

- complete and submit for grading the course Assignment, and
- sit both the Mid-Trimester Test and Examination.

If you cannot complete an assignment or sit a test or examination, refer to www.victoria.ac.nz/home/study/exams-and-assessments/aegrotat

Class Representative

A class representative will be elected in the first class, and that person's name and contact details made available to VUWSA, the course coordinator and the class. The class representative provides a communication channel to liaise with the course coordinator on behalf of students.

Communication of Additional Information

Additional information concerning this course will be provided in lectures and posted on Blackboard: <http://blackboard.vuw.ac.nz>. Urgent notices will be circulated by email.

Student Feedback

Any feedback is considered and followed up on.
