It is expected that students will work for 150 hours across the course. Lectures and/or tutorials account for 36 hours of this time (i.e. three hours per week). Accordingly, students are expected to allocate seven hours per week during the teaching weeks (outside of class) to lecture preparation, lecture review, readings, and assignments, and a further 30 hours preparing for the final assessment.

Prescription

The law of business organisations and its relevance to the accounting profession.

Course Learning Objectives

Students who are successful in the course will be able to:

- (a) Understand the development and functions of the New Zealand company and partnership law and associated areas of law;
- (b) Evaluate the legal principles and policies that underlie the law of organisations;
- (c) Identify and evaluate legal problems and issues that arise in selected areas within the law of organisations;
- (d) Analyse the law from a perspective of identifying defects and proposing reforms.

Tests

Test One will take place at the start of class in Week 4. You are permitted to take one page of notes (A4 sized, written on one side only, handwritten or typed) with you into the test and your legislation book. The test will cover material in Topics 1 & 2 and learning objectives a, b and c.

Test Two will take place at the start of class in Week 10. You are permitted to take one page of notes (A4 sized, written on one side only, handwritten or typed) with you into the test and your legislation book. The test will cover material in Topics 3.3 & 3.4 and learning objectives a, b and c.

Exam

You are permitted to take one page of notes (A4 sized, written on one side only, handwritten or typed) with you into the exam and your legislation book. The exam will cover learning objectives a, b, c and d. The Topics to be covered in the Exam will be advised closer to the Exam date.

Penalties (Tests)

Unjustifiable absence from either of the tests will result in a mark of 'zero' for that test and may result in a student not meeting mandatory course requirements.

Students unable to take scheduled tests due to exceptional circumstances, must complete the 'Consideration of Exceptional Personal Circumstances for Tests Application Form' available on Blackboard. Submit this form to the MPA Administrator as early as possible, preferably before the test date.

Note: The submission of an application does not mean that the test requirement has been changed or waived. Penalties, as detailed above, will apply if it is not successful.

Exceptional Personal Circumstances include an impairment assessed by Disability Services, illness, bereavement, circumstances involving the health or wellbeing of a relative or close friend, compulsory attendance at court, national or international representative commitments, significant cultural commitments, or activities in which the student is representing the University.

Note: Not being organised or failing to plan ahead are not exceptional circumstances.

Examinations

Students who enrol in courses with examinations are obliged to attend an examination at the University at any time during the formal examination period. The final examination for this course will be scheduled at some time during the following period:

Friday 12th June – Wednesday 1st July (inclusive)

Mandatory Course Requirements

In addition to obtaining an overall course mark of 50 or better, students must complete all assessments.

If you cannot complete an assignment or sit a test or examination, refer to www.victoria.ac.nz/home/study/exams-and-assessments/aegrotat

Class Representative

A class representative will be elected in the first class, and that person's name and contact details made available to VUWSA, the course coordinator and the class. The class representative provides a communication channel to liaise with the course coordinator on behalf of students.

Communication of Additional Information

Additional information concerning this course will be provided in lectures and posted on Blackboard: <http://blackboard.vuw.ac.nz>. Urgent notices will be circulated by email.

Student feedback

Any feedback is considered and followed up.

Student feedback on University courses may be found at

Note to Students

Your assessed work may also be used for quality assurance purposes, such as to assess the level of achievement of learning objectives as required for accreditation and academic audit. The findings may be used to inform changes aimed at improving the quality of VBS programmes. All material used for such processes will be treated as confidential, and the outcome will not affect your grade for the course.
