Class Times and Room Numbers

Tuesdays & Thursdays: 11.30 am - 12.20 pm in RHLT2

Course Delivery

The course will be delivered by lectures and tutorials. Before lectures you should read any assigned material and, before each tutorial, you need to read and consider the tutorial questions before each tutorial. Some tutorials will be problem-solving. It is recommended that students attempt to answer such questions before the tutorial by identifying the key issues, analysing the applicable law and applying to the facts. Other tutorials may require reading of relevant pages of the textbook or additional material before the tutorial.

Tutorials

Tutorial sign up instructions for 'MyAllocator' can be found on Blackboard under 'Tutorials'.

Expected Workload

It is expected that students' workload in this course will be, on average, 15 hours a week – total 150 hours. Students' workload will be made up as follows: Lectures 24 hours, background reading lectures 42 hours, tutorial contact, prep and assignments 34 hours, review of material for test and examination 50 hours.

Prescription

The law relating to consumers.

Course Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, students should be able to:

1. explain the laws that businesses have to comply with in their interactions with consumers;
2. apply selected aspects of consumer law to fact situations;
3. critically evaluate the policy underlying consumer law;
4. compare selected aspects of New Zealand consumer law with overseas jurisdictions.

Readings

Required:

Kate Tokeley (ed) Consumer Law in New Zealand (2nd ed, LexisNexis, Wellington, 2014).
COML 205 Blackboard will set out a list of any recommended and additional readings.

Materials and Equipment

Any additional reading will be available on Blackboard.

Assessment

The Assessment Handbook will apply to all VUW courses: see

<http://www.victoria.ac.nz/documents/policy/staff-policy/assessment-handbook.pdf>.

Assignment One (20%) Due: Friday 21 August 2pm (word limit 1000 words)

This assignment will be a discussion question which will require students to critically evaluate the policy underlying consumer law and to compare selected aspects of New Zealand consumer law with overseas jurisdictions (Learning Objectives, 3 and 4).

Assignment Two (20%) Due: Friday 2 October 2pm (word limit 1000 words).

This assignment will relate to course objective 4 and will require you to apply a selected aspect of consumer law to a fact situation

Exam (60%) (2 hours, open book) Date TBA

The Exam will consist of a mix of problem and essay type questions which will require students to demonstrate their mastery of Learning Objectives 1, 2, 3, 4.

Note: assignments are to be placed in boxes labelled COML 205 on the Mezzanine floor of Rutherford House.

Penalties

If an assignment is submitted late, without prior permission from the Course Coordinator, 5 marks per day will be deducted. Extensions will only be allowed in exceptional circumstances such as illness or bereavement. Please note: it will be necessary to provide supporting documentation such as a medical certificate in support of any application for an extension.

The assignment word limit must be adhered to and, if it is exceeded, any excess words will not be marked.

Use of Turnitin

Student work provided for assessment in this course may be checked for academic integrity by the electronic search engine <http://www.turnitin.com>. Turnitin is an on-line plagiarism prevention tool which compares submitted work with a very large database of existing material. At the discretion of the Head of School, handwritten work may be copy-typed by the School and submitted to Turnitin. A copy of submitted materials will be retained on behalf of the University for detection of future plagiarism, but access to the full text of submissions will not be made available to any other party.

Examinations

Students who enrol in courses with examinations are obliged to attend an examination at the University at any time during the formal examination period. The final examination for this course will be scheduled at some time during the following period:

Friday 23rd October – Saturday 14th November (inclusive)

Mandatory Course Requirements

In addition to obtaining an overall course mark of 50 or better, students must complete both assignments, sit the exam and attend at least four out of the six tutorials.

Any student who is concerned that they have been (or might be) unable to meet any of the MCRs because of exceptional personal circumstances, should contact the course coordinator as soon as possible.

If you cannot complete an assignment or sit a test or examination, refer to www.victoria.ac.nz/home/study/exams-and-assessments/aegrotat

Class Representative

A class representative will be elected in the first class, and that person's name and contact details made available to VUWSA, the course coordinator and the class. The class representative provides a communication channel to liaise with the course coordinator on behalf of students.

Communication of Additional Information

Any additional reading will be available on Blackboard.

Student feedback

Student feedback on University courses may be found at www.cad.vuw.ac.nz/feedback/feedback_display.php

Note to Students

Your assessed work may also be used for quality assurance purposes, such as to assess the level of achievement of learning objectives as required for accreditation and academic audit. The findings may be used to inform changes aimed at improving the quality of VBS programmes. All material used for such processes will be treated as confidential, and the outcome will not affect your grade for the course.
