Course Delivery

Lectures

There is one two hour lecture per week. This will be a mix of lecture, guest speakers and group work. Lecture slides will be posted on Blackboard before class in order to aid note taking in class. You will be expected to have read the relevant Truss chapter before each class and be ready to contribute.

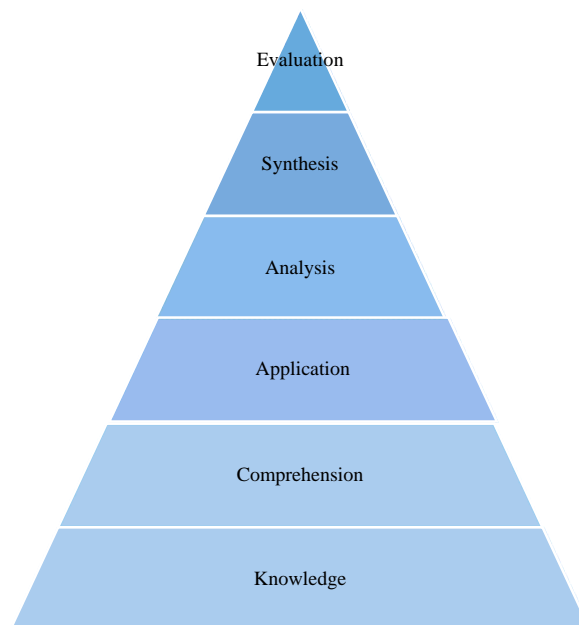

Since it is important to prepare you for your company interviews and there is significant effort put into securing guest speakers, we will be asking the leaders of group projects to complete a roll each week to provide data which will help set the participation grade. If you have a medical reason for absence, please provide you tutor with a medical certificate

Tutorials

Tutorials occur in seven of the 12 weeks and there is a mandatory course requirement that you attend at least 6 of 7 tutorials. These are an important component of your learning. You have the opportunity to further your understanding of key concepts and develop practical skills, such as interviewing data analysis, as well as critical thinking. You will also work in your groups most closely in tutorials.

Learning Style

This course aims to enable you to analyse HR issues from the perspective of an HR professional who advises a chief executive or owner of a business. Understanding the strategic priorities of an organisation can give you a distinctive edge in the workplace, particularly in HR roles. Development of this skill will need your active engagement in learning, as a contributor to discussion in lectures and via Blackboard. A model developed by Benjamin Bloom of educational outcomes (below)¹ is based on the idea that some types of learning require more cognitive processing than others. University courses at stages one and two tend to focus on knowledge, comprehension and application. This course aims to help you integrate a variety of studies so you can confidently demonstrate skills of analysis, synthesis and evaluation, which employers particularly seek when hiring graduates.

Group Work

While the course has a tradition of study group collaboration, there are important elements in the assessment process that are strictly individual. Collaboration on individual assignments is not allowed beyond general discussion as to how one might interpret the nature of the assignment question. Please do not work together to formulate a response and do not loan out your completed assignments. You will be expected and encouraged to work in groups on in-term cases and assignments; however reports must be individual submissions.

This project seeks to provide you with connections to workplaces and give real work experience that will help you as you begin your career,

During the course you will be part of an action learning group of 4-7 people within your tutorial, which will sit together in lectures and work together to interview HR specialists in organisations, and prepare presentations based on these findings. Most workplaces expect staff to be self-starting members of teams, and the group work and industry contact aims to provide experience which will be valuable for your CV.

Learning communities need regular engagement to work effectively. Nothing undermines a learning community more quickly than one or two individuals who seek to free ride on group effort. This is why leaders of each project group will be asked from week three to keep a register of attendance at lectures which will be provided to your tutor for the calculation of participation marks. Contributions to discussions on blackboard will be recognised through marks also.

Expected Workload

Students are expected to spend on average 10 hours per week during the course preparing for class meetings, participating in the group project, working with peers in study groups and working on the course assignments. This time is likely to be divided between reading and researching, preparing contributions for the Blackboard-based community of practice, searching for information in the library or on the Internet or preparing for the group project. Most class sessions will be interactive and seek discussion about pre-readings for that week. Readings for each class are listed on the course outline and modified as needed via Blackboard. A further 30 hours will be required revising during mid-trimester break and study week.

Prescription

An exploration of strategic issues in human resource management and industrial relations drawing on knowledge developed in other HRIR courses.

Programme and Course Related Learning Objectives

Our graduates will:

- be effective communicators;
- have a global and multicultural perspective;
- recognise, support and display leadership;
- develop specific knowledge and skills in at least one business, or public policy discipline; and
- engage in critical thinking.

Course objectives

On successful completion of the course, students should be able to:

- Analyse HR issues, with respect to external and internal influences;

- Explain how organisational strategy, global competition, technological change, workforce characteristics and government regulation influence HR decisions;
- Discuss the relationships between different HR policies and practice; and
- Analyse and discuss case studies, research and academic articles.

Assessment

The Assessment Handbook will apply to all VUW courses: see <http://www.victoria.ac.nz/documents/policy/staff-policy/assessment-handbook.pdf>.

The practical nature of this course and the group work involved means that we are careful to ensure those that put in extra effort are rewarded.

	Assessment	Weight	Date	Marker
1	Blogs – each blog will be posted on Blackboard. Seven blogs are sought in total as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Weeks 4, 5, 7, 10, 12 are worth two marks each (10% total).• Week 2 and 8 are mandatory course requirements with no marks attached.	10%	There are seven blogs in total, due dates and times above.	Annelise Lethborg
2	Pre interview report - A 1200 word report that brings together publicly available information on your chosen organisation's strategic human resource issues.	15%	Due Friday 31 July, 12 noon in hard copy to the HRIR320 box and to Turnitin on Blackboard.	Annelise Lethborg
3	Interview summaries submitted to Blackboard. NB: please retain your recordings so that if there are any research questions we go back to them later.	5%	Due Friday 21 August, 5pm.	Richard Norman
4	Post interview report - 2000 word maximum excluding executive summary, appendix and references.	25%	Friday 18 September, 12pm in hard copy to the HRIR320 box and to Turnitin on Blackboard.	Annelise Lethborg

6	Final Examination - 2 hours	30%	TBA, between 23rd October – Saturday 14 th November	Richard Norman
	TOTAL	100%

Blogs – instructions:

Blogs are an opportunity to reflect on the course content and interviews, and develop your professional writing skills. When writing your blogs, pretend you are writing to your boss and practice your 'business speak'. This will help you to get 'work ready'. Blogs should be 200 – 400 words in length.

Opening Blog (week 2) – mandatory course requirement without marks attached

This is an opportunity to introduce yourself to the class and identify the organisation you will use as the focus for your report and for applying the strategic HR concepts of the course. These introductions will be used in week two and three to help form project groups focused on industry sectors.

This is also an opportunity to apply for the positions of leader and co-leader for your project group. These roles will provide highly relevant work experience of team leadership, research and presentation.

Blog 5 (week 8) – mandatory course requirement

Blog 5 is the executive summary of your post interview report.

Closing Blog (week 12)

Up to 400 words reflecting on your end-of-term understanding of strategic human resource management. How would you define Strategic Human Resource Management? What has become clearer about this subject as a result of the study? Be specific about the concepts or insights from practitioners that have informed your understanding. Comment on ways in which the course has contributed to your learning.

For the five blogs that receive marks, your tutor will provide marks which equate with the grade scale – i.e. over 1.5 / 2 is the equivalent of B+ and above; below 1 is a D or below.

Pre Interview Report (15%)

Length: 1200 words in length, excluding references. No executive summary required.

Write a report which identifies the major strategic issues and HR issues facing an organisation. Use HR concepts to analyse the level of alignment between HR strategies and the goals of the organisation's key stakeholders.

This is an opportunity to research the company that you intend on interviewing. Demonstrate your ability to use published sources of information to describe the current strategic issues facing the organisation, and the context of the organisation. Use your new knowledge of strategic issues in human resources and industrial relations to analyse the HR strategies and practices and assess how well these are aligned to the strategic direction the owners and stakeholders of the organisation wish to pursue.

Draw on HR concepts in the textbook, Course Resources or personal research to apply the most relevant theory/ies to the organisation of your choice.

The 'questions for developing human resources strategy' by Chris Hendry, on page one of the readings, and the 'Harvard Map of the HRM' territory in Beer et al (course readings) provide effective starting points from which to identify one or more concepts that relate strongly to your chosen organisation.

Interview Summaries (5%)

Listen to the whole recording and summarise the key points made in the interview by the interviewee in the sequence of headings in the questionnaire. Please use numbers and summarised headings from the questionnaire and don't reproduce the questionnaire. A mark out of five will use the overall grading system, i.e. above 4 is the equivalent of an A; three is a B, below 2.5 is a D.

Post interview report (25%)

Length: 2000 words, excluding executive summary, appendix and references.

This report brings together findings from your interview and research of published materials about your organisation. The aim here is to show the value of your interview – what more have you learnt about how the strategic human resource issues affect your chosen organisation? Your report should include a range of realistic recommendations to assist with your company's strategic human resource issues. Particular credit will be given to those who think outside the box while using recent academic research to back up their ideas.

Appendix	Compare and contrast the findings of your two interviews
	A concise analysis of no more than two pages, outlines the key similarities and differences in SHRM issues effectively	6

Group Project (15%)

This group presentation and report provides an opportunity to compare findings from different companies. Groups of 4-7 people will be formed within tutorials to assist individuals with their field work. There will be opportunities in tutorials and lectures to compare notes from interviews and other research to identify themes which summarise the knowledge you are gaining. For some groups, the themes might be about similarities; for other groups about differences.

During tutorials you will be asked to select a leader and deputy to co-ordinate your group work so you can present to the tutorial in week 10 about the major strategic HR issues which you are identifying. This presentation is a test run for delivering to an industry audience which may include those you have interviewed. About six of the strongest presentations will be selected for presenting to industry representatives – an excellent chance for those presenting to develop industry connections.

All members of the team are expected to play a part in preparing the presentation and report. Contributions can include the writing and editing of speeches and a report of no more than four pages; speaking, coordinating the flow of the presentation, designing a role-play, building the PowerPoint slides, creating visual aids etc. If “free riding” is a concern, group members are asked to alert the course tutor and / or co-ordinator and the person who chooses not to be an active contributor will be asked to provide an eight page report about the themes which have emerged from the group.

Presentation content and demonstration of critical and creative thinking	Sector context Highlights strategic issues relevant for the cluster of companies.	1					Lacks strategic focus, too much detail
	Knowledge base In the limited time available demonstrates group understanding of HR theory relevant to this sector’s challenges	2					Uses little or no theory that can help interpret the data.
Presentation style	Communications ability Well organised and rehearsed. Communicates a simple and clear message within seven minutes.	2					Runs over time, clearly under rehearsed, message not clear
	Leadership ability Students demonstrate team work and ability to persuade an audience.	1					Fails to inspire confidence in the potential leadership contribution of this group.

Content and analysis (the four page summary)	Executive summary Provides clear overview of the sector findings and trends. Can be read as a standalone document and is no longer than 200 words	1						Unclear, wordy or too generalised. Fails to provide a 'see at a glance' summary
	Creditability of content Makes insightful use of interview findings and published material across the sector	1						Light on content, with few direct quotations and few references
	Application of HR concepts Identifies a few key HR concepts and uses these to organise and analyse information from field work	2						Uses too many HR concepts, or fails to explain their relevance. Contains too much HR jargon.
Written communication	Grammar and style: Correct report style, grammatical sentences, and correct spelling and punctuation. References acknowledged. (Marks deducted if unsatisfactory)							Incorrect report style, ungrammatical sentences, incorrect spelling/punctuation. Inconsistent and incorrect referencing

Final examination (30%)

The final examination for this course will be scheduled during the period from Friday 23rd October – Saturday 14th November. It is a closed book 2-hour examination which will focus on applying concepts listed in this outline. Students who enrol in courses with examinations are obliged to attend an examination at the University at any time during the formal examination period.

Handing in assignments

See above for assignment due dates. Completed assignments must have a cover sheet and handed in to the HRIR 320 box (#14) on the Mezzanine floor of Rutherford House. In addition, you must submit an electronic copy to Turnitin.

Your assessed work may also be used for quality assurance purposes, such as to assess the level of achievement of learning objectives as required for accreditation and audit purposes. The findings may be used to inform changes aimed at improving the quality of FCA programmes. All material used for such processes will be treated as confidential, and the outcome will not affect your grade for the course.

Penalties

Late assignments are to be handed in at Level 10 Reception, RH 1022, during Reception Desk hours, 9am till 5pm Monday to Friday during term time. An Administrator or Duty Receptionist will stamp the assignment with the date and time. Late assignments that do not have the time and date and signed by the Administrator for the course or Duty Receptionist, will incur late penalties from the time the Administrator receives it. Assignments left on the Reception Counter, or slid under the door of the Reception office will also incur penalties from the time and date they are recovered. Note that there is no provision to accept assignments on weekends or public holidays.

Penalties - for Lateness & Excessive Length of Assignments

- (i) In fairness to other students, work submitted after any deadline will incur a penalty for lateness. The penalty is 10% of the marks available (marks available means what the assignment is worth i.e. 20% or 20 marks) for an assignment submitted after the due time on the due date for each part day or day late. (for example if an assignment is out of 20 and the assignment receives 50% then one day late means the mark will be out of 18 and the student will receive 50% of 18). Closed University days, Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays will be included when counting the number of days late. An assignment late day begins from the time the assignment is due. Assignments received more than 7 days after the due date will not be accepted and the student will automatically fail the Mandatory Course Requirements.
- (ii) Course Outlines provide a signal to students of forthcoming workload, dates of submission etc, and thus student study plans should take account of course requirements across all courses. Consequently, workload issues related to other courses and employment will not be accepted as reason for dispensation from mandatory requirements or waiver of penalties. Extensions to submission deadlines for any assigned work will only be granted in exceptional circumstances.
- (iii) Students who are unable to comply with any of the mandatory requirements should make a written application for an extension to the due date for submission of assigned work or for waiver of a penalty, in advance, to the Course Coordinator, providing documentary evidence of the reasons of their circumstances.
- (iv) All such applications must be made before the deadline and be accompanied by documentary evidence, e.g. a medical certificate, or counsellor's report clearly stating the degree of impairment, and the dates the illness or event prevented you from undertaking your academic studies. This can be applied retrospectively.
- (iv) In the event of unusual or unforeseeable circumstances (e.g. serious illness, family bereavement or other exceptional events), that precludes an application in advance, students should make contact with the Course Coordinator as soon as possible, and make application for waiver of a penalty as soon as practicable.
- (v) Word limits should be adhered to, especially so when they provide a guide to limiting the student's coverage of a topic and the intended assignment work load. You are strongly advised to adhere to the word limit so as to keep your workload at a manageable level. Any material that is above the word limit may not be taken into account by the marker. Your marker will simply stop at the maximum words for the assignment and you will receive the appropriate grade.

Remarking

Every attempt is made to ensure that the marking is consistent across tutors and fair to students.

Students may ask for their written work to be remarked. A different tutor will do the remarking and provide comments.

For marks: If the mark differs by 10% or less the two marks are averaged. If it exceeds 10% then it is independently marked by a third marker and the average of the two closest marks is taken.

For grades: If the grade differs by one grade then the highest grade is taken. If the grade differs by more than one grade then the assignment is marked by a third marker and the average grade is taken. Experience from previous years is that almost all remarks are within 10% or one grade. Occasionally there is a significant shift in the mark or grade. Application for remarks must be made within 14 days after the assignments or marks are made available.

To apply for a remark, complete the request for re-examination of assessed work form (Annex B) stating which sections (criteria listed in the mark sheet) you wish re-examined. You must provide academic reasons on why you think the mark does not, in your view, fairly reflect the quality of your work. Your assignment will only be reconsidered on the points you raised. Complete remarks will not be undertaken. Hand this with your assignment into the following place:

- Pipitea Campus – the Reception Desk on Level 10 Rutherford House where your assignment will have the time, date and signature noted on the front cover by the person receiving it.

Allow a minimum of 5 days for remarks to be completed.

Use of Turnitin

Student work provided for assessment in this course may be checked for academic integrity by the electronic search engine <http://www.turnitin.com>. Turnitin is an on-line plagiarism prevention tool which compares submitted work with a very large database of existing material. At the discretion of the Head of School, handwritten work may be copy-typed by the School and submitted to Turnitin. A copy of submitted materials will be retained on behalf of the University for detection of future plagiarism, but access to the full text of submissions will not be made available to any other party.

Examinations

Students who enrol in courses with examinations are obliged to attend an examination at the University at any time during the formal examination period. The final examination for this course will be scheduled at some time during the following period:

Friday 23rd October – Saturday 14th November (inclusive)

Mandatory Course Requirements

To meet Mandatory Course Requirements, students are required to:

- a. Attend at least 6 of the 7 tutorials;
- b. Submit blog one in week 2 and blog five in week 8 (instructions to be posted on Blackboard)
- c. Submit the assignments within the allowable timeframe (see Penalties section) below (i); and
- d. Obtain at least 40 per cent of the final examination marks available.

Students who fail to satisfy the mandatory requirements for this course but who obtain 50% or more overall, will be awarded a "K" grade.

Standard fail grades (D or E) will be awarded when the student's overall course mark falls below the minimum pass mark, regardless of whether the mandatory course requirements have been satisfied or not.

Notice of Failure to meet Mandatory Course Requirements will be posted on Blackboard.

In addition to obtaining an overall course mark of 50 or better, students must ...

Any student who is concerned that they have been (or might be) unable to meet any of the MCRs because of exceptional personal circumstances, should contact the course coordinator as soon as possible.

If you cannot complete an assignment or sit a test or examination, refer to www.victoria.ac.nz/home/study/exams-and-assessments/aegrotat

Class Representative

A class representative will be elected in the first class, and that person's name and contact details made available to VUWSA, the course coordinator and the class. The class representative provides a communication channel to liaise with the course coordinator on behalf of students.

Communication of Additional Information

Information on course-related matters will be announced at class and posted on the Blackboard website at <http://blackboard.vuw.ac.nz/>. It will be crucial for you to regularly check Blackboard for messages, announcements and materials.

Email Contact

Students wishing to contact staff by email should adhere to the following instructions:

Include the Course Code, your Name, your Student ID and the Topic in the subject area of the email, e.g.

HRIR320_Smith_Pauline_3000223344_Ass1 Query

All students must use their VUW SCS email account and ID. Otherwise, email will be classified as Spam and will be dumped without being read. All emails with attachments will be dumped, unless requested by staff.

Note to Students

Your assessed work may also be used for quality assurance purposes, such as to assess the level of achievement of learning objectives as required for accreditation and academic audit. The findings may be used to inform changes aimed at improving the quality of VBS programmes. All material used for such processes will be treated as confidential, and the outcome will not affect your grade for the course.
