

New Zealand Institute of International Affairs
&
New Zealand Contemporary China Research Centre

Invite you to a Panel Discussion

China's Rise: Implications for Global and Regional Governance

Featuring

Professor David Shambaugh, Elliot School of International Affairs, George Washington University

Bio: Professor Shambaugh is recognized internationally as an authority on contemporary Chinese affairs and the international politics and security of the Asia-Pacific region. He is a widely published author of numerous books, articles, book chapters, and newspaper editorials.

Professor Shen Dingli, Institute of International Relations, Fudan University

Bio: Professor Shen Dingli, a physicist by training, is a professor of international relations at Fudan University. He is the Executive Dean of Fudan University's Institute of International Studies, and Director of Center for American Studies. He is also the founder and director of China's first non-government-based Program on Arms Control and Regional Security at Fudan University.

Professor Sam Zhao, Josef Korbel School of International Studies, University of Denver

Bio: Suisheng (Sam) Zhao is Professor and Executive Director of the Center for China-US Cooperation at the Josef Korbel School of International Studies, University of Denver. He is a member of the Board of Governors of the US Committee for the Council for Security Cooperation in the Asia Pacific (USCSCAP), a member of the National Committee on US-China Relations, a Research Associate at the Fairbanks Center for East Asian Research in Harvard University, and an honorary jianzhi professor at Beijing University, Renmin University, Fudan University, and Shanghai Foreign Studies University.

Professor Jin Canrong, School of International Relations, Renmin University of China

Bio: Professor Jin Canrong is a professor and Associate Dean with the School of International Studies at Renmin University of China. He is also a visiting professor at the Gerald Ford School of Public Policy, University of Michigan and the "Weilun" Chair Professor at Tsinghua University

Panel Moderator

Professor Roberto Rabel
Pro Vice Chancellor (International)
Victoria University of Wellington

These four distinguished academics are recognised internationally as authorities on contemporary China affairs. They have all studied, taught, and written extensively about China's 'rise' and its many implications. They have been in New Zealand primarily to take part in the 45th University of Otago Foreign Policy School, the main focus of which is the return of China to global centre-stage. Our four panellists offer a formidable wealth of experience and knowledge of the country that is now firmly established at the heart of much of what New Zealand aspires to achieve in the Asia-Pacific region.

Date & Time: 5.30 pm Monday 28 June 2010
Venue: LT 1, Old Government Building, Law School, (Stout Street entrance)
Pipitea Campus, Victoria University of Wellington

RSVP attendance only email: nziia@vuw.ac.nz Ph 04 463 5356