CLASS TIMES AND ROOMS

Lectures

Mondays and Tuesdays from 11.00am-11.50am in EA (Easterfield) 004

Cellular phones and pagers should be switched off for the duration of all classes.

Tutorials

Students must attend one tutorial class per week, at one of the following times:

Monday 12noon -12.50pm in VZ (von Zedlitz) 515

or

Tuesday 12noon - 12.50pm in VZ (von Zedlitz) 515

Note that there is no tutorial in Week 1. Students will be assigned to tutorial groups during the first week of classes. The first tutorial (Week 2) will be a library information session which will be held in the library in the Library building Rankine Brown (RB) 307.

COURSE AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

SPAN 312 is a second trimester 24-point course in Hispanic Literary Studies, which presents a range of literary works, studied in their original versions, produced by Spanish and Latin American writers in the twentieth century. As well as setting the texts within the socio-political context of the contemporary Hispanic world, this paper aims to introduce students to aspects of contemporary literary criticism.

Upon completing the course successfully students will be able to:

- (i) demonstrate a detailed knowledge and understanding of the literary works studied;
- (ii) discuss these texts in spoken and written analysis;
- (iii) demonstrate a knowledge of selected aspects of political and social history of twentieth-century Spain and Latin America in relation to these texts.

All of the pieces of assessment for SPAN 312 relate to all three of the course objectives.

TEXTS

Prescribed texts for SPAN 312 are as follows:

Federico García Lorca, La casa de Bernarda Alba (Cátedra)

Ramón J. Sender, Réquiem por un campesino español (Destino)

Gabriel García Márquez, Crónica de una muerte anunciada (Plaza y Janés)

Miguel Barnet, Biografía de un cimarrón (any edition)

The above texts are available from the Victoria Book Centre (Vic Books) and SPAN 312 Course Handbook 2008 is available from Student Notes in the Student Union Building.

ASSESSMENT

Assessment for SPAN 312 is a combination of in-term assessment (60%) and a final 3-hour written examination (40%), as follows:

Essay 1 (approx 2,000 words)	20%
Essay 2 (approx 2,000 words)	20%
Seminar Presentation	20%
Final written 3-hour examination	40%

The relevant dates for the pieces of assessed work are detailed in the Course Programme.

MANDATORY COURSE REQUIREMENTS

In order to pass SPAN 312, students are required to do the following, unless specific exemptions have been agreed to:

- (i) give the seminar presentation on the date scheduled;
- (ii) complete the two essays by the due dates;
- (iii) sit the final written examination.

To pass SPAN 312 a student must meet the mandatory course requirements and achieve at least an average of "C" over all the assessment. Students who gain at least 50% of the course marks, but fail the course due to not satisfying a mandatory course requirement, will receive a K grade. Students who gain less than 50% will receive a D or an E grade, whether or not they have completed the mandatory course requirements.

The relation of grades to percentages, for any work for assessment and for the course as a whole, is as follows: A+ (85-100%), A (80-84%), A- (75-79%), B+ (70-74%), B (65-69%), B- (60-64%), C+ (55-59%), C (50-54%), D (40-49%), E (0-39%).

PRESENTATION OF ESSAYS

Tidy presentation is essential. Work may be typed or neatly handwritten. Crossings-out indicate that a piece of work is still at draft stage. Allow space for corrections: leave a 4-centimetre margin and write or type on alternate lines. Do not write in pencil.

All assignments should include a cover sheet available from SLC Reception. Assignments are to be handed in to the Spanish assignment slot located to the left of the SLC Reception area on the 6th floor of von Zedlitz. Detailed guidelines for the presentation of essays will be distributed with the essay topics.

PENALTIES

The due dates for essays and seminar reports must be adhered to. Although work may be accepted late in special circumstances, the Course Co-ordinator should always be contacted on or before the due dates if there is a problem. The penalty for work presented late without prior approval is a 5% deduction per day. In addition, please note that up to a maximum of 5% may be deducted for poorly presented essays. Please note that no work for assessment will be accepted after 17 October.

EXPECTED WORKLOAD

The Humanities and Social Sciences Faculty Committee on Workloads and Assessment has laid down guidelines as to the number of hours per week which students are expected to devote to a course in order to maintain satisfactory progress. Students enrolling in a 300-level one trimester 24-point course should work on average 18 hours per week including contact hours - i.e., in the case of SPAN 312, 15 hours of private study outside class time.

STUDENT REPRESENTATIVES AND STUDENT EVALUATIONS

In the second week of lectures, staff will facilitate the election of a class representative. Student representatives are a valuable means of communication between teaching staff and students. In addition students can approach any member of staff individually to talk about the course as a whole, any particular aspect of it, or their own individual progress.

At the end of the course, students may be asked to fill out questionnaires prepared by the University's Teaching and Development Centre. These questionnaires relate either to the course, or to an individual lecturer's contribution. They are an important part of the University's accountability process, and the results are most helpful in the University's attempts to maintain and raise the standards of the education it offers.

COMMUNICATION OF ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

The Spanish noticeboard is in the corridor outside the Spanish Seminar Room (VZ 515). Additional information or information on changes will be conveyed to students either via class, noticeboards, Blackboard, or email.

SPANISH CLUB STUDENT ACTIVITIES

All students of Spanish are encouraged to join the Spanish Club and to participate in the social and cultural events organised. A noticeboard for the Spanish Students' Club is in the Spanish library (VZ 606). Spanish newspapers and magazines are available in the Spanish Library and may be taken away, but should be signed for in the book, which is in the library.

LANGUAGE LEARNING CENTRE

The Language Learning Centre (Level 0, von Zedlitz Building) facilitates independent learning and supports the teaching of languages. The LLC is a friendly and supportive environment where you can immerse yourself in language and culture through access to a variety of multimedia language resources: everything from print, audio, DVDs, comprehensive computer software and access to live satellite TV in several languages.

Visit the Centre at any time for advice and assistance, and to study. It is open year-round, with extended hours during University trimesters.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY AND PLAGIARISM

Academic integrity is about honesty – put simply it means no cheating. All members of the University community are responsible for upholding academic integrity, which means staff and students are expected to behave honestly, fairly and with respect for others at all times.

Plagiarism is a form of cheating which undermines academic integrity. The University defines plagiarism as: The presentation of the work of another person or other persons as if it were one's own, whether intended or not. This includes published or unpublished work, material on the Internet and the work of other students or staff. It is still plagiarism even if you re-structure the material or present it in your own style or words.

Note: It is however, perfectly acceptable to include the work of others as long as that is acknowledged by appropriate referencing.

Plagiarism is prohibited at Victoria and is not worth the risk. Any enrolled student found guilty of plagiarism will be subject to disciplinary procedures under the Statute on Student Conduct and may be penalized severely. Consequences of being found guilty of plagiarism can include: an oral or written warning, cancellation of your mark for an assessment or a fail grade for the course, suspension from the course or the University. Find out more about plagiarism, and how to avoid it, on the University's website: www.victoria.ac.nz/home/studying/plagiarism.html

GENERAL UNIVERSITY STATUTES AND POLICIES

Students should familiarise themselves with the University's policies and statutes, particularly the Assessment Statute, the Personal Courses of Study Statute, the Statute on Student Conduct and any statutes relating to the particular qualifications being studied; see the Victoria University Calendar available in hardcopy or under "about Victoria" on the Victoria homepage at: http://www.victoria.ac.nz/home/about_victoria/calendar_intro.html
