COURSE CONTENT

This course is designed for those students who have acquired basic Chinese language skills at 100-level, and introduces them to intermediate level of competence in Modern Standard Chinese.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Through the use of the core text, New Practical Chinese Reader: Textbook (Vol 2), students will continue to development the language skills, and special attention is placed on reading modern Chinese, translation, listening comprehension and speaking ability.

COURSE DELIVERY

The course includes the following components:

- a) Lectures:
New Practical Chinese Reader: Textbook, Vol 2.
- b) Tutorials:
The emphasis is to improve reading comprehension and writing ability.
- c) A/V Classes:

Most students are eager to make progress towards fluency in speaking Chinese. However, no one can achieve this goal by only attending lectures and tutorials, as it requires self –motivated practice every day. This part of the course, therefore, provides some guidance in making the grammatical Chinese language functional and active, which may be helpful to students who wish to improve their communication skills in Chinese.

PRESCRIBED TEXTS

- New Practical Chinese Reader: Text; Book 2 (Beijing Language and Culture University Press, 2002). [To be purchased by students]
- New Practical Chinese Reader: Workbook; Book 2 (Beijing Language and Culture University Press, 2002) [To be purchased by students]

EXPECTED WORKLOAD

- a) Students are required to attend 6 hours of tuition per week: students are required to attend four lectures, one tutorial and one A/V session per week. Course attendance should be at least 80% of all classes offered.
- b) The university workload guidelines suggest that students should devote a total of 15 hours a week, including class contact hours, to this course for its duration in order to maintain satisfactory progress.

ASSESSMENT REQUIREMENTS

This course is entirely internally assessed. Assessment is based on a combination of continuous assessment throughout the course, one mid-term test, one final written test, and a final oral & A/V test. This combination is felt to be most appropriate to the nature of language acquisition paper. Whilst it allows both students and staff to monitor individual progress closely, it also provides yardsticks against which to measure this progress. Students are encouraged to develop regular study habits and to become increasingly autonomous in their language learning. Assessment is weighted in the following manner:

1. Assignments
5 Written assignments, each worth 5% 25%
Assignments to be submitted one week after being set and to be marked and returned within two weeks of the due date.

Tests
All tests are of 50 minutes duration
2. Written Tests
· Mid-term test (9 April) 25%
· Final test (5 June) 30%
3. A/V and Oral Test: 20%
(Week of: 25 -29 May)

PENALTIES

The late submission of assignments must be negotiated with the lecturer concerned before the due date and, depending upon circumstances, may be penalised.

MANDATORY COURSE REQUIREMENTS

In order to pass this course, a student must obtain an overall mark of at least 50% from the combination of assessed work. It is mandatory for a student to submit at least 3 out of 5 written assignments and sit all tests.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY AND PLAGIARISM

Academic integrity means that university staff and students, in their teaching and learning are expected to treat others honestly, fairly and with respect at all times. It is not acceptable to mistreat academic, intellectual or creative work that has been done by other people by representing it as your own original work.

Academic integrity is important because it is the core value on which the University's learning, teaching and research activities are based. Victoria University's reputation for academic integrity adds value to your qualification.

The University defines plagiarism as presenting someone else's work as if it were your own, whether you mean to or not. 'Someone else's work' means anything that is not your own idea. Even if it is presented in your own style, you must acknowledge your sources fully and appropriately. This includes:

- Material from books, journals or any other printed source
- The work of other students or staff
- Information from the internet
- Software programs and other electronic material
- Designs and ideas
- The organisation or structuring of any such material

Find out more about plagiarism, how to avoid it and penalties, on the University's website:
<http://www.victoria.ac.nz/home/study/plagiarism.aspx>

General University Requirements, Policies and Statutes

Students should familiarise themselves with the University's policies and statutes, particularly the Assessment Statute, the Personal Courses of Study Statute, the Statute on Student Conduct and any statutes relating to the particular qualifications being studied; see the Victoria University Calendar or go to the Academic Policy and Student Policy sections on:
