Grammatical structures and cultural aspects of the language will be introduced in the lectures and students will practice the four skills of reading, writing, speaking, and listening. In the tutorials, further practice will be given for reading and writing Japanese, and students' oral skills will also be a main focus.

Communication of additional information

Any additional information relating to this course may be found on Blackboard and the Japanese notice board situated on the 7th floor of the von Zedlitz Building. You are advised to check Blackboard and the notice board regularly.

Course content

*A tentative outline of the course content can be found at the end of this Course Outline.

Learning objectives

This course is designed to increase basic proficiency in oral and written Japanese, including hiragana, katakana and kanji. 144 new kanji will be introduced. By using the core text, Genki I: An Integrated Course in Elementary Japanese (Lessons 7-12), it is hoped that students will gain the ability to communicate effectively in a variety of practical situations and at the same time develop a keen awareness of the function of the language culturally and sociologically.

On completion of this course students should have acquired an elementary competence in Japanese (in listening, speaking, reading and writing), and a basic understanding of Japanese culture. Students will be able to sit for Level 4 of the Japanese Language Proficiency Test after completion of JAPA112.

Expected workload

- a) Students are required to attend 5 hours of tuition per week. A minimum of 80% of all classes including tutorials must be attended.
- b) Only the class/tutorial a student is enrolled in may be attended. If a student finds he/she can no longer attend a class/tutorial time due to a change in personal circumstances, he/she must consult with the course coordinator and submit a Change of Course form when appropriate.
- c) All assignments must be submitted and all tests sat.

- d) The University guideline for average number of study hours per week including class contact hours for a 100 level half year 18 point course is 15 hours per week. (5 hours in class and 10 hours work in your own time.)
- e) Students are expected to organize themselves to practice Japanese conversation with their classmates or Japanese native speakers for at least one hour per week. This additional effort outside of class time is crucial for students to become fluent in speaking Japanese.
- f) Students are expected to listen to and watch tapes and videos recommended by the lecturer at the Language Learning Centre for at least one hour per week.
- g) If a student's progress is not satisfactory despite spending a large amount of time on study, the Course Coordinator should be consulted. Students should feel free to consult the Coordinator at any time with any queries.

Academic Integrity and Plagiarism

Academic integrity means that university staff and students, in their teaching and learning are expected to treat others honestly, fairly and with respect at all times. It is not acceptable to mistreat academic, intellectual or creative work that has been done by other people by representing it as your own original work.

Academic integrity is important because it is the core value on which the University's learning, teaching and research activities are based. Victoria University's reputation for academic integrity adds value to your qualification.

The University defines plagiarism as presenting someone else's work as if it were your own, whether you mean to or not. 'Someone else's work' means anything that is not your own idea. Even if it is presented in your own style, you must acknowledge your sources fully and appropriately. This includes:

- Material from books, journals or any other printed source
- The work of other students or staff
- Information from the internet
- Software programs and other electronic material
- Designs and ideas
- The organisation or structuring of any such material
