COMMUNICATION OF ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

This course uses Blackboard for all important information and announcements, as well as posting lecture notes, and encourages you to check it regularly. COURSE CONTENT

This course looks at New Zealand literature by way of four distinct modules, each of which is centred on a particular, figure, text or historical moment. Starting with Katherine Mansfield as a 'colonial' writer, we consider the place of New Zealand within the developing styles of her fiction. We then consider James K. Baxter as a public poet, possessed of a powerful vision of New Zealand's ills and of the road to redemption. Next we look at an important contemporary novelist, Paula Morris, whose Hibiscus Coast explores the complexities of culture and the problems of national identity in the 2000s. Finally, we look at the poetry of Bill Manhire and the controversies surrounding his creative writing programme at Victoria University.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

The course is designed to expose you to a range of concepts relevant to more advanced students of New Zealand literature; it will equip you with an understanding of the cultural and historical contexts of the

ASSESSMENT REQUIREMENTS

In order to pass this course, you need to hand in all pieces of written work. Additionally, according to the rules of the School, you also need to attend at least 8 of the tutorials in order to pass this course.

ENGL 331 COURSE OUTLINE: ENGL 331

For a course at 300-level, it is recommended that you spend on average 15 hours per week including class contact hours. Therefore, you should spend about 12 hours of your own time on reading, research and preparation.

All written work must be in an acceptable academic format. A referencing guide produced for students in the English programme is attached to the end of this document.

Each of these assessments has been designed to focus on a different aspect of the overall objectives of the course.

% of final mark Due date Assessment Essay #1 (Mansfield) 25 20 August (4pm) Essay #2 (Baxter) 25 8 October (4pm) Final exam 50 tba

The three-hour exam is made up of three sections: Section A is focused on Hibiscus Coast; Section B is focused on Bill Manhire; Section C allows students to address a general topic and may draw on any of the authors studied in this course. Students must answer one question from each section. Sections A and B are each worth 30 marks each; Section C is worth 40 marks. The examination period is from Friday 22 October

ENGL 331 COURSE OUTLINE: ENGL 331

EXTENSIONS AND PENALTIES

Extensions will be granted only in exceptional and unforeseen circumstances. Issues of workload do not constitute exceptional and unforseen circumstances. If you require an extension, you must complete an extension request form (available on your course Blackboard site) prior to the assignment due date. This may be accompanied by relevant documentation (e.g. a doctor's certificate) where appropriate. Tutors cannot grant extensions. Work that is submitted late without an extension is subject to penalties:

If an extension is granted, work will be marked in the usual way. If an extension is not applied for, or not granted, the final mark will be reduced by one 'step' of the grade (eg from A to A- or B- to C+).

If work is handed in late minimal comments are offered.

MANDATORY COURSE REQUIREMENTS

To gain a pass in this course you must:

- Submit the written work specified for this course, on or by the specified dates (subject to such provisions as are stated for late submission of work)
- Attend 8 tutorials

CLASS REPRESENTATIVES

A class representative will be elected in the first class, and that person's name and contact details will be available to VUWSA, the Course Coordinator and the class. The class representative provides a communication channel to liaise with the Course Coordinator on behalf of students.

STATEMENT ON LEGIBILITY

You are expected to present work that meets appropriate standards. Work submitted during the course (i. e. work that is internally assessed) should be typed or prepared on a computer. Work submitted in the final examination will obviously be handwritten. You are expected to write clearly. Where work is deemed 'illegible', you will be given a photocopy of the work and asked to transcribe it to an acceptable standard (preferably typed) within a specified time frame.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY AND PLAGIARISM

Academic integrity means that university staff and students, in their teaching and learning are expected to treat others honestly, fairly and with respect at all times. It is not acceptable to mistreat academic, intellectual or creative work that has been done by other people by representing it as your own original work.

ENGL 331 COURSE OUTLINE: ENGL 331

Academic integrity is important because it is the core value on which the University's learning, teaching and research activities are based. Victoria University's reputation for academic integrity adds value to your qualification.

The University defines plagiarism as presenting someone else's work as if it were your own, whether you mean to or not. 'Someone else's work' means anything that is not your own idea. Even if it is presented in your own style, you must acknowledge your sources fully and appropriately. This includes:

- Material from books, journals or any other printed source
- The work of other students or staff
- Information from the internet
- Software programs and other electronic material
- Designs and ideas
- The organisation or structuring of any such material

Find out more about plagiarism, how to avoid it and penalties, on the University's website: http://www.victoria.ac.nz/home/study/plagiarism.aspx

GENERAL UNIVERSITY POLICIES AND STATUTES

You should familiarise themselves with the University's policies and statutes, particularly the Assessment Statute, the Personal Courses of Study Statute, the Statute on Student Conduct and any statutes relating to the particular qualifications being studied; see the Victoria University Calendar or go to the Academic Policy and Student Policy sections on: http://www.victoria.ac.nz/home/about/policy

ENGLISH REFERENCING GUIDE

MLA brief guide

Referencing Update for Students of English

It has recently been decided that students of English should use one standard referencing system for all work produced for English courses: the MLA style.

Previously the document Guidelines for SEFT Students offered two alternative systems.

Following the recent decision, English students are expected to use only the first of the two alternatives outlined. This is labelled in the Guidelines as "Notes included in the text (System A)". The alternative system – "Footnotes or endnotes (System B)" – should no longer be used for written work in English.

MLA Style – the new standard for English

The system students are now required to use is generally known as the MLA style. This system is in wide use in the Humanities, and has been thoroughly documented. Full details of the MLA style are provided in MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers (6th edition) and the MLA Style Manual and Guide to Scholarly Publishing (2nd edition), both of which are available in the library.

Purdue University Online Writing Lab (OWL) offers an excellent Internet resource on MLA style. It can be accessed at http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/557/01/.

What follows is a basic outline of MLA conventions.

MLA Style

This type of system is sometimes referred to as a "parenthetical style". By this system, full bibliographical details of the text you have used are given only in the Works Cited list at the end of the document.

In the body of your essay, follow each quotation or reference with a note in parentheses giving just the author's name and page number, like this: (Lanham 104) Note that there is no punctuation, and no use of p. or pp. for page(s). If it is perfectly clear from the context who is being quoted, you can just give the page number: "Lanham argues that...(104)."

ENGL 331 COURSE OUTLINE: ENGL 331

If you have several works by a single author in your bibliography, avoid ambiguity by adding a short title (Lanham, "Astrophil" 104).

If you are discussing a poem or poems, give line numbers (11-12) rather than page numbers. In referring to a Shakespearean play, or any other play in acts and scenes, give act, scene, and line numbers, like this: (3.2.28-35). [This means Act Three, scene two, lines 28-35.]

In referring to a classic work or a novel which exists in several editions, it is helpful to the reader to give chapter as well as page references: "Nelly says that 'from the very beginning, [Heathcliff] bred bad feeling in the house" (Bronte 89; ch.6) (or (Bronte 89; 1.6) for an edition in volumes and chapters).

In referring to a film, the reference should provide director and year: "In Way Down East (D.W.

Griffith, 1920) . . . "

Works Cited

Whereas a bibliography may contain works that were useful in the development of an essay, the Works Cited list required in MLA style identifies only those texts which have directly contributed to the production of your work, either in the form of direct quotation or paraphrase.

Works Cited entries follow very specific conventions. Be sure you use punctuation, italicisation and quotation marks exactly in line with the following examples.

Note that some guidelines specify the use of underlining instead of italicisation. For the purposes of bibliographic detail the two should be treated as equivalent. You can either underline book titles or italicise them. Whichever you choose you should use consistently.

(a) For a book by a single author:

Author's surname, first name. Title of book. Place of publication: publisher's name, year of publication.

E.g. Coetzee, J. M. Foe. London: Penguin, 1987.

(b) For a book with an editor rather than an author:

McLeod, Marion, and Bill Manhire, eds. Some Other Country: New Zealand's Best Short Stories.

9

School of English, Film, Theatre, & Media Studies ENGL 331 COURSE OUTLINE: ENGL 331

Wellington: Unwin, 1984.

(c) For an edition of a "classic" author's work:

Milton, John. Paradise Lost. 1667. Ed. Alastair Fowler. London: Longman, 1968.

(d) For an article in a journal:

Author's surname, first name. "Title of article." Title of journal, volume number (year): page numbers.

E.g. Hutcheon, Linda. "Colonialism and the Postcolonial Condition: Complexities Abounding." PMLA 110.1 (1995): 7-16.

(e) For an article in an anthology:

Attridge, Derek. "Literary Form and the Demands of Politics: Otherness in J. M. Coetzee's Age of Iron." Aesthetics and Ideology. Ed. George Levine. New Brunswick: Rutgers UP, 1994. 198-213.

(f) For ENGL Course Notes:

ENGL 113 Course Notes. Victoria University of Wellington, 2007.

Note that specific articles in a book of Course Notes follow as for (e) above. E.g.

Wordsworth, William. "Preface to Lyrical Ballads." 1802. ENGL 113 Course Notes. Victoria University of Wellington, 2007. 24-5.

(g) For a web page:

"Name of Page." Name of Site. Date of posting/revision. Date you accessed the site <URL [electronic address]>.

E.g. "Postcolonialism." Wikipedia: The Free Encyclopedia. 24 January 2008. 15 February 2008 http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Postcolonialism>.
