Teaching staff are happy to discuss your concerns with you, or to provide additional information about the course. Such information is also regularly provided through announcements in class and on Blackboard. Staff are available for student consultation at times indicated on their office doors, or contact them via email to arrange a suitable time.

Class times and locations

Three hours of lectures and/or seminars per week:
Mon, Wed, Thurs                          3.10pm – 4.00pm                          Murphy (MYLT220)

Course delivery

Classes will consist of lectures and seminars, supplemented by reading materials and films. Students are expected to take an active part in class and to contribute their own background knowledge on the topic under discussion.

Communication of additional information

Further course information can be found on the German Programme notice board, vZ Level 6 opposite the German library, and on Blackboard.

Course content

GERM 114 aims to introduce students to the basic facts of, and interrelations between, political, social and cultural developments and attitudes in Germany from the time of its division into the Federal Republic and the German Democratic Republic in 1949 to the present day. As well as being given factual information and analysis, students will study aspects of German fiction and film. This course is taught and assessed entirely in English and is open to anyone interested in this subject. All materials are studied in English translation.

Learning objectives

Students passing the course should be able to:

- demonstrate an informed understanding of aspects of Germany from 1949 to the present day;
- outline Germany's physical and political geography;
- identify and discuss some key values and cultural concepts in German society;
- demonstrate familiarity with facets of German writing and film.

Expected workload

The Humanities and Social Sciences Faculty Committee on Workloads and Assessment has laid down guidelines as to the number of hours per week which students are expected to devote to a course in order to maintain satisfactory progress. Students enrolling in a 100-level 1-trimester 20-point course should work on average 13 hours per week including contact hours - i.e. you are expected to work an additional 10 hours per week. This will naturally vary according to the knowledge of German and the knowledge of Germany with which the student comes to the course.

Reading

Assessment requirements

The assessment programme is designed to evaluate the extent of the student's understanding and knowledge of a topic and to assess the student's ability to research a topic, organise thoughts and insights, and express them in a lucid, well-documented way, both in class seminars and in essay form. To help in the latter, students will be given the German Programme's detailed Notes on the Presentation of Essays, which is also available on Blackboard.

GERM 114 is assessed by:

1. One essay which counts 30% towards the final result. See the list of essay topics below.

2. One seminar paper on a set topic. These seminars will be researched and presented in groups, but each group member is expected to do an equal share of the work and to take over part of the presentation. The seminar counts 20% towards the final result.
3. A final two-hour examination. This is not an open book exam. It counts 50% towards the final result. All students enrolled in the course are expected to be available during the examination period 22 October - 13 November 2010.

The essay and the seminar are on individual topics relating to the society and culture of modern Germany. Seminar dates must be observed. The seminar allocations will be finalised in the second week of the course. See the list of seminar options below. Students will be able to sign up for their seminar topics and dates on Blackboard.

The examination will cover all areas studied in the course, but students will have a choice of questions to be answered.

Penalties

Essays must be handed in on time. Students prevented by uncontrollable circumstances from completing an essay on time must, in advance of the deadline, formally request an extension of time from the lecturer. In cases of illness, accident or bereavement, this can be done by telephone. Essays submitted late without explanation will have penalty marks deducted at the rate of two marks a day; in the case of extreme lateness, the essay will not be marked and the student will not have met minimum course requirements.

Essay Information and Deadline

The essay is worth 30% of the final mark and is due by 5pm on Monday, 16 August (beginning of Week 6).

All assignments must be submitted in two forms:

1. An electronic copy is to be uploaded to the relevant assignment drop box on the GERM 114 Blackboard website
2. AND a print-out is to be placed in the German assignment box located to the left of the School of Languages and Cultures Reception area on Level 6 of von Zedlitz. The print-out must include a cover sheet available from SLC Reception or Blackboard.

Assignments will not be considered complete until submitted in both forms.

Here are five basics for essay writing. See also the Notes on the Presentation of Essays.

- The essay should not exceed the word-limit of 1000 words.
- It must have a 5 cm left margin. (NOTE this instruction, which is often ignored!)
- It should be typed with double-spacing (i.e. vertical spacing between lines).
- Give page-numbers.

A choice of topics is given below. Note: You MAY NOT choose the same topic for your essay and your seminar.

Mandatory course requirements

To gain a pass in this course each student must:

- a) Submit the written work specified on or by the due dates
- b) Present the seminar required for this course
- c) Attend the examination at the end of the course
- d) Attend at least 80% of all three sections of the course.

Unless notified to the contrary, students may assume they have met the mandatory course requirements.

Class Representative

A class representative will be elected in the first class, and that person's name and contact details will be made available to VUWSA, the Course Co-ordinator and the class. The class representative provides a communication channel to liaise with the Course co-ordinator on behalf of students.

Statement on legibility

Students are expected to write clearly. Where work is deemed 'illegible', the options are:

- the student will be given a photocopy of the work and asked to transcribe it to an acceptable standard (preferably typed) within a specified time frame after which penalties will apply;
- the student will be given a photocopy of the work and asked to transcribe it to an acceptable standard (preferably typed) and lateness penalties apply;
- if the student does not transcribe it to an acceptable standard, the work will be accepted as 'received' (so any associated mandatory course requirements are met) but not marked.

Academic integrity and plagiarism

Academic integrity means that university staff and students, in their teaching and learning are expected to treat others honestly, fairly and with respect at all times. It is not acceptable to mistreat academic, intellectual or creative work that has been done by other people by representing it as your own original work.

Academic integrity is important because it is the core value on which the University's learning, teaching and research activities are based. Victoria University's reputation for academic integrity adds value to your qualification.

The University defines plagiarism as presenting someone else's work as if it were your own, whether you mean to or not. 'Someone else's work' means anything that is not your own idea. Even if it is presented in your own style, you must acknowledge your sources fully and appropriately. This includes:

- Material from books, journals or any other printed source
- The work of other students or staff
- Information from the internet
- Software programs and other electronic material
- Designs and ideas
- The organisation or structuring of any such material

Find out more about plagiarism, how to avoid it and penalties, on the University's website:
<http://www.victoria.ac.nz/home/study/plagiarism.aspx>

Use of Turnitin

Student work provided for assessment in this course may be checked for academic integrity by the electronic search engine <http://www.turnitin.com>. Turnitin is an online plagiarism prevention tool which compares submitted work with a very large database of existing material. At the discretion of the Head of School, handwritten work may be copy-typed by the School and subject to checking by Turnitin. Turnitin will retain a copy of submitted material on behalf of the University for detection of future plagiarism, but access to the full text of submissions is not made available to any other party.

General university policies and statutes

Students should familiarise themselves with the University's policies and statutes, particularly the Assessment Statute, the Personal Courses of Study Statute, the Statute on Student Conduct and any statutes relating to the particular qualifications being studied; see the Victoria University Calendar or go to the Academic Policy and Student Policy sections on:

<http://www.victoria.ac.nz/home/about/policy>

The AVC (Academic) website also provides information for students in a number of areas including Academic Grievances, Student and Staff conduct, Meeting the needs of students with impairments, and student support/VUWSA student advocates. This website can be accessed at:

<http://www.victoria.ac.nz/home/about/avcademic/Publications.aspx>
