Carolina Miranda is the Course Coordinator for SPAN 112, and she will teach one stream. Other streams will be taught by Teresa Neches. Staff are available for student consultation at times indicated on the doors of their offices.

Class times and locations

Lectures

There are four lecture hours per week taught in three streams as follows:

1. Carolina Miranda (CRN 17158) 9:00am to 10:50am Mondays and Wednesdays in KK (Kirk) 204.
2. Teresa Neches (CRN 17159) 1:10pm to 3:00pm Mondays and Wednesdays in HM (Hugh Mackenzie) HM LT001.
3. Teresa Neches (CRN 6093) 9:00am to 10:50am Tuesdays and Thursdays in HM (Hugh Mackenzie) HM LT002.

You must remain in your allotted group for the whole course, unless a change is authorised by the Course Co-ordinator. Students must bring the text book and exercise manual to all classes.

Course delivery

This course is delivered through four lectures per week in two two-hour blocks. The lectures (or language classes) will cover grammatical aspects of the Spanish language and the development of written skills, as well as the development of oral linguistic skills and listening comprehension skills. The lectures will require students' active participation in group exercises or activities.

Communication of additional information

The Spanish noticeboard is in the corridor outside the Spanish Seminar Room (VZ 515). Additional information or information on changes will be conveyed to students either via class, noticeboards, Blackboard, or email.

Course content

SPAN 112 is a course for continuing students, which aims at developing further the four skills of oral comprehension, reading comprehension, speaking and writing. It extends the study of elementary grammar to include the forms and simple uses of the present subjunctive.

Learning objectives

Upon completing the course successfully you will be able to:

- (i) understand and reproduce in both written and spoken Spanish a wide variety of grammatical structures using a basic vocabulary;
- (ii) communicate simply but effectively in a range of situations connected with daily life;
- (iii) express yourself, orally and in writing, on your activities and interests;

- (iv) read simple written Spanish with relative ease;
- (v) write simple Spanish;
- (vi) read aloud simple passages with fluency and accurate pronunciation;
- (vii) understand simple Spanish spoken at a reasonable speed;
- (viii) demonstrate some knowledge of aspects of Hispanic culture.

Spanish is, as far as possible, the language used in all contact hours for most activities.

Expected workload

The Humanities and Social Sciences Faculty Committee on Workloads and Assessment has laid down guidelines as to the number of hours per week which students are expected to devote to a course in order to maintain satisfactory progress. Students enrolling in a 100-level 1-trimester 20-point course should work on average 13 hours per week including contact hours - i.e., in the case of SPAN 112, students should allow for 9 hours of private study outside class time.

Readings

Essential texts: Bill Van Patten, James F. Lee and Terry L. Ballman, ¿Sabías que . . .?: Beginning Spanish, 5th edition (McGraw Hill, 2008). The textbook is accompanied by two workbooks/laboratory manuals.

For the first two weeks of trimester all undergraduate textbooks and student notes will be sold from the Memorial Theatre foyer, while postgraduate textbooks and student notes will be available from the top floor of VicBooks in the Student Union Building, Kelburn Campus. After week two all undergraduate textbooks will be sold from VicBooks and student notes from the Student Notes Distribution Centre on the ground floor of the Student Union Building.

Customers can order textbooks and student notes online at www.vicbooks.co.nz or can email an order or enquiry to enquiries@vicbooks.co.nz. Books can be couriered to customers or they can be picked up from the shop. Customers will be contacted when they are available.

Opening hours are 8.00 am – 6.00 pm, Monday – Friday during term time (closing at 5.00 pm in the holidays). Phone: 463 5515.

Assessment requirements

Assessment for SPAN 112 is as follows:

Written Test	20%
Written Assignment	10%
Audiovisual Test 1	7.5%
Audiovisual Test 2	7.5%
Oral Test	10%
3-hour final written examination	45%

The relevant dates for the pieces of assessed work are detailed in the Course Programme. Corrected work will be handed out in classes. If not collected in class, students will be able to collect it from the SLC Reception area on the 6th floor of Von Zedlitz. Uncollected work will be destroyed 3 months after the date of the final written exam.

The test, written assignments and final examination measure students' competency in objectives (iv) to (vi) inclusive, as specified in section on Learning Objectives. The listening comprehension tests relate to objectives (i) and (ii), and the oral assessment and reading test relate to objective (iii).

Penalties

The due dates for the assignments given in the Course Programme must be adhered to. Although work may be accepted late in special circumstances, the Course Co-ordinator should always be contacted on or before the due dates if there is a problem. The penalty for work presented late without prior approval is a 5% deduction per day. Please note that no work for assessment will be accepted after 22 October.

Mandatory course requirements

In order to pass SPAN 112, students are required to do the following, unless specific exemptions have been agreed to:

- (i) sit the written test on the date indicated;
- (ii) complete the written assignment by the due date;
- (iii) attend the oral test at the appointed time;
- (iv) sit the 3-hour final written examination.

Class Representative

A class representative will be elected in the first class, and that person's name and contact details will be available to VUWSA, the Course Coordinator and the class. The class representative provides a communication channel to liaise with the Course Coordinator on behalf of students.

Presentation of assignments

Tidy presentation of assignments is essential. Work may be typed or neatly handwritten. Crossings-out indicate that a piece of work is still at draft stage. Allow space for corrections: leave a 4-centimetre margin and write on alternate lines (or double space if typing). Do not write in pencil. All assignments must include a cover sheet available from SLC Reception. Assignments are to be handed in to the Spanish Programme assignment slot located to the left of the SLC Reception area on the 6th floor of von Zedlitz. Please note that up to a maximum of 5% may be deducted for poorly presented assignments.

Spanish Club, student facilities

All students of Spanish are encouraged to join the students' Spanish Club and to participate in the social and cultural events organised. A noticeboard for the Spanish Students' Club is in the Spanish library (VZ606). Spanish newspapers and magazines are available in the Spanish library and may be taken away, but should be signed for in the book, which is in the library. Please note that this room will also be used for Honours classes so please check timetable on door.

Language Learning Centre (LLC)

The Language Learning Centre (LLC) is Victoria's technology-rich, multimedia centre supporting independent language learning and teaching.

At the Language Learning Centre you can:

- study at a time that suits you
- select the materials or activities that you find interesting
- meet your needs: match your level and learning style

Access a variety of multimedia language resources at the LLC: everything from print, audio materials, foreign language TV and DVDs to comprehensive computer software. The LLC provides access to your digital course material on a server. Drop by the Centre to find out more about our services (Level 0 von Zedlitz Building).

Academic integrity and plagiarism

Academic integrity means that university staff and students, in their teaching and learning are expected to treat others honestly, fairly and with respect at all times. It is not acceptable to mistreat academic, intellectual or creative work that has been done by other people by representing it as your own original work.

Academic integrity is important because it is the core value on which the University's learning, teaching and research activities are based. Victoria University's reputation for academic integrity adds value to your qualification.

The University defines plagiarism as presenting someone else's work as if it were your own, whether you mean to or not. 'Someone else's work' means anything that is not your own idea. Even if it is presented in your own style, you must acknowledge your sources fully and appropriately. This includes:

- Material from books, journals or any other printed source
- The work of other students or staff
- Information from the internet
- Software programs and other electronic material
- Designs and ideas
- The organisation or structuring of any such material

Find out more about plagiarism, how to avoid it and penalties, on the University's website:
<http://www.victoria.ac.nz/home/study/plagiarism.aspx>

General university policies and statutes

Students should familiarise themselves with the University's policies and statutes, particularly the Assessment Statute, the Personal Courses of Study Statute, the Statute on Student Conduct and any statutes relating to the particular qualifications being studied; see the Victoria University Calendar or go to the Academic Policy and Student Policy sections on:

<http://www.victoria.ac.nz/home/about/policy>

The AVC (Academic) website also provides information for students in a number of areas including Academic Grievances, Student and Staff conduct, Meeting the needs of students with impairments, and student support/VUWSA student advocates. This website can be accessed at:
