Assessment requirements

PHIL/POLS/INTP 264 is assessed on the basis of three surprise in-class tests, one essay, and a take-home final test:

- (a) Surprise in-class tests: There are three surprise in-class tests, only two of which will count (10% each) toward your final grade. Each test comprises three short answer questions and will last 15 minutes. The tests are meant to provide an incentive to complete the readings. They will test only your comprehension of – not your ability to evaluate – the readings for the week in which the text falls. Any reading for that week may (but not necessarily will) be tested. What this means is that you should complete all of the readings for each week before the start of the first class on Monday. The schedule of readings, including readings from the textbook and any additional required readings, is posted on Blackboard.

- (b) Essay: The essay is worth 30% of your overall final grade, and is due at 5:00pm on Monday, 9 May. The essay is designed to test your ability to critically analyse one of the key issues discussed in class. The essay should be approximately 2,500 words. It must be submitted electronically to Blackboard; a hard copy is not required. The essay topics are available on the assignments page of Blackboard. Please note that essay extensions will be granted only for doctor-verified medical reasons or other emergencies.
- (c) Take-home final test: The take-home final test comprises two questions drawn from material covered in the last four weeks of the course. Each question should be answered with a short essay of approximately 1500 words. The test will be posted on Blackboard immediately following the last class on Friday, 3 June. It must be submitted electronically to Blackboard no later than 11:59pm, Sunday, 5 June. Please note that no late tests will be accepted. If for any reason you are unable to submit your test onto Blackboard, then you must email your test to me as an attachment, in Word format (no zipped or compressed files, please) by the due date: ramon.das@vuw.ac.nz.

Penalties

Late essays will be penalized at the rate of 2 marks per day, including weekends.

Mandatory course requirements

There are no mandatory requirements for passing this course.

Class Representative

A class representative will be elected on the first day of class. The class representative provides a communication channel to liaise with the Course Coordinator. The representative's contact details will be made available to VUWSA, the Course Coordinator, and the class.

Statement on legibility (applies only to the in-class tests; other work must be typed)

Students are expected to write clearly. Where work is deemed 'illegible', the options are:

- the student will be given a photocopy of the work and asked to transcribe it to an acceptable standard (preferably typed) within a specified time frame after which penalties will apply;
- the student will be given a photocopy of the work and asked to transcribe it to an acceptable standard (preferably typed) and lateness penalties apply;
- if the student does not transcribe it to an acceptable standard, the work will be accepted as 'received' (so any associated mandatory course requirements are met) but not marked.

Academic Integrity and Plagiarism

Academic integrity means that university staff and students, in their teaching and learning are expected to treat others honestly, fairly and with respect at all times. It is not acceptable to mistreat academic, intellectual or creative work that has been done by other people by representing it as your own original work.

Academic integrity is important because it is the core value on which the University's learning, teaching and research activities are based. Victoria University's reputation for academic integrity adds value to your qualification.

The University defines plagiarism as presenting someone else's work as if it were your own, whether you mean to or not. 'Someone else's work' means anything that is not your own idea. Even if it is presented in your own style, you must acknowledge your sources fully and appropriately. This includes:

- Material from books, journals or any other printed source
- The work of other students or staff
- Information from the internet
- Software programs and other electronic material
- Designs and ideas
- The organisation or structuring of any such material

Find out more about plagiarism, how to avoid it and penalties, on the University's website: <http://www.victoria.ac.nz/home/study/plagiarism.aspx>

Use of Turnitin

Student work provided for assessment in this course may be checked for academic integrity by the electronic search engine <http://www.turnitin.com>. Turnitin is an online plagiarism prevention tool which compares submitted work with a very large database of existing material. At the discretion of the Head of School, any handwritten work may be copy-typed by the School and subject to checking by Turnitin. Turnitin will retain a copy of submitted material on behalf of the University for detection of future plagiarism, but access to the full text of submissions is not made available to any other party.
