The tutorials will focus on the development of oral linguistic skills and the audiovisual classes will aim to develop listening comprehension skills. Both the tutorials and the audiovisual classes will require students' active participation in group exercises or activities.

Communication of additional information

The Italian noticeboard is in the corridor outside the rooms VZ503 and VZ504. Additional information or information on changes will be conveyed to students either via class, noticeboards, Blackboard, or email.

Course content

ITAL114 is a course for beginners which provides an introduction to the Italian language through practice in listening, speaking, reading and writing. Reading and audio-visual materials illustrate the Italian way of life.

Learning objectives

ITAL114 is a first trimester 20-point beginner course for students in the Italian language. The course provides an introduction to the Italian language through practice in listening, speaking, reading and writing.

Objectives - upon completing the course successfully students will be able to:

- I. understand and reproduce in both written and spoken Italian a variety of elementary grammatical structures using a basic vocabulary;
- II. express themselves in Italian, both orally and in writing, on their activities and interests, as well as on a range of situations connected with daily life;
- III. read basic Italian with relative ease;
- IV. write simple Italian from dictation;
- V. read aloud simple passages with correct pronunciation, fluency and reasonable speed.

Expected workload

The Humanities and Social Sciences Faculty Committee on Workloads and Assessment has laid down guidelines as to the number of hours per week which students are expected to devote to a course in order to maintain satisfactory progress. Students enrolling in a 100-level, one trimester, 20-point course should work on average 13 hours per week, including the 5 contact hours – i.e., in the case of ITAL114, 8 hours of private study outside class time.

Readings

Essential texts: C. Larese Riga and C.M. Dal Martello, Ciao!, 7th edition (Thomson Heinle, 2011). Students are required to purchase both the textbook and the student activities manual.

All undergraduate textbooks and student notes will be sold from the Memorial Theatre foyer from 7 February to 11 March 2011, while postgraduate textbooks and student notes will be available from the top floor of VicBooks in the Student Union Building, Kelburn Campus. After week two of the trimester all undergraduate textbooks and student notes will be sold from VicBooks on Level 3 of the Student Union Building.

- (a) 2 tests (20% each);
- (b) 2 assignments (10% each);
- (c) 2 listening comprehension (AV) tests (10% each);
- (d) 1 individual oral test (10%);
- (e) Communicative/oral assessment : based on weekly tutorial tasks (5%) and preparation (online quizzes, 5%).

The relevant dates for assessed work are detailed in the Course Programme.

The written tests and the assignments relate to objectives (i), (ii) and (iii) as specified in Aims and Objectives. The listening comprehension tests relate to objectives (i), (ii) and (iv). The individual oral test and the oral assessment relate to objectives (i), (ii), (iii) and (v).

Penalties

The due dates for the assignments given in the Course Programme must be adhered to. Although work may be accepted late in special circumstances, the Course Coordinator should always be contacted on or before the due dates if there is a problem.

The penalty for work presented late without prior approval is a 5% deduction per day. In addition, please note that up to a maximum of 5% may be deducted for poorly presented assignments (see Section 8). Please note that no work for assessment will be accepted after 3 June.

Mandatory course requirements

In order to pass ITAL114, students are required to do the following, unless specific exemptions have been agreed to:

- I. attend a minimum of 80% of the audio-visual classes (AV);
- II. prepare for (including completion of on-line quizzes) and attend a minimum of 80% of the oral classes (tutorials);
- III. submit the 2 written assignments by the date indicated;
- IV. sit the two written tests on the dates indicated;
- V. sit the individual oral test at the appointed time;
- VI. sit the two listening comprehension (AV) tests at the appointed times.

Class Representative

A class representative will be elected in the first class, and that person's name and contact details will be available to VUWSA, the Course Coordinator and the class. The class representative provides a communication channel to liaise with the Course Coordinator on behalf of students.

Presentation of assignments

Tidy presentation of assignments is essential. Work may be typed or neatly handwritten. Crossings-out indicate that a piece of work is still at draft stage. Allow space for correction: leave a 4-centimetre margin and write on alternate lines. Do not write in pencil.

All assignments must include a cover sheet available from the SLC Reception on the sixth floor of Von Zedlitz (VZ610). Assignments are to be handed into the Italian assignment slot located to the left of the SLC Reception area (VZ610). Corrected work will be handed out in class. If you do not collect your work in class, you will be able to collect it from the SLC Reception (VZ610). All work not collected will be destroyed three months after the date of the final written test.

Tests and impairments

The dates of the tests given in the Course Programme must be adhered to. You should always sit a test if humanly possible, obtaining a medical certificate if you wish to claim impairment. If you sit a test but believe your performance has been radically affected by some medical or other factor, inform the Course Coordinator immediately. If you fail the test, you may be able to claim impairment.

If you are unable to sit a test, for severe medical, personal or family reasons, you should do everything possible to notify the Course Co-ordinator, if necessary through the Administrator, before the test, or to get a friend or family member to do so on your behalf.

Only in cases of severe illness or other exceptionally difficult circumstances, which must normally be documented, can the Programme consider allowing students to sit a test at a different time from that indicated.

Italian Club, student facilities

All students of Italian are encouraged to join the students' Italian Club and to participate in the cultural and social events organised. The seminar room for tutorials and small classes is usually Von Zedlitz (VZ) 509, unless otherwise stated.

Academic integrity and plagiarism

Academic integrity means that university staff and students, in their teaching and learning are expected to treat others honestly, fairly and with respect at all times. It is not acceptable to mistreat academic, intellectual or creative work that has been done by other people by representing it as your own original work.

Academic integrity is important because it is the core value on which the University's learning, teaching and research activities are based. Victoria University's reputation for academic integrity adds value to your qualification.

The University defines plagiarism as presenting someone else's work as if it were your own, whether you mean to or not. 'Someone else's work' means anything that is not your own idea. Even if it is presented in your own style, you must acknowledge your sources fully and appropriately.

This includes:

- Material from books, journals or any other printed source
- The work of other students or staff
- Information from the internet
- Software programs and other electronic material
- Designs and ideas
- The organisation or structuring of any such material
