PAPER PRESCRIPTION

Extension of ensemble skills and presentation of ensemble music including chamber music, contemporary ensemble, or Baroque workshop in an area that supplements or complements the main area of study.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students who have successfully completed this paper will:

1. Develop collaborative techniques of the highest professional level through the study, rehearsal and performance of chamber music.
2. Develop a professional work ethic including individual and group skills such as goal setting, taking responsibility for rehearsals and monitoring progress.

EXPECTED WORKLOAD

A 15-point first-trimester paper should require at least 150 hours work (including class time). This means that in term time, the midterm break and study week you should be prepared to spend on average 10 hours per week involved in activities such as attending classes and rehearsals, reading, listening to recommended recordings and preparing music.

COURSE CONTENT & DELIVERY

Students wishing to propose a pre-formed chamber group must submit a Chamber Music Request Form, with details of all students and repertoire, to Dr. Jane Curry by Friday 4 March.

It is expected that all members of the group will be enrolled in NZSM 413/415: exceptions allowed only by permission of the Course Co-ordinator.

Groups will be posted on Blackboard and relevant noticeboards by the end of week 2 (Trimester 1).

Students are expected to meet and organise a regular rehearsal time as soon as groups are posted, and to begin rehearsals no later than week 3.

One member of each group will be nominated by the Course Co-ordinator to be the student contact person, with responsibility for making sure the scores are obtained, parts distributed, and for liaising with staff.

A staff member will be assigned to oversee each group, and will be the contact person for any issues that arise. Additional tutors may also be assigned to each group by the Course Co-ordinator.

There are total of eight hours of tutorials (coaching sessions) available per ensemble.

Regular tutorials commence by week 4 of trimester 1. Before tutorials commence students are expected to have thoroughly learned their parts, and to have had at least two rehearsals.

Student responsibilities:

Students are responsible for:

- Submitting any specific requests for groupings and repertoire by Fri 4 March
- Obtaining scores
- Setting up regular weekly rehearsal times
- Booking rooms for rehearsals and coaching sessions
- Contacting allocated tutors to arrange coaching sessions
- Learning own parts thoroughly prior to rehearsals
- Contributing to group rehearsals
- Keeping set rehearsal times punctually
- Contacting the designated staff member or course co-ordinator if any problems arise
- Providing written programme notes for assessment

READINGS, MATERIALS & EQUIPMENT

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY AND PLAGIARISM

Academic integrity means that university staff and students, in their teaching and learning, are expected to treat others honestly, fairly and with respect at all times. It is not acceptable to mistreat academic, intellectual or creative work that has been done by other people by representing it as your own original work.

Academic integrity is important because it is the core value on which the University's learning, teaching and research activities are based. The NZSM's reputation for academic integrity adds value to your qualification.

The NZSM defines plagiarism as presenting someone else's work as if it were your own, whether you mean to or not. 'Someone else's work' means anything that is not your own idea. Even if it is presented in your own style, you must acknowledge your sources fully and appropriately. This includes:

- Material from books, journals or any other printed source
- The work of other students or staff
- Information from the internet
- Software programs and other electronic material
- Designs and ideas
- The organisation or structuring of any such material

Find out more about plagiarism, how to avoid it and penalties, on the NZSM website:
<http://www.nzsm.ac.nz/about/statutes-policies.aspx#plagiarism>

GENERAL NZSM POLICIES AND STATUTES

Students should familiarise themselves with the NZSM's policies and statutes, especially those regarding Personal Courses of Study, Academic Grievances, Staff and Student Conduct. Please see <http://www.nzsm.ac.nz/about/statutes-policies.aspx>

For any statutes relating to the particular qualifications being studied, see either the Massey University Calendar or the Victoria University Calendar.

Information about Student Services, including Academic Mentoring for Maori and Pacific Students, and support for Students with Disabilities, is to be found in the NZSM Student Handbook (available from the NZSM offices on each campus).

EVENTS

Regular events are held during trimesters 1 & 2 at all NZSM campuses. These events are for the benefit of all students, and include performances, masterclasses, special lectures and workshops given by staff, students and visiting artists.

All students are expected to read the NZSM website for the latest events listings and keep time free to attend the weekly lunchtime concert on Friday at 12.10pm, along with other events as required.
