Please note that audiovisual and oral classes start in the second week of the trimester.

Students must choose oral and audiovisual class groups by signing up using the S-cubed system. https://signups.victoria.ac.nz. You remain in your allotted group for the whole course, unless a change is authorised by the Course Coordinator.

Please also note that cellular phones and pagers should be switched off for the duration of all classes and tutorials.

Course delivery

Grammatical structures and cultural aspects of the language will be introduced in the lectures and students will practice the four skills of reading, writing, speaking, and listening. In the tutorials, further practice will be given for reading and writing Japanese, and students' oral skills will also be a main focus.

Communication of additional information

Any additional information relating to this course may be found on Blackboard and the Japanese notice board situated on the 7th floor of the von Zedlitz Building. You are advised to check Blackboard and the notice board regularly.

Course Prescription

This course increases basic proficiency in oral and written Japanese. 150 Kanji are covered. 100% internal assessment.

Learning objectives

This course is a continuation of the work done in JAPA 111 and is designed to increase basic proficiency in oral and written Japanese, including hiragana, katakana and kanji. 144 new kanji will be introduced. By using the core text, Genki I: An Integrated Course in Elementary Japanese (Lessons 7-12), it is hoped that students will gain the ability to communicate effectively in a variety of practical situations and at the same time develop a keen awareness of the function of the language culturally and sociologically.

On completion of this course students should have acquired an elementary competence in Japanese (in listening, speaking, reading and writing), and a basic understanding of Japanese culture. Students will be able to sit for Level 5 of the Japanese Language Proficiency Test after completion of JAPA112.

Expected workload

- a) Students are required to attend 5 hours of tuition per week. A minimum of 80% of all classes including tutorials must be attended.
- b) Only the class/tutorial a student is enrolled in may be attended. If a student finds he/she can no longer attend a class/tutorial time due to a change in personal circumstances, he/she must consult with the Course Coordinator and submit a Change of Course form when appropriate.
- c) All assignments must be submitted and all tests sat.
- d) The University guideline for average number of study hours per week including class contact hours for a 100 level half year 20 point course is 13 hours per week (five hours in class and eight hours work in your own time).
- e) Students are expected to organize themselves to practice Japanese conversation with their classmates or Japanese native speakers for at least one hour per week. This additional effort outside of class time is crucial for students to become fluent in speaking Japanese.
- f) Students are expected to listen to and watch tapes and videos recommended by the Course Coordinator at the Language Learning Centre for at least one hour per week.
- g) If a student's progress is not satisfactory despite spending a large amount of time on study, the Course Coordinator should be consulted. Students should feel free to consult the Course Coordinator at any time with any queries.

Assessment requirements

This course is internally assessed. Assessment covers all four skills of reading, writing, listening and speaking. Tests are given throughout the course to enable the Course Coordinator and students to monitor progress in language acquisition.

1. 18 Vocabulary Quizzes

Vocabulary quizzes are held regularly to help students prepare in advance for classes and assist in the retention of new vocabulary items. Each quiz is worth 1%. 18 x 1% = 18%

The test and quiz dates are written on the attached course schedule. Vocabulary quizzes, listening tests and written tests will be conducted during lecture time, while kanji tests will be held during tutorial times. Individual times for the oral tests will be advised later.

Penalties

If a quiz or test is unable to be sat due to extraordinary circumstances such as a family bereavement (supported by a letter explaining the circumstances) or health problems (supported by a medical certificate), the Course Coordinator must be contacted prior to the time of assessment.

If prior notification of absence is not received, the piece of assessment missed will receive a nil mark. No make-up tests will be offered.

Mandatory course requirements

- a) Students are required to attend 80% of all classes including tutorials.
- b) Students may only attend the class/tutorial they are enrolled in. If you find you can no longer attend a class/tutorial time due to a change in personal circumstances, you must consult with the course coordinator and submit a Change of Course form when appropriate.
- c) All assignments must be submitted and all tests sat.

Class representative

In the second week of lectures, staff will facilitate the election of a class representative. Student representatives are a valuable means of communication between teaching staff and students. In addition students can approach any member of staff individually to talk about the course as a whole, any particular aspect of it, or their own individual progress. Class representatives will attend a meeting with the Head of School to discuss how your courses are going and to raise any concerns or suggestions that you may have.

Academic integrity and plagiarism

Academic integrity means that university staff and students, in their teaching and learning are expected to treat others honestly, fairly and with respect at all times. It is not acceptable to mistreat academic, intellectual or creative work that has been done by other people by representing it as your own original work.

Academic integrity is important because it is the core value on which the University's learning, teaching and research activities are based. Victoria University's reputation for academic integrity adds value to your qualification.

The University defines plagiarism as presenting someone else's work as if it were your own, whether you mean to or not. 'Someone else's work' means anything that is not your own idea. Even if it is presented in your own style, you must acknowledge your sources fully and appropriately. This includes:

- Material from books, journals or any other printed source
- The work of other students or staff
- Information from the internet
- Software programs and other electronic material
- Designs and ideas
- The organisation or structuring of any such material
