PAPER PRESCRIPTION

Advanced study of selected music of the 19th century, considered from a range of historical, analytical, and critical perspectives.

2012 Offering: Berlioz and the Worlds of 19th Century Music

Drawing on recent scholarship, as well as an examination of Berlioz's music and writings this course will consider topics including genre, function, authorship, criticism, exoticism, performance, gender and reception. We will look at the physical and metaphysical worlds both of the orchestra and the operatic stage, and the intersections between the two. In the process, we will see how Berlioz's music both contributed to and challenged the development of the ideal of universal, transcendent art music, and how the critical reception of his music reflects changing attitudes towards these ideals to this day.

TEACHING LEARNING SUMMARY

This course comprises two 1.5-hour lectures per week.

See attached course syllabus for more information.

EXPECTED WORKLOAD

A 20-point second-trimester paper should require at least 200 hours work (including class time). This means that in term time, the midterm break and study week you should be prepared to spend on average 13 hours per week involved in activities such as attending classes, reading, listening to recommended recordings and preparing assignments.

READINGS, MATERIALS & EQUIPMENT

Set texts:

Students must purchase a copy of the score of Berlioz's Symphonie fantastique (Dover edition) from Vic books.

Other set readings and scores will be available through Blackboard and/or as E-Reserves through the Victoria University Library.

Recommended reading:

Students may find it very helpful to purchase a copy of Berlioz's Evenings with the Orchestra (trans. Barzun), from which several readings will be taken. A few copies are available through Vic books, or you can use the library copy.

All undergraduate textbooks and student notes will be sold from the Memorial Theatre foyer from 4 to 22 July, while postgraduate textbooks and student notes will be available from the top floor of VicBooks in the Student Union Building, Kelburn Campus. After week two, all undergraduate textbooks and student notes will be sold from VicBooks, on Level 4 of the Student Union Building. Customers can order textbooks and student notes online at www.vicbooks.co.nz or email an order or enquiry to enquiries@vicbooks.co.nz. Books can be couriered to customers, or they can be picked up from nominated collection points at each campus. Customers will be contacted when they are available. Opening hours are 8:00am–6:00pm, Monday–Friday during term time (closing at 5:00pm in the holidays). Phone: 463 5515.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Students who have successfully completed this paper will be able to:

1. select and apply appropriate analytical, historical, and /or critical frameworks to music of the nineteenth century
2. explain how nineteenth-century music relates to broader cultural contexts
3. research and write persuasively on a topic in music of the nineteenth century.

ASSESSMENT REQUIREMENTS

Approved assessment regime

The following assessment regime for this paper has been approved by the NZSM Academic Committee:

There are four items of assessment:

1. Class work (primarily in the form of weekly online journal entries of up to 700 words each). Related to learning outcomes 1, 2. (35%).
2. Class test. Related to learning outcomes 1, 2. (20%).
3. Preparatory work for the essay, up to 2,000 words. Related to learning outcomes 1, 2 & 3. (15%).
4. Essay of not more than 3,500 words. Related to learning outcomes 1, 2 & 3. (30%).

PENALTIES

Assignments must be submitted by the due dates. In fairness to other students, unless a medical certificate is produced, assessment submitted after 5pm on the due date will be subject to a 5% demerit on your grade, increasing by 5% each further working day it is overdue.

Students, who for exceptional reasons can justify an extension for an item of assessment, must apply to the Course Coordinator before the due date. Please note that no extensions can be granted for tutorial assignments.

ASSIGNMENT PRESENTATION

Written work should be presented according to the guidelines set out in the NZSM Guidelines for Academic Work, which can be downloaded as a PDF document from the NZSM Website <http://www.nzsm.ac.nz/study/programmes.aspx> (in the right-hand column). Five percent (5%) will be deducted for written work that does not conform to these standards.

MANDATORY PAPER REQUIREMENTS

Each student must:

- a) complete each item of assessment worth at least 10% specified for this course (subject to penalties for late submission of work)
- b) attend at least 80% of lectures and 80% of tutorials (if relevant) related to this course
- c) attend at least one Music Forum seminar presentation in the term the course is taught.

If for health reasons you are unable to complete all the work required for assessment purposes for this paper by 17 November, you may, on presentation of a medical certificate, have the date for submission extended by the Director, NZSM.

DEPOSIT AND COLLECTION OF ASSESSMENT

Assignments should be e-mailed to Inge at inge.vanrij@nzsm.ac.nz or (in the case of journal entries only) submitted through Blackboard. Please e-mail documents as Word files, NOT as PDF files, and begin the file name with your name (first name, surname), followed by a description of the assignment: eg John Smith Essay Prep.

Marked assignments will be returned to you via e-mail.

SCALING OF GRADES

To obtain a fair distribution of marks relative to assignment difficulty, scaling may be employed on some or all assessment items in accordance with guidelines set out in the VUW Assessment Handbook:

http://www.victoria.ac.nz/home/about_victoria/avcadademic/publications/assessment-handbook.pdf

ACADEMIC PROGRESS, NON-ENGAGEMENT & STUDENT LOAN ELIGIBILITY

All NZSM students are bound by the VUW Academic Progress Statute. VUW manages the enrolment of students who are not making satisfactory academic progress by:

- restricting the number of courses that students may enrol in, and/or
- requiring students to meet certain conditions.

Students whose academic progress continues to be unsatisfactory may be suspended for a specified period. Students who return after suspension and whose academic progress remains unsatisfactory may be excluded from the University.

Any student who is enrolled in more than two courses in a trimester and achieves E grades in all courses will be considered "non-engaged". The University can suspend or exclude such students. For full details about restrictions and conditions refer to:

<http://www.victoria.ac.nz/home/study/academic-progress.aspx>

Also, please note that students will be required to pass at least half of their courses in order to continue to qualify for a student loan. For more information see:

<http://www.victoria.ac.nz/home/admisenrol/payments/performance-criteria.aspx>

COMMUNICATION OF ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Official notices issued after the paper has commenced will be posted on the board outside the NZSM office on the Kelburn campus. Notices concerning a number of papers will also be posted on Blackboard. The Course Coordinator will specify if Blackboard will be used.

STUDENT REPRESENTATIVES

Student representatives for the NZSM are elected in the first week of the trimester, and their names and contact details will be available to VUWSA and/or MAWSA, the Course Coordinator and to each class.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY AND PLAGIARISM

Academic integrity means that university staff and students, in their teaching and learning, are expected to treat others honestly, fairly and with respect at all times. It is not acceptable to mistreat academic, intellectual or creative work that has been done by other people by representing it as your own original work.

Academic integrity is important because it is the core value on which the school's learning, teaching and research activities are based. The NZSM's reputation for academic integrity adds value to your qualification.

The NZSM defines plagiarism as presenting someone else's work as if it were your own, whether you mean to or not. 'Someone else's work' means anything that is not your own idea. Even if it is presented in your own style, you must acknowledge your sources fully and appropriately. This includes:

- Material from books, journals or any other printed source
- The work of other students or staff
- Information from the internet
- Software programs and other electronic material
- Designs and ideas
- The organisation or structuring of any such material

Find out more about plagiarism, how to avoid it and penalties, on the NZSM website: <http://www.nzsm.ac.nz/about/statutes-policies.aspx#plagiarism>

GENERAL NZSM POLICIES AND STATUTES

Students should familiarise themselves with the NZSM's policies and statutes, especially those regarding Personal Courses of Study, Academic Grievances, Staff and Student Conduct. Please see <http://www.nzsm.ac.nz/about/statutes-policies.aspx>

For any statutes relating to the particular qualifications being studied, see either the Massey University Calendar or the Victoria University Calendar.

Information about Student Services, including Academic Mentoring for Māori and Pasifika Students, and support for Students with Disabilities, is to be found in the NZSM Student Handbook (available from the NZSM offices on each campus).

HUMAN ETHICS GUIDELINES

Any student assessment or project at any level that involves human subjects (including the documenting, interviewing and recording of information from people) must follow ethics guidelines. For courses in Music Therapy, students must follow Massey University Ethics guidelines. For all other courses, students must follow VUW Ethics Guidelines. For information and assistance as it relates to your course, consult first with your Course Coordinator. Guidelines are given at these URLs:

- <http://www.victoria.ac.nz/fgr/current-phd/ethics.aspx>
- <http://www.massey.ac.nz/massey/research/research-ethics/human-ethics/>

WHERE TO FIND MORE DETAILED INFORMATION

EVENTS

Regular events are held during trimesters 1 & 2 at all NZSM campuses. These events are for the benefit of all students, and include performances, masterclasses, special lectures and workshops given by staff, students and visiting artists.

All students are expected to keep time free to attend the weekly lunchtime concert on Friday at 12.10pm, along with other events as required.

Students should sign up to the Dawn Chorus, the NZSM's events e-newsletter, by emailing events@nzsm.ac.nz with "subscribe dawn chorus" in the subject line.

Music Forum will take place every Friday from 1:30pm-3:00pm. It will normally take place in Room 209, Kelburn Campus, but will take place on selected Fridays at Mt Cook, location to be announced.
