COMMUNICATION OF ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

COURSE PRESCRIPTION

This course will examine gender relations from a sociological perspective. It will draw on a variety of approaches and perspectives to examine key concepts, issues and themes in contemporary gender studies. Readings, lectures and tutorials will focus on a new topic each week. Topics will include: knowledge, experience, identity, sex, gender, embodiment, reproduction, intimacy, consumption, mothering, home and work.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

On completing this course students will be able to:

- Explain conceptual debates in gender analysis
- Comment critically on a range of topics in relation to contemporary feminist theory and practice
- Apply the theoretical ideas to practical and real-life issues in gender analysis
- Analyse socio-cultural and political debate and policy practice regarding gender in New Zealand

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN LEARNING OBJECTIVES AND ASSESSMENT

Both the in-class test and the essays will assess the learning objectives listed above. You will be expected to draw on course readings and your own independent research to demonstrate your understanding of the central concepts used for the gendered analysis of contemporary research. You will be expected to demonstrate your ability to apply this knowledge to an examination of your chosen topic area for the essay assignment. The purpose of this form of assessment is:

- to encourage deep learning of course materials and enhance skills in critical reading and analysis
- to encourage you to think and write critically, comparatively, and reflexively
- to encourage you to read widely and to use books and articles in developing your research skills as a sociologist
- to encourage you to engage with the key issues encountered

The in-class test is designed to assess how well you have understood and engaged with the lectures, tutorials and the course readings.

EXPECTED WORKLOAD

The design of the course is based upon an assumption that students will need to spend on course work a minimum of 13 hours each week, including class contact hours. This workload is in accordance with the guidelines put forward by the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences for 20-point courses.

COURSE WITHDRAWAL

HANDING IN ASSIGNMENTS

It is the policy of the School of Social and Cultural Studies that all written assignments must be handed in by 4.00pm on the due date. You must submit a hard copy and an electronic copy of your essays. Hard copies must be placed in the assignment box located to the side of the lifts on level 9, Murphy

Building. Assignments MUST NOT be placed in individual staff pigeonholes, or under staff office doors, or handed to lecturers or tutors. This is to ensure that all work is properly recorded when submitted, and to avoid problems that have arisen in the past when work has “gone missing”. At 4.00pm the assignment box is emptied, the work date-stamped and its receipt recorded, and then handed to the appropriate markers.

Assignment presentation requirements

Please ensure assignments are double spaced and have a margin that is wide enough to accommodate marking notes.

You MUST underline your thesis statement which should appear in the first paragraph of the essay.

School Cover Sheet

Please include a School Cover sheet when submitting your assignments. You may wish to have your own front sheet, but please ensure you place the School’s cover sheet on the top as this ensures critical identifying information is provided. A sample School Cover sheet is at the end of this Outline. Further copies may be found at the School Administration office, and on the Assignment Box, on level 9 of Murphy building.

Students MUST keep a photocopy of every written assignment

Unless students have followed this procedure, the School will not accept responsibility for pieces of written work claimed to have been handed in.

MANDATORY COURSE REQUIREMENTS

To meet mandatory course requirements students must:

- Submit the Research essay
- Take part in the Tutorial programme
- Submit the Experiential essay
- Sit the in-class Test

GRADES

The Social Policy Programme follows University policy in giving letter grades for all internally assessed work instead of giving numerical marks. The following table sets out the range of marks within which each letter grade is assigned. Your final grade and marks for the course will be an aggregate of the grades you achieve during the course.

Pass	A+	85% or over	Evidence of familiarity with relevant reading and sound understanding of concepts, plus individual interpretation and insights of a higher order. An A
	A	80%-84%

A-	75%-79%	grade will not be achieved without such insight. Work well presented with logical structure and clarity of expression.
B+	70-74%	As above, but less individual insight and preparation.
B	65%-69%	High level of understanding exhibited. Assignment well presented.
B-	60%-64%
C+	55%-59%	Work lacks originality, individual insights and not strong on understanding. However, material used is relevant and presentation is satisfactory.
C	50%-54%
Fail	D	40%-49%	Little evidence of reading or comprehension. No insight. Poor presentation.
	E	Below 40%	A clear failure to reach an adequate standard on the criteria set out

LATE PENALTIES

Late submissions for student assignments in all Sociology and Social Policy undergraduate courses are subject to a penalty. The exact deduction will be calculated on the basis of one half mark per day late for each 10 marks, i.e. 1 mark will be deducted each day for an assignment worth 20% of the total course mark.

EXTENSIONS

If you are given an extension, a new submission date will be identified and you will have to submit the work in the same manner as above by 4.00 p.m. on that day. Failure to do so will result in penalties being applied in the same manner as those for the original submission date. If you need an extension ask Dr Rhonda Shaw before the due date.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY AND PLAGIARISM

Academic integrity means that university staff and students, in their teaching and learning are expected to treat others honestly, fairly and with respect at all times. It is not acceptable to mistreat academic, intellectual or creative work that has been done by other people by representing it as your own original work.

Academic integrity is important because it is the core value on which the University's learning, teaching and research activities are based. Victoria University's reputation for academic integrity adds value to your qualification.

The University defines plagiarism as presenting someone else's work as if it were your own, whether you mean to or not. 'Someone else's work' means anything that is not your own idea. Even if it is presented in your own style, you must acknowledge your sources fully and appropriately. This includes:

- Material from books, journals or any other printed source
- The work of other students or staff
- Information from the internet
- Software programs and other electronic material
- Designs and ideas
- The organisation or structuring of any such material
