Teaching learning summary

This course is delivered through two lectures, one tutorial and one audiovisual class per week. The lectures will mainly cover grammatical aspects of the Spanish language and the development of written skills, such as written comprehension, translation of texts, and development of advanced written expression in general. The tutorials will focus on the development of oral linguistic skills and the audiovisual classes will aim to develop listening comprehension skills. Both the tutorials and the audiovisual classes will require students' active participation in group exercises or activities.

Communication of additional information

The Spanish noticeboard is in the corridor outside the Seminar Room (vZ 515). Additional information or information on changes will be conveyed to students either via class, noticeboards, Blackboard, or email.

Course prescription

SPAN 316 aims to further develop the skills acquired in SPAN 315, making particular use of authentic materials from Spanish-speaking countries in both aural and printed form. Additional emphasis will be placed on the active use of both spoken and written Spanish.

Learning objectives

SPAN 316 is a second-trimester 20-point practical course in Spanish Language for advanced-level students. The aim of the course is to further develop students' competence in both spoken and written Spanish to an advanced level. The teaching of the language is reinforced through written exercises, reading comprehension, oral and aural activities and set assignments. Emphasis is placed on improving students' ability to communicate in a variety of language registers, using a wide range of vocabulary from both Spain and Latin American countries.

Upon completion of the course, students will be able to:

- i. read and comprehend a variety of texts in Spanish;
- ii. understand Spanish spoken at reasonable speed by native speakers of both Peninsular and Latin American Spanish;
- iii. express ideas in both spoken and written Spanish on a wide range of topical issues with reasonable accuracy and fluency;
- iv. demonstrate a command of a wide range of vocabulary and grammatical structures;
- v. accurately translate short texts into English and into Spanish.

Expected workload

The University Assessment Handbook has laid down guidelines as to the number of hours per week which students are expected to devote to a course in order to maintain satisfactory progress. Students enrolling in a one-trimester 20-point course should work on average 13 hours per week including contact hours - i.e., in the case of SPAN 316, 9 hours of private study outside class time.

Assessment requirements

Assessment for SPAN 316 is by in-term assessment, as follows: 1 assignment (15%); 2 written tests (25% each); 1 audiovisual test (20%); final oral test (15%). The relevant dates for the pieces of assessed work are detailed in the Course Programme.

The written assignment and written tests measure students' competency in objectives (i), (iii), (iv) and (v). The listening test relates to objectives (ii) and (iv) and the oral test relates to objectives (ii), (iii) and (iv).

Penalties

The due dates for the assignments given in the Course Programme must be adhered to. Although work may be accepted late in special circumstances, the Course Coordinator should always be contacted on or before the due dates if there is a problem. The penalty for work presented late without prior approval is a 5% deduction per day.

Please note that no work for assessment will be accepted after 26 October 2012.

Mandatory course requirements

In order to pass SPAN 316, students are required to do the following, unless specific exemptions have been agreed to:

- i. complete the assignment by the due date;
- ii. sit the written tests on the dates indicated;
- iii. attend the oral test at the appointed time.

Class representative

A class representative will be elected in the first class, and that person's name and contact details will be available to VUWSA, the Course Coordinator and the class. The class representative provides a communication channel to liaise with the Course Coordinator on behalf of students. . Class representatives will attend a meeting with the Head of School to discuss how your courses are going and to raise any concerns or suggestions that you may have.

Presentation of assignments

Tidy presentation of assignments is essential. Work may be typed or neatly handwritten. Crossings-out indicate that a piece of work is still at draft stage. Allow space for corrections: leave a 4-centimetre margin and write on alternate lines or double space if typing. Do not write in pencil.

All assignments must include a cover sheet provided or available from the SLC Main Office. Assignments are to be handed in to the Spanish assignment slot located to the left of the SLC Main Office area on the 6th floor of von Zedlitz.

Tests and impairments

The dates of the tests given in the Course Programme must be adhered to. You should always sit a test if possible, obtaining a medical certificate if you wish to claim impairment. If you sit the test but believe your performance has been radically affected by some medical or other factor, inform the Course Coordinator immediately. If you fail the test, you may be able to claim impairment.

If it is quite impossible to sit a test, for severe medical or personal or family reasons, you should do everything possible to notify the Course Coordinator, if necessary through the Administrator, before the test, or to get a friend or family member to do so on your behalf. Only in cases of severe illness or other exceptionally difficult circumstances, which must normally be documented, can the Programme consider allowing students to sit a test at a different time from that indicated.

Academic integrity and plagiarism

Academic integrity means that university staff and students, in their teaching and learning are expected to treat others honestly, fairly and with respect at all times. It is not acceptable to mistreat academic, intellectual or creative work that has been done by other people by representing it as your own original work.

Academic integrity is important because it is the core value on which the University's learning, teaching and research activities are based. Victoria University's reputation for academic integrity adds value to your qualification.

The University defines plagiarism as presenting someone else's work as if it were your own, whether you mean to or not. 'Someone else's work' means anything that is not your own idea. Even if it is presented in your own style, you must acknowledge your sources fully and appropriately. This includes:

- Material from books, journals or any other printed source
- The work of other students or staff
- Information from the internet
- Software programs and other electronic material
- Designs and ideas
- The organisation or structuring of any such material
