Course Prescription

This course introduces the planning and implementation of appropriate classroom language teaching activities, and addresses issues in managing classrooms for effective second and foreign language learning. Students undertaking this course should have completed an undergraduate degree.

Course content

ELIN 801 will be taught by Jill Musgrave. The course covers:

- Principles of language teaching and learning and their application in teaching activities and materials.
- The teaching of grammar, vocabulary and the skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing to foreign and second language learners.
- Designing a balanced programme of work and monitoring learners' progress through it.

The main topic areas that will be studied are as follows:

Week 1 (7 November)	An introduction and overview
---------------------	------------------------------

Week 2 (12, 14 November)	Teaching reading
Week 3 (19, 21 November)	Teaching reading
Week 4 (26, 28 November)	Teaching reading, Teaching writing
Week 5 (3, 5 December)	Teaching writing
Week 6 (10, 12 December)	Teaching writing, Pronunciation
Week 7 (17, 19 December)	Pronunciation

Mid-trimester break: 20 December – 4 January inclusive

Week 10 (7, 9 January)	Teaching listening
Week 11 (14, 16 January)	Teaching listening
Week 12 (23 January)	Teaching speaking
Week 13 (28, 30 January)	Group presentations, Teaching speaking
Week 14 (4 February)	Language assessment and testing

These topic areas indicate the main focus that has been planned for each week. Within each topic, an emphasis will be given to integrating language skills; planning, implementing and reflecting on teaching activities; and monitoring learners' progress. Other topics, such as vocabulary, and English grammar, will be covered throughout the course.

Learning objectives

Students who pass this course should be able to:

1. Outline principles of language teaching and materials development and explain how they support a balanced programme of work for language learners.
2. Outline features and benefits of specific language teaching activities and materials for the teaching of reading, writing, listening, speaking and vocabulary.
3. Suggest classroom approaches and/or solutions to frequently encountered issues relating to second language learners and their learning.
4. Evaluate the design and implementation of materials used in a small group teaching setting in relation to principles.

5. Demonstrate professional behaviour.

Expected workload

As ELIN 801 is a 30 point course, you should expect to spend 300 hours on coursework spread out over the 14 weeks of the course. This means that the workload is likely to exceed 20 hours per week for most weeks of the course. The workload includes:

- Preparing for classes: including reading and review
- Attending classes [lectures and tutorials]
- Planning and designing language learning activities and materials for the one hour lessons
- Teaching one hour lessons with a pair or small group of learners
- Evaluating each one hour teaching session
- Completing assessments

Group work

While Assignments One and Two will be completed individually, course members are encouraged to work collaboratively when preparing and reflecting on the practice teaching sessions that inform both assignments. The Group Poster Presentation project requires course members to work collaboratively in small groups. For the Group Poster Presentation half of the marks are awarded to the whole group and the other half of the marks are awarded individually. (See Assessment requirements document on Blackboard.)

Assessment requirements

This course will be examined by internal assessment. The final grade for ELIN 801 will be based on a test (15%), two assignments (30% each), a group poster presentation (15%), and a grade for professional behaviour (10%). The assessment schedule appears below.

	Percentage	Dates and length	Learning objectives
Test	(15%)	Wed 12 December One hour (9:00-10:00)	1,2,3
Assignment 1	(30%)	Mon 7 January (by 5pm) (2,000 to 2,500 words)	1,2,3,4
Group Poster Presentation	(15%)	Mon 28 January 30 minutes per group presentation	1,2,3,4
Assignment 2	(30%)	Mon 11 February (by 5pm) (2,000 to 2,500 words)	1,2,3,4
Professional behaviour	(10%)	Ongoing throughout the course	5

The test (15%) aims to measure course members' understanding of principles and concepts underlying lesson planning, materials preparation, and the implementation and evaluation of language activities. It is expected that the test questions will be answered in a systematic way drawing on material covered in the course. The test is designed to reflect the first three learning objectives outlined on page three.

The assignments (60% in total) require course members to apply what they have learned in classes, through reading and independent study to a practical teaching situation. The assignments are designed to reflect the first four learning objectives outlined on page three. Refer to Blackboard for information about the presentation and marking criteria for assignments.

Assignment One

Prepare, trial and report on a language lesson you have designed to improve reading or writing. (2,000 to 2,500 words)

This assignment requires you to use an ELIN 801 lesson you have planned, prepared materials for, and taught as a focus for discussing what you have learned from the ELIN 801 classes, from the set and recommended texts and from your own independent reading about either reading or writing. It is expected that you will include a focus on vocabulary in this assignment.

Assignment Two

Prepare, trial and report on a language lesson you have designed to improve listening or speaking. (2,000 to 2,500 words)

This assignment requires you to use an ELIN 801 lesson you have planned, prepared materials for, and taught as a focus for discussing what you have learned from the ELIN 801 classes, from the set and recommended texts and from your own independent reading about either listening or speaking. It is expected that you will include a focus on pronunciation in this assignment.

The Group Poster Presentation (15%) will take place in class time on Monday 28 January.

Working in ELIN 801 teaching practicum groups, you will gather information about your learners throughout the ELIN 801 teaching sessions. You will consider learner characteristics, such as learning styles, personality, motivation, identity and learner beliefs. You will also record your observations of how your learners respond to the lessons you prepare each week. You will collate and present the findings of your study as a poster. This assignment reflects the first four learning objectives outlined on page three.

Professional behaviour (10%) refers to demonstration of 'teacher attributes', such as communication, self-management and collaboration. This assignment reflects the fifth learning objective outlined on page four.

Full guidelines for all assessments will be provided in class.

Submitting assignments and tasks

Refer to the assessment requirements above and the Course Calendar at the end of the Course Outline for the due dates for each assessment task.

Penalties

You must complete all assigned work by the deadlines. If you have strong reasons for needing an extension (such as an illness or bereavement), you must get explicit permission from the course coordinator before the due date. Work handed in late without prior permission to do so may not be eligible for assessment.

Mandatory course requirements

To gain a pass in this course each student must fulfil the mandatory course requirements set out below:

- You must attend at least 90% of the ELIN 801 classes and practical teaching sessions.
- You must complete satisfactorily all class tasks and written and oral assignments specified in the course outline.
- You must hand in all required assignments on time. No work will be accepted after 11 February.

Class Representative

A class representative will be elected in the first class, and that person's name and contact details will be available to VUWSA, the Course Coordinator and the class. The class representative provides a communication channel to liaise with the Course Coordinator on behalf of students.

Academic integrity and plagiarism

Academic integrity means that university staff and students, in their teaching and learning are expected to treat others honestly, fairly and with respect at all times. It is not acceptable to mistreat academic, intellectual or creative work that has been done by other people by representing it as your own original work.

Academic integrity is important because it is the core value on which the University's learning, teaching and research activities are based. Victoria University's reputation for academic integrity adds value to your qualification.

The University defines plagiarism as presenting someone else's work as if it were your own, whether you mean to or not. 'Someone else's work' means anything that is not your own idea. Even if it is presented in your own style, you must acknowledge your sources fully and appropriately. This includes:

- Material from books, journals or any other printed source
- The work of other students or staff

- Information from the internet
- Software programs and other electronic material
- Designs and ideas
- The organisation or structuring of any such material
