Expected workload

The University Assessment Handbook has laid down guidelines as to the number of hours per week which students are expected to devote to a course in order to maintain satisfactory progress. Students enrolling in a one trimester 20-point course should work on average 13 hours per week including contact hours - i.e., in the case of EURO 101, 10 hours of private study outside class time.

Readings

For this course there is a handbook containing required reading material. The handbook is: EURO 101: Introduction to European Studies.

There are no other set texts for the course. Students should note that the handbooks also contain further lists of recommended reading which will help them prepare for tests and assignments.

All undergraduate textbooks and student notes will be sold from the Memorial Theatre foyer from 13 February to 16 March 2012, while postgraduate textbooks and student notes will be available from the top floor of vicbooks in the Student Union Building, Kelburn Campus. After week two of the trimester all undergraduate textbooks and student notes will be sold from vicbooks on Level 4 of the Student Union Building.

Books can be couriered to customers or they can be picked up from nominated collection points at each campus. Customers will be contacted when they are available. Opening hours are 8.00 am – 6.00 pm, Monday – Friday during term time (closing at 5.00 pm in the holidays). Phone: 463 5515.

Assessment requirements

Assessment for EURO 101 is by in-term assessment as follows: 1 tutorial test (10%), 2 class tests (25% each), 1 assignment (30%) and 5 tutorial worksheets (10%). The relevant dates for the pieces of assessed work are detailed in the Course Timetable.

The in-class tests measure students' competency in objectives (i), (ii) and (iii), the assignments assess competency in objectives (i), (ii), (iii) and (vi), and the tutorial worksheets competency in objectives (iv), (v) and (vi).

Penalties

The due dates for the assignments given in the Course Programme must be adhered to. Although work may be accepted late in special circumstances, the Course Coordinator should always be contacted on or before the due dates if there is a problem. The penalty for work presented late without prior approval is a 5% deduction per day. In addition, please note that up to a maximum of 5% may be deducted for poorly presented assignments. Please note that no work for assessment will be accepted after 15 June.

Mandatory course requirements

To gain a pass in EURO 101, students are required to do the following, unless specific exemptions have been agreed to:

- (i) sit the written tests on the date indicated;
- (ii) complete the assignment by the due dates;

Tutorial attendance is not obligatory but it is strongly recommended and 10% of your final grade will depend on completing all of the assigned tutorial worksheets and attending the tutorials.

Class representative

A class representative will be elected in the first class, and that person's name and contact details will be available to VUWSA, the Course Coordinator and the class. The class representative provides a communication channel to liaise with the Course Coordinator on behalf of students. Class reps will attend a meeting with the Head of School to discuss how your courses are going and to raise any concerns or suggestions that they may have.

Presentation of assignments

Tidy presentation of assignments is essential. Work may be typed or neatly handwritten. Crossings-out indicate that a piece of work is still at draft stage. Allow space for corrections: leave a 4-centimetre margin and write on alternate lines or double space if typing. Do not write in pencil.

All assignments must include a cover sheet available from the SLC All assignments must include a cover sheet which will be attached to your Assignment Instructions and will also be available on Blackboard. Assignments are to be handed in to the EURO assignment slot located to the left of the SLC Reception area on the 6th floor of von Zedlitz.

Tests and impairments

The dates of the test given in the Course Programme must be adhered to. You should always sit a test if humanly possible, obtaining a medical certificate if you wish to claim impairment. If you sit the test but believe your performance has been radically affected by some medical or other factor, inform the Course Coordinator immediately. If you fail the test, you may be able to claim impairment.

If it is quite impossible to sit a test, for severe medical or personal or family reasons, you should do everything possible to notify the Course Coordinator, if necessary through the Administrator, before the test, or to get a friend or family member to do so on your behalf.

Only in cases of severe illness or other exceptionally difficult circumstances, which must normally be documented, can the Programme consider allowing students to sit a test at a different time from that indicated.

Academic integrity and plagiarism

Academic integrity means that university staff and students, in their teaching and learning are expected to treat others honestly, fairly and with respect at all times. It is not acceptable to mistreat academic, intellectual or creative work that has been done by other people by representing it as your own original work.

Academic integrity is important because it is the core value on which the University's learning, teaching and research activities are based. Victoria University's reputation for academic integrity adds value to your qualification.

The University defines plagiarism as presenting someone else's work as if it were your own, whether you mean to or not. 'Someone else's work' means anything that is not your own idea. Even if it is presented in your own style, you must acknowledge your sources fully and appropriately. This includes:

- Material from books, journals or any other printed source
- The work of other students or staff

- Information from the internet
- Software programs and other electronic material
- Designs and ideas
- The organisation or structuring of any such material
