4. Class times and locations

Lectures: Monday, Wednesday 4:10-5:00pm in MC LT102
Thursday 12:00-12:50am in KK LT301

Demonstration classes: Approximately one out of three of the lecture class times will be devoted to the practical demonstrations of various kinds. Students may be required to prepare material in advance to gain full advantage from attendance at these classes.

Tutorials: One tutorial per week. Please go to <<https://signups.vuw.ac.nz>> to sign up for a tutorial. This facility will close on 11 March 2013.

Tutorial lists will be posted on Blackboard at the end of the first week of the trimester. Tutorials commence in the second week (beginning 11 March). Check the lists before that date. Do not miss your first tutorial. You may not change tutorials without asking the course co-ordinator.

The tutorial programme is an essential element of this course. Short tutorial exercises must be prepared before each tutorial. Students will find they cannot acquire techniques of linguistic analysis without attending tutorials regularly.

5. Teaching/Learning Summary

Course delivery will be through lectures, demonstration classes and tutorials as above, and through students' own reading.

6. Communication of additional information

Notices will be posted on Blackboard.

LALS main office: VZ210, 2nd floor Von Zedlitz Building, Kelburn Parade

7. Course prescription:

An introduction to basic linguistic concepts and terminology and to methods of linguistic analysis in the areas of phonetics (the sounds used in human languages), phonology (sound systems), morphology (word structure), and syntax (sentence structure).

8. Course content

Lectures will cover each of the following

- (i) Phonetics and phonology: examining the sounds of human languages.
- (ii) Morphology: examining how words are structured.
- (iii) Syntax: examining the way words combine to form sentences.
- (iv) Semantics: considering how to analyse meaning.

A schedule of lectures is attached to this course outline.

9. Learning objectives

By the end of the course students should be able to:

- Explain concepts basic to modern linguistics.
- Identify characteristics shared by all human languages.
- Explain why a language is referred to as a system.
- Use descriptive linguistic terminology to discuss language structure in a precise way.
- Use descriptive linguistic terminology to discuss issues of linguistic usage in a precise and informed way.
- Distinguish linguistic elements at the levels of (a) morphology; (b) semantics; (c) syntax; (d) phonology.
- Analyse a variety of languages at one or more of these levels of analysis.

Each of the pieces of assessed work, including the test, will test several of these objectives.

10. Expected workload

You are expected to spend 200 hours on this course over the whole trimester, which means on average around 15 hours per week. 4 of those hours are consumed with class attendance, and at least another 4 with preparation for and revision after classes, including reading to confirm your understanding of the lecture material. You also need to spend time on assignments, and on overall background reading and preparation of the final test.

11. Readings

Every student will need to bring a copy of the Coursebook (version 4.1 or later), obtainable from vicbooks; cost approx $25.00, to all tutorials, and to all classes in the syntax and semantics sections of the course.

Lists of recommended texts relating to particular topics are provided in the lecture material in the Coursebook, which also includes a comprehensive bibliography for the course. A large number of books and periodicals useful for this course have been placed on 3 day loan and closed reserve.

12. Assessment requirements

Assessment will be based on 4 brief assignments, and a final test. Where applicable, word-limits will be stated on the individual assignment handouts.

		Due date	Contribution to final grade
i	Assignment 1: Syntax	27 March	20%
ii	Assignment 2: Phonetics	18 April	20%
iii	Assignment 3: Phonology	16 May	20%
iv	Assignment 4: Morphology	30 May	20%
v	Test	6 June	20%

Assignments should be handed in BOTH via the submission link on Blackboard AND to the lecturer (preferable) or to the LALS Office (VZ210) no later than 12pm on the day the assignment is due (except for Assignment 1, where the hard copy should be handed in in class at 4pm). Please keep a back-up copy of your assignment.

Reasonable accommodation is made with respect to assessment procedures for students with disabilities (see Where to find more detailed information below).

N.B. Note that if no work is submitted for assessment before the last two weeks of teaching, there will be nothing on which to base an aegrotat consideration.

Marks out of 20 correspond to grades as in the following table, which will be used in the four assignments:

below 8	E	13-13.5	B
8-9.5	D	14-14.5	B+
10-10.5	C	15-15.5	A-
11-11.5	C+	16-16.5	A
12-12.5	B-	17-20	A+

The pieces of work listed above will assess your ability to manipulate linguistic terminology and the skills in linguistic analysis that you have acquired and your familiarity with basic concepts in each of the major areas of linguistics covered in the course.

Submitting assignments and tasks

General guidelines

When submitting typed or word-processed assignments:

- Set margins to at least 2.5 cm
- Set line spacing to 1.5
- Set font size of 12 point
- Include page numbers
- Include a title page which shows the course number and name, your name, the course lecturer, the title of the assignment, and the date the assignment is due

- Provide a word count at the end of the assignment (not including the Reference section)

Hard copy submissions

- Put a LALS cover-sheet on the assignment, and complete the information requested there
- Staple pages together
- Avoid presenting assignments in bulky folders or sleeves unless necessary
- Avoid inserting individual pages in clearfile sleeves

13. Penalties

In line with school policy, assignments handed in after the due date will receive a considerably reduced grade unless accompanied by a medical certificate or other evidence of exceptional circumstances. If you require an extension for good reasons, ask the course convener ahead of the date for handing in the assignment. ONLY ASSIGNMENTS CARRYING A COVER-SHEET SIGNED BY THE COURSE CONVENER HAVE A VALID EXTENSION PERMITTED TO THEM.

The assignments are due on Thursdays at 12pm (except for Assignment 1, due Wednesday 27 March, 4pm). Unless you have a valid extension granted for your assignment, the following penalties will apply:

	Penalty
For each working day in the week following the due date	One grade (5%) less and no feedback will be provided
For assignments handed in on the following Thursday at 12 pm	Maximum grade possible is C and no feedback provided
For assignments handed in after Thursday 12 pm in the week after the due date	No mark

Plagiarism is not acceptable in assessed work, and will be penalised. The penalty will depend on the severity of the plagiarism. For more information on plagiarism see the website <http://www.victoria.ac.nz/home/study/plagiarism.aspx>.

14. Mandatory course requirements

In addition to obtaining at least a C grade overall, students must meet the following mandatory requirements in order to pass this course:

- All students must submit all four of the assignments.
- All students must sit the test.
- All students must attend at least one tutorial before the end of week 3 of the course.

The final date for handing in work to count for the course is Friday 7 June, 2013 at 4:00 pm.

15. Class Representative

A class representative will be elected in the first class, and that person's name and contact details will be available to VUWSA, the Course Coordinator and the class. The class representative provides a communication channel to liaise with the Course Coordinator on behalf of students.

You can find out more information on Class Representatives on the VUWSA website

16. Academic Integrity and Plagiarism

Academic integrity means that university staff and students, in their teaching and learning are expected to treat others honestly, fairly and with respect at all times. It is not acceptable to mistreat academic, intellectual or creative work that has been done by other people by representing it as your own original work.

Academic integrity is important because it is the core value on which the University's learning, teaching and research activities are based. Victoria University's reputation for academic integrity adds value to your qualification.

The University defines plagiarism as presenting someone else's work as if it were your own, whether you mean to or not. 'Someone else's work' means anything that is not your own idea. Even if it is presented in your own style, you must acknowledge your sources fully and appropriately. This includes:

- Material from books, journals or any other printed source
- The work of other students or staff
- Information from the internet
- Software programs and other electronic material
- Designs and ideas
- The organisation or structuring of any such material

Find out more about plagiarism, how to avoid it and penalties, on the University's website: <http://www.victoria.ac.nz/home/study/plagiarism>
