4. Communication of additional information:

Notices relating to the course will be posted on the Linguistics Notice Board next to VZ 309 on Floor 3 of the Von Zedlitz building and on Blackboard.

5. LALS main office: VZ210, 2nd floor Von Zedlitz Building, Kelburn Parade

Web contact: www.blackboard.vuw.ac.nz

7. Course Prescription:

In this course typological characteristics of sentence structures are studied and analyzed within the perspective of a theoretical model.

8. Learning Objectives:

At the end of this course, students should be able to

- understand the basic concepts of X-bar theory and how the theory is applied to the analysis of sentence data,
- apply the X-bar model in the analysis of sentence data from English and other languages,
- understand the role of tree structures, and be able to apply them, in the modelling of semantic relations between items in sentences,
- form conclusions based on the analysis of sentence data from the perspective of a formal framework.

9. Course Content:

A schedule of classes is attached at the end of this course outline.

10. Teaching/learning summary

See under 3, 9 and 18.

11. Expected workload:

You are expected to spend 200 hours on this course over the whole trimester, which means on average around 15 hours per week. There is a total of 42 class contact hours (lectures and tutorials) in the trimester. The remaining workload hours (an average of 12 hours per week) are needed for preparation for and revision after lectures (the latter to confirm your understanding of the lecture material), background reading and assignment preparation.

12. Texts:

Every student will need to bring a copy of the Coursebook (obtainable from vicbooks, cost $12) to all classes.

There is no single text book with content that corresponds directly to the content of this course. The following books are, however, the recommended textbooks for this course:

- Adger, David. 2003. Core Syntax: A Minimalist Approach. Oxford: Oxford University Press.
- Carnie, Andrew. 2007. Syntax: A Generative Introduction. Third Edition. Oxford: Blackwell. Or: an earlier edition
- Cowper, Elizabeth A. 1992. A Concise Introduction to Syntactic Theory. Chicago & London: University of Chicago Press.
- Haegeman, Liliane. 1994. Introduction to Government and Binding Theory. 2nd Edition. Oxford: Blackwell. Or: First Edition (1991).
- Ouhalla, Jamal. 1999. Introducing Transformational Grammar: From Principles and Parameters to Minimalism. 2nd Edition. London: Arnold.

Detailed reading lists in the individual topic areas and other reading matter relating to particular topics are provided in the Coursebook. Other supplementary material supporting the content of the lectures may also be distributed in class. A large number of books and periodicals useful for this course have been placed on 3 day loan and closed reserve.

All undergraduate textbooks and student notes will be sold from the Memorial Theatre Foyer from 11 February to 15 March 2013, while postgraduate textbooks and student notes will be available from vicbooks' new store, Ground Floor Easterfield Building, Kelburn Parade. After week two of the trimester all undergraduate textbooks and student notes will be sold from vicbooks, Easterfield Building. Customers can order textbooks and student notes online at www.vicbooks.co.nz or can email an order or enquiry to enquiries@vicbooks.co.nz. Books can be couriered to customers or they can be picked up from nominated collection points at each campus. Customers will be contacted when they are available. Opening hours are 8.00 am – 6.00 pm, Monday – Friday during term time (closing at 5.00 pm in the holidays). Phone: 463 5515.

13. Materials and equipment: not applicable

14. Assessment requirements:

Assessment will be based on the items listed below (note that there is no Final Examination):

	Handed out<sup>1</sup>	Due date	Contribution to final grade
Assignment 1	4 March	18 March	5%
Assignment 2	15 March	8 April	25%
Assignment 3	8 April	6 May	30%
Assignment 4	6 May	7 June	40%

All the assignments, except for Assignment 4, must be handed in by 10am on the day due. Assignment 4 must be handed in by 4pm on the day it is due.

Assignments should be handed in to the lecturer on the day the assignment is due or to the LALS Office (VZ 210). Please keep a back-up copy of your assignment.

Each Assignment includes one or more tasks in syntactic analysis based on data from English and/or other languages.

The maximum length for Assignment 1 is: 4 pages or 800 words; for Assignment 2: 10 pages or 1,500 words; for Assignment 3: 12 pages or 2,000 words; for Assignment 4: 20 pages or 3,000 words. Diagrams/figures/tables are included in the page/word counts and the page count is understood as applying to A4 double spaced pages.

Reasonable accommodation is made with respect to assessment procedures for students with disabilities (see also Where to find more detailed information below).

N.B. Note that if no work is submitted for assessment before the last three weeks of teaching, there will be nothing on which to base an aegrotat consideration. An aegrotat pass will normally be approved only when a candidate has completed at least 30% of the course assessment.

15. Penalties:

In line with the Linguistics Programme policy, assignments handed in after the due date will receive a considerably reduced grade unless accompanied by a medical certificate or other evidence of exceptional circumstances. If you require an extension for good reasons, ask the course coordinator ahead of the date for handing in the assignment. ONLY ASSIGNMENTS CARRYING A COVER-SHEET SIGNED BY THE COURSE COORDINATOR HAVE A VALID EXTENSION PERMITTED TO THEM. Such an extension may be given only up to the point at which the Assignments are handed back.

Assignments which are handed in after the time and date on which they are due will be subject to a scale of penalties involving a reduction in the grade they are given, the severity of the grade reduction corresponding to the severity of the lateness. The details of the penalties will be set out on each Assignment.

You are strongly advised to begin work early on your assignment to be sure of getting access to the appropriate books and articles, to avoid last-minute rush, and to ensure that your work is not needlessly penalised. If your work is handed in late, it may also be returned to you late.

Plagiarism is not acceptable in assessed work, and will be penalized. The penalty will depend on the severity of the plagiarism. Find out more about plagiarism, how to avoid it and penalties, on the University's website:

<http://www.victoria.ac.nz/home/study/plagiarism.aspx>

If you encounter any problems in your work for this assignment, discuss these with the course coordinator well before the due date for the assignment.

16. Assessment and Course objectives

The Assignments will be asking students to demonstrate familiarity with basic concepts in syntax covered in the course (see under Learning Objectives 8) and to demonstrate that they are able to apply to data from different languages the techniques of analysis which will be taught and practised in the lectures and tutorials up to the time of the "due dates" for these pieces of work.

17. Mandatory Course Requirements

In addition to obtaining at least a C grade overall, students must meet the following mandatory requirements in order to pass this course:

You must make a satisfactory attempt at the four set pieces of in-term work listed under 14 above. "Satisfactory" means that where a set piece of work has not reached a C standard, it must nevertheless reflect the fact that the task has been taken seriously and that a reasonable amount of effort has been devoted to it. In order for an assignment to meet the Mandatory Course Requirements, it must be handed in no later than 21 June 2013. Note also that in addition to the penalties indicated in 15, in order for an assignment to receive a mark, even if an extension is given, it must be handed in by the time that marked assignments are returned in class, normally not later than 10/14 days after the official due date.

18. Attendance

Tutorials form an essential part of all Linguistics courses and, crucially so, in LING 327 in which material covered in lectures and tutorials builds sequentially on material covered in preceding classes. It is expected that students will prepare for and attend all of their scheduled tutorials.

19. Class Representative

A class representative will be elected in the first class, and that person's name and contact details will be available to VUWSA, the Course Coordinator and the class. The class representative provides a communication channel to liaise with the Course Coordinator on behalf of students.

You can find out more information on Class Representatives on the VUWSA website.

20. Academic Integrity and Plagiarism

Academic integrity means that university staff and students, in their teaching and learning are expected to treat others honestly, fairly and with respect at all times. It is not acceptable to mistreat academic, intellectual or creative work that has been done by other people by representing it as your own original work.

Academic integrity is important because it is the core value on which the University's learning, teaching and research activities are based. Victoria University's reputation for academic integrity adds value to your qualification.

The University defines plagiarism as presenting someone else's work as if it were your own, whether you mean to or not. 'Someone else's work' means anything that is not your own idea. Even if it is presented in your own style, you must acknowledge your sources fully and appropriately. This includes:

- Material from books, journals or any other printed source
- The work of other students or staff
- Information from the internet
- Software programs and other electronic material
- Designs and ideas
- The organisation or structuring of any such material

Find out more about plagiarism, how to avoid it and penalties, on the University's website: <http://www.victoria.ac.nz/home/study/plagiarism.aspx>
