6 KO NGĀ TATAURANGA

6.1 Submission of Course Work

All work submitted for this course MUST be posted in the Assignment Box, Māori Studies Office, 50 Kelburn Parade. All assignments are registered in the Māori Studies Office. DO NOT hand or email work to the Course Coordinator, or leave assignments under the Course Coordinator's door. Please keep a copy of your work.

You are required to use the standard cover sheet for Te Kawa a Māui assignments. Hard copies of this are available by the Assignment Box.

6.2 Non-Assessed Tasks

As part of your learning experience in tikanga marae, you are expected to gain practical skills in protocol and oral traditions. These include karakia, mihi whakatau, and waiata. Students will take turns to perform these duties at the beginning of each class, and also conclude with karakia.

6.3 Assessment Requirements

MAOR 801 is fully internally assessed - i.e. there is no final examination. The assessments are designed to evaluate students' understanding of the concepts and practices associated with the marae, and their competency in the operation of the marae. This includes three practicum assessments, a reflective journal and a requirement to fulfil 20 hours of 'work' at the marae.

It is highly recommended that students take the opportunity to seek guidance and support from the Marae staff and/or helping to manaaki manuhiri and other marae-based activities: either in the 'front' or the 'back'. The Marae hosts many hui and you are able to 'work' some of your hours during these and will be 'signed-off' by the supervising staff. Others may choose to 'work' their hours off at the Hui Whakapūmau and May graduation ceremonies at the Michael Fowler Centre.

More specific information about all the components of the course assessment is contained below in this course outline. Further details about assessment will be explained on the assignment sheets and in classes. If you are unsure about any assessment requirement, please contact the Course Coordinator.

The final grade for MAOR 801 will be determined by:

Internal Coursework 100%

6.4 Assessment Schedule

Assessment	Due Date	Value	Link to Course Learning Objectives (LO)
Practicum 1	In lecture, 9 April	20%	LO: 3, 4, 5, 6
Journal	By 5:00pm on 19 April and 7 June	20%	LO: 1-6
Practicum 2	In lecture, 9 May	20%	LO: 3, 4, 5, 6
Practicum 3	In lecture, 4 June	20%	LO: 3, 4, 5, 6
Practicum Hours	Ongoing	20%	LO: 1-6

6.5 Practicum Assessments 60% (20% each)

In the first week, students will be assigned a work group for the duration of the course. Each group will take turns fulfilling the different roles in the organisation and execution of a hui for which they will be assessed. Groups will be assigned an area of responsibility: pōhiri - tangata whenua (mua), tangata whenua (muri), and manuhiri. Students will need to be proactive in organising themselves outside of class hours, as these assessments require a lot of teamwork and effort.

Note: The practicum assessment will consist of group work leading to an individual mark. Marae are not organised or run by any single person, but rather by a collective made up of the hapū and whānau. This, therefore, is the most appropriate form of assessment for this course. Further details will be provided during lectures.

6.6 Journal 20% (10% for each submission)

Students will reflect on their learning in each class by making entries in a journal. There is an expectation that students make a weekly entry. Please note, you will be expected to record information and knowledge that you have learnt in lectures and practical classes including planning notes, budgets, etc, and you should also reflect on your understanding of tikanga (bullet-point format is acceptable). Additionally, you will be required to make a short summary (bullet-point format only) for each of the weekly course readings - see the lecture schedule for a complete list.

Do not leave this assignment for the last week. It will be noted when students fail to make their journal entries. To ensure students keep up to date with their journal, you will be expected to submit your journal entries prior to the mid-trimester break (Friday, 19 April) and on the last day of trimester (Friday, 7 June). Pictures, drawings, photographs and other materials may be included in your marae practice journal.

6.7 Practicum Hours 20%

Students are required to fulfil 20-hours of kaiārahi/manaaki tangata at the marae any time during the course. These hours give students the opportunity to learn through active participation in a real marae situation, hosting manuhiri. All hui and events are publicly displayed and announced in class or at lunch break in the dining room. Students can then select the hui or event they wish to contribute and learn from.

Each student is required to spend:

- 5 hours out the 'front' for pōhiri ceremonies, to, perform, observe and critique the rituals of encounter, supporting the paepae with waiata and haka pōhiri.
- 10 hours at the 'back' in the wharekai (Ngā Mokopuna) helping with preparation, and setting and serving of food under the supervision and direction of assigned marae personnel.
- 5 hours participating in the May graduation ceremonies, which may include performing the haka pōhiri under the guidance of the marae personnel.
- These hours must be logged on the timesheet handed out in class and signed off by the 'supervisory' marae personnel. The course assistant will regularly check these timesheets to ensure that students are on-target for completion.

6.8 Policy on Accommodation for Students with Disabilities

The University has a policy of reasonable accommodation for the needs of students with disabilities in examinations and other assessment procedures. Please contact the Course Coordinator if you have any queries or issues.

7 KO NGĀ WHIUNGA

Extensions for internal assessments will be granted only when there are extenuating circumstances, such as illness or bereavement. Pressure of work for other courses or from work outside the University is not regarded as an extenuating circumstance. To be considered for an extension, you MUST contact the Course Coordinator before the due date, or in the event of an emergency, as soon as possible. Work submitted late will be penalised by 5% for each day, including weekend days. Where students have not informed the Course Coordinator, more severe penalties may be imposed. It is important to begin work on assignments well in advance of the due date, and to discuss any difficulties you may experience with Course Coordinator as soon as they arise.

8 MANDATORY COURSE REQUIREMENTS

In order to complete this course students must:

- attend a minimum of 20 of 24 lectures (except where the Course Coordinator's permission is granted)
- attend and complete all practical assessments, and attain at least 50% for each assessment hui
- complete all written assessments by the due date, and attain at least 50% for each written assessment, and
- participate in class.

9 ACADEMIC INTEGRITY AND PLAGIARISM

Academic integrity means that University staff and students, in their teaching and learning are expected to treat others honestly, fairly and with respect at all times. It is not acceptable to mistreat academic, intellectual or creative work that has been done by other people by representing it as your own original work.

Academic integrity is important because it is the core value on which the University's learning, teaching and research activities are based. Victoria University's reputation for academic integrity adds value to your qualification.

The University defines plagiarism as presenting someone else's work as if it were your own, whether you mean to or not. 'Someone else's work' means anything that is not your own idea. Even if it is presented in your own style, you must acknowledge your sources fully and appropriately. This includes:

- material from books, journals or any other printed source
- the work of other students or staff
- information from the internet
- software programmes and other electronic material
- designs and ideas, and

- the organisation or structuring of any such material.

Find out more about plagiarism, how to avoid it and penalties, on the University's website: www.victoria.ac.nz/home/study/plagiarism
