COMMUNICATION OF ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

This course uses Blackboard for all important information and announcements, as well as running a discussion board, and encourages you to check it regularly. Information about the course will be posted from time to time on the English Programme's notice-board on the third floor of the Hugh Mackenzie building, in the Level 3 corridor of the Hugh Mackenzie Building, as well as announced in lectures and posted on Blackboard. If you have a question or problem, consult your tutor or one of the course co-ordinators.

If you are not going to use the Victoria email address set up for you, we strongly encourage you to set a forward from the Victoria email system to the email address you do use.

PRESCRIPTION

An introduction to literary form, or genre in written text, performance and film, focusing on the conventions of romance, the gothic, and detective fiction. Consideration will be given to such concepts as writing and the imagination, reading as detection, disorder and reordering, the themes of love and justice.

COURSE CONTENT

This course aims to introduce students, majoring and non-majoring, to the concept of literary form, with particular emphasis on the related genres of romance, the gothic and detective fiction. Texts include drama, novel, poetry, short fiction and film. There will also be discussion, where relevant, of film versions of some of the texts, as well as live performance.

COURSE LEARNING OBJECTIVES (CLOS)

Students passing the course will:

- be familiar with all of the texts studied on the course;
- have developed an understanding of literary form;
- be able to read texts critically with close attention to detail;
- be able to discuss their findings in a formal academic essay.

TEACHING FORMAT

In addition to lectures and tutorials there will be a number of videos, relating to course texts, shown at 5.10pm on some Tuesdays (specific dates to be advised in lectures and on Blackboard). If you are not able to come at this time, you can watch them in the audio-visual suite of the library.

The tutorials are a very important part of your development in the subject, and you should prepare fully for them. Weekly worksheets (available on Blackboard) prepared in advance are a central feature of the tutorial programme. Complete each worksheet and read the prescribed text in advance of the tutorial, take it and the relevant text with you, and contribute to the discussion. Tutorial sign-up via S-Cubed, and times and rooms will be posted on the English Section notice-board on the third floor of the Hugh Mackenzie building, outside Hugh Mackenzie LT206 and on Blackboard by Friday 20 July. Each student attends one tutorial per week. You must attend a minimum of 70%, i.e. at least 8 out of 11 tutorials. You are strongly advised (and, indeed, expected) to attend all tutorials. However, from time to time there may be unusual circumstances, such as illness, which prevent your attendance. In ENGL 114, we regard the mandatory requirement of only 70% attendance as making provision for such circumstances.

MANDATORY COURSE REQUIREMENTS

To gain a pass in this course you must:

- Submit the written work specified for this course, on or by the specified dates (subject to such provisions as are stated for late submission of work)
- Attend at least 8 out of 11 tutorials (70%), although it is expected that you will attend all tutorials. You must also complete the appropriate worksheet for each tutorial and bring it to class as part of your attendance.
- Participate in both the tests and the exam

WORKLOAD

The expected workload for a 20 point course is 200 hours spread evenly over the 12 week trimester and breaks, or 13 hours per teaching week. The time commitment is likely to be greatest in the weeks immediately prior to tests and the essay submission date.

ASSESSMENT

| Assessment items and workload per item | % | CLO(s) | Due date |
|---|-----|---------|----------|
| 1 Test 1 on Ballad/ Sonnet/ Twelfth Night (50 minutes) | 15% | 1,2,3 | 05/08/13 |
| 2 Test 2 on Romance / Gothic (50 minutes) | 15% | 1,2,3 | 09/09/13 |
| 3 Essay on Gothic (1500 words) | 20% | 1,2,3,4 | 23/09/13 |

Assessment has been structured to help students meet the objectives of the course. The course combines internal assessment and a final examination. The internal requirement consists of two tests sat in class time, and one essay, which together account for 50% of the final mark. The examination, which will be three hours and will not be open book, provides the other 50%. Students whose examination grade is better than their combined 50/50 result will receive the exam grade as their assessment for the course, provided their internal work comes to a pass grade. Information concerning the exam will be made available during the course.

Internal Assessment:

Test 1 on Ballad/ Sonnet/ Twelfth Night

5 August, value 15 %. This assessment tests the skills of close reading. Tutorials will concentrate on this in preceding week and give practice and feedback. The test will take place in the lecture hour. It will not be open book.

Test 2 on Romance / Gothic

9 September, value 15%. This assessment builds on the skills of close reading in the particular context of the genres of romance and gothic literature. Tutorials will concentrate on this in preceding weeks and give practice and feedback. The test will take place in the lecture hour. It will not be open book.

Essay on Gothic (Northanger Abbey, 'Christabel', or Turn of the Screw): 1500 words, due 23 September, value 20% (topics to be distributed). This assessment tests the ability to construct and support an argument. Tutorials will concentrate on this in preceding weeks and give students the opportunity to discuss essay topics and planning.

Final Examination:

A three-hour closed book exam (value 50%). Students who enrol in courses with examinations are expected to be able to attend an examination at the University at any time during the formal examination period, i.e. between 25 October and 16 November 2013.

SUBMISSION AND RETURN OF WORK

Work provided for assessment in this course may be checked for academic integrity by Turnitin the online plagiarism prevention tool.

Essays must be handed in through the essay drop-box next to the English Programme Office on level 8 of the VZ building. Assignment cover sheets and extension forms can be found on Blackboard or on level 8 of VZ. Remember to fill in your tutor's name.

All written work must be in an acceptable academic format. Guidelines for presentation of written work are set out in worksheet 8 in the Course Anthology and in the SEFTMS Student Handbook (available on Blackboard).

Your marked assignment will be handed back by your tutor in tutorials or during their office hours. Any uncollected assignments can be picked up from the Programme Administrator after the last day of teaching. Assignments will be held in the Administration office until the end of the following trimester. You need to show your student identification to collect marked assignment from the Administration office.

PENALTIES

Work submitted after the deadline will be penalised by a 2.5 percent deduction from your total mark per work day. Late work also receives only minimal comments from your marker.

In exceptional and unforeseen circumstances an extension may be granted. Issues of workload do not constitute exceptional and unforeseen circumstances. If you require an extension, you must complete an extension request form (available on your course Blackboard site) prior to the assignment due date. This must be accompanied by relevant documentation (e.g. a doctor's certificate) where appropriate. Tutors cannot grant extensions.

Work submitted after the deadline will be penalised by a 2.5 percent deduction from your total mark per work day. Late work also receives only minimal comments from your marker.

You must also contact the administrative tutor immediately if you have missed one of the Class Tests.
