PRESCRIPTION

Advanced study of a selected topic within jazz studies. 2014 Offering: German record label ECM was responsible for a significant European re-invention of jazz during the first 40 years of its operation. This course explores the nature of that re-invention and the music and musicians responsible for those developments. Students will explore the music of artists including Keith Jarrett, Jan Garbarek, Edward Vesala, Tomasz Stanko and Anouar Brahem. Class discussion will be supplemented by reading from a wide range of sources and perspectives both on contemporary jazz and European cultural contexts. Co-taught with NZSM 471.

PAPER LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students who successfully complete this paper/course will be able to:

1. evaluate scholarly and biographical literature and apply findings to their own work
2. critically examine musical recordings and draw conclusions about aesthetic considerations at play in their creation
3. present creative and/or critical work that proposes answers to question(s) around the topic of study.

These learning outcomes contribute to the NZSM Graduate Attributes. For a full list, please see www.nzsm.ac.nz/study-here/graduate-attributes

TEACHING FORMAT

This course comprises one 2-hour and one 1-hour lecture per week.

See attached course syllabus for more information.

MANDATORY PAPER REQUIREMENTS

In addition to achieving an overall pass mark of 50%, students must:

- a) complete each item of assessment worth at least 10% specified for this paper/course (subject to penalties for late submission of work)
- b) attend at least 80% of lectures and 80% of tutorials (if relevant) related to this paper/course.
- c) attend at least one Music Forum seminar presentation in the trimester the course is taught

WORKLOAD

A 20-point one-trimester paper should require at least 200 hours work (including class time). This means that in term time, the midterm break and study week you should be prepared to spend on average 13 hours per week involved in activities such as attending classes, reading, listening to recommended recordings and preparing assignments.

You will need to spend 3 hours a week in class. In addition I will set about 2-3 hours of reading weekly (it may take you longer if this literature is new to you) and approximately 2 hours weekly of listening (through Blackboard where the music will be loaded). This leaves about 5 hours per week for work on assignments (there is something due every week) and toward your final project. It is not onerous, but you will need to make this kind of commitment every week.

ASSESSMENT

Approved assessment regime

The following assessment regime for this paper has been approved by the NZSM Academic Committee:

There are 4 items of assessment:

Assignments will normally be marked and returned as soon as possible, within three weeks of the date of submission.

EXTENSIONS AND PENALTIES

Assignments must be submitted by the due dates. In fairness to other students, unless a medical certificate is produced, assessment submitted after 5pm on the due date will be subject to a 5% demerit on your grade, increasing by 5% each further working day it is overdue.

Students, who for exceptional reasons can justify an extension for an item of assessment, must apply to the Course Coordinator before the due date. Please note that no extensions can be granted for tutorial assignments.

ASSIGNMENT PRESENTATION

Written work should be presented according to the NZSM Guidelines for Academic Work, which can be downloaded from www.nzsm.ac.nz/student-zone/student-guides. Five percent (5%) will be deducted for written work that does not conform to these standards.

Notated work must be presented according to the NZSM Composition and Orchestration Style Guide, available from www.nzsm.ac.nz/student-zone/student-guides. Five percent (5%) will be deducted for notated work that clearly does not conform to these standards.

SCALING OF GRADES

To obtain a fair distribution of marks relative to assignment difficulty, scaling may be employed on some or all assessment items in accordance with guidelines set out in the VUW Assessment Handbook 2014: www.victoria.ac.nz/documents/policy/staff-policy/assessment-handbook.pdf
