PRESCRIPTION

Advanced study of selected music of the 17th and 18th centuries, considered from a range of historical, analytic and critical perspectives. 2014 offering: A study of European music in the 18th century. This course offers a critique of the historiographical and philosophical frameworks for the study of music history in the 18th century. It examines the principal musical genres of the period and their relationship to social and cultural trends. Attention will be given to the emerging concept of the canon alongside a wider survey of significant repertoire and of prominent composers and their reception. The central importance of functional tonality in shaping formal procedures will be examined and students will become familiar with the dominant musical forms. Co-taught with MUSC 236.

PAPER LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students who have successfully completed this paper will be able to:

1. Demonstrate an ability to critically investigate questions relevant to music of the 18th century and write about them persuasively
2. Analyse music of moderate complexity written within the period
3. Demonstrate an in-depth knowledge of the key musical figures, principal musical genres and significant repertoire from the period
4. Relate musical developments in the 18th century to their social and philosophical contexts
5. Demonstrate an understanding of a range of contemporary musicological perspectives on 18th century studies.

These learning outcomes contribute to the NZSM Graduate Attributes. For a full list, please see www.nzsm.ac.nz/study-here/graduate-attributes

TEACHING FORMAT

This course comprises three hours per week of lectures (a one-hour lecture and a two-hour lecture) plus one optional 1-hour tutorial per week. During tutorials, a graduate tutor will guide students in discussion of course readings and/or set works, or assist with/give feedback on work in progress, where appropriate.

See attached course syllabus for more information.

MANDATORY PAPER REQUIREMENTS

In addition to achieving an overall pass mark of 50%, students must:

- a) complete each item of assessment worth at least 10% specified for this course (subject to penalties for late submission of work)
- b) attend at least 80% of lectures related to this course.
- c) attend at least one Music Forum seminar presentation in the term the course is taught.

WORKLOAD

A 20-point one-trimester paper should require at least 200 hours work (including class time). Given that there will be 36 class hours (plus an optional additional 11 tutorial hours), you should be spending a minimum of 10 hours per week during teaching weeks and the mid-trimester break reading for the course, listening to relevant recordings, preparing assignments and studying for the final examination.

ASSESSMENT

SUBMISSION AND RETURN OF WORK

Journal Entries must be entered on Blackboard (see the Course Syllabus for details)

Other assignments, where possible, should be emailed to peter.walls@vuw.ac.nz.

Written assignments should be submitted as Microsoft Word files (and not as pdf files).

Music examples and the score for the analytical assignment should be included as a scan.

Any student without email access should speak to the Course convenor about alternative delivery.

Marked assignments will be returned via email.

Assignments will normally be marked and returned as soon as possible, within three weeks of the date of submission.

EXTENSIONS AND PENALTIES

Assignments must be submitted by the due dates. In fairness to other students, unless a medical certificate is produced, assessment submitted after 5pm on the due date may be subject to a 5% demerit on your grade, increasing by 5% each further working day it is overdue.

Students, who for exceptional reasons can justify an extension for an item of assessment, must apply to the Course Coordinator before the due date. Please note that no extensions can be granted for tutorial assignments or journal entries.

ASSIGNMENT PRESENTATION

Written work should be presented according to the NZSM Guidelines for Academic Work, which can be downloaded from www.nzsm.ac.nz/student-zone/student-guides. Five percent (5%) will be deducted for written work that does not conform to these standards.

Notated work must be presented according to the NZSM Composition and Orchestration Style Guide, available from www.nzsm.ac.nz/student-zone/student-guides. Five percent (5%) will be deducted for notated work that clearly does not conform to these standards.

SCALING OF GRADES

To obtain a fair distribution of marks relative to assignment difficulty, scaling may be employed on some or all assessment items in accordance with guidelines set out in the VUW Assessment Handbook 2014: www.victoria.ac.nz/documents/policy/staff-policy/assessment-handbook.pdf

RECOMMENDED READING

Recommended reading is listed by topic in the course syllabus.

CLASS REPRESENTATIVE

Class representatives for the NZSM are elected in the first week of the trimester, and their names and contact details will be available to VUWSA and/or MaWSA, the Course Coordinator and to each class. You can find out more information on Class Representatives on the VUWSA website (www.vuwsa.org.nz) or MaWSA website (www.mawsa.org.nz)

Students may like to write the Class Rep's name and details in this box:
