Communication of additional information

Official notices issued after the course has commenced will be posted on the board outside the NZSM office on the Kelburn Campus. Notices concerning a number of courses will also be posted on Blackboard. The Course Coordinator will specify if Blackboard will be used.

Prescription

A critical exploration of the variety of methodologies, perspectives and materials employed in the field of music education internationally.

2015 Offering: This course considers the contrasting approaches to musical learning developed in societies across the world. Sessions are practically oriented, organised around inclusive musical activities, and underpinned by readings and discussions on a wide range of topics relating to music education. This course will be of value to musicians with an interest in education, as well as those whose aspiration is to become a career music educator.

Course learning objectives (CLOs)

Students who successfully complete this course will be able to:

1. communicate a broad range of methodologies appropriate to the practice of music education in community and/or school teaching environments
2. evaluate key issues in the history, philosophies and current practice in the field of music education internationally
3. demonstrate advanced skills in research and writing.

These learning objectives contribute to the NZSM Graduate Attributes. For a full list, please see www.nzsm.ac.nz/study-careers/graduate-attributes

Teaching format

Each week during the trimester we will meet for a workshop (9:00am to 10:50am on Mondays) and a seminar (9:00am to 9:50am on Wednesdays). Although various kinds of learning will take place in each of these sessions, as a rule the workshops will be primarily practical, and the seminars primarily discursive. For the workshops, students will be told in advance when they need to bring an instrument. Blackboard will be used to distribute materials, collect weekly journal entries, and as a vehicle for class discussion.

See attached course syllabus for more information.

Mandatory course requirements

In addition to achieving an overall pass mark of 50%, students must:

- a) complete each item of assessment worth at least 10%. Where the item contains multiple subcomponents (e.g., a portfolio of journal entries, or similar), students must complete at least 50% of those subcomponents
- b) attend at least 80% of lectures and 80% of tutorials (if relevant) related to this course, unless absence is due to verified medical reasons, or advance permission for absence has been given by the teacher/lecturer
- c) attend at least two Music Forum presentations.

Workload

A 30-point one-trimester course should require at least 300 hours' work (including class time). This means that during the trimester, the mid-trimester break and study week you should be prepared to spend, on average, 20 hours per week involved in activities such as attending classes, reading, listening to recommended recordings and preparing assignments.

Over the course of the trimester students should expect to spend 65 hours reading texts and completing journal entries. About 33 hours should be spent preparing the presentation, and a similar amount of time dedicated to the preparatory materials which precede the final submission. Approximately 130 hours should be spent preparing and writing the final project. For this course, students should also expect to spend three hours attending Music Forum presentations. Individuals will find that the actual time they spend fulfilling the assessment components will vary from these indications according to their particular skills, learning preferences and prior experiences. Students spend 36 hours in class.

Assessment

The following assessment regime has been approved by the NZSM Academic Committee:

Assignments will normally be marked and returned within three weeks of submission.

NB: This course is moderated, so all students are requested to retain all marked assessment items, in the event that they are required at the end of the course.

Extensions and penalties

Extensions

Students, who for exceptional reasons can justify an extension for an item of assessment, must apply to the Course Coordinator before the due date.

For assessment components other than the presentation, students will be automatically granted an extension of up to two days upon request, in accordance with the good practice suggested in the Assessment Handbook 2014, provided that the request is made before the due date. Requests for longer extensions will be granted only where exceptional reasons can be justified.

Penalties

Assignments must be submitted by the due dates. In fairness to other students, unless a medical certificate is produced, assessment submitted after 5:00pm on the due date will be subject to a 5% demerit on your grade, increasing by 5% each further working day it is overdue.

Materials and equipment

For some sessions it will be useful to bring a musical instrument. These sessions are clearly indicated in the course syllabus.

Set texts

Weekly required readings are indicated in the course syllabus. These are chapters and articles that are all available in the library or online. There is no single text that you are recommended to purchase.
