Prescription

Preparation and presentation of an increased range of repertoire for a large ensemble appropriate to the student's instrument.

Course learning objectives (CLOs)

Students who have successfully completed this course will be able to:

1. demonstrate an increasing ability to prepare, rehearse and perform in a large ensemble
2. demonstrate, at an intermediate level, technical and musical skills in all assigned repertoire
3. demonstrate stylistic knowledge applicable to the repertoire studied and performed
4. demonstrate professionalism in all aspects of preparation, rehearsal and performance including personal presentation, punctuality and reliability.

These learning objectives contribute to the NZSM Graduate Attributes. For a full list, please see www.nzsm.ac.nz/study-careers/graduate-attributes

Teaching format

Students will be supervised in the development of their artistic practice by an assigned supervisor and work on selected repertoire appropriate to the ensemble and year level of the students involved.

Orchestra: This course comprises two 3-hour lectures per week and rep classes as scheduled. See rehearsal schedule for each concert, and personnel lists as they are posted. Please note that positions in the orchestra are likely to rotate, with principal spots shared between two or three students.

Guitar Ensemble: This course comprises two 2-hour lectures per week, and any further rehearsals as scheduled.

Saxophone Ensemble: This course comprises one 2-hour lecture per week, and any further rehearsals as scheduled.

See attached course syllabus for more information.

Mandatory course requirements

In addition to achieving an overall pass mark of 50%, students must meet the following requirements:

- a) complete each item of assessment worth at least 10%. Where the item contains multiple subcomponents (e.g. a portfolio of journal entries, or similar), students must complete at least 50% of those subcomponents
- b) attend all lectures, rehearsals and tutorials (if relevant) related to this course, unless absence is due to verified medical reasons or advance permission for absence has been given by the teacher/lecturer.

Professional attitude is required at all times:

- You are required to attend all scheduled rehearsals, rep classes and concerts
- You must be seated and ready to begin at the allotted time for each rehearsal; lateness will NOT be tolerated
- If you are taken ill on the day of the rehearsal, you must inform the relevant person as defined below, BEFORE the start of the rehearsal
- If for a legitimate reason you are unable to attend a rehearsal, you must request leave 3 weeks in advance, from the relevant person as defined below
- Where appropriate, you are responsible for finding a replacement musician to cover your part during the rehearsal

Orchestra – Dr Martin Riseley & conductor

Saxophone Ensemble – Debbie Rawson

Guitar Ensemble – Dr Jane Curry

Workload

A 15-point full-year course should require at least 150 hours work (including class time). This means that in trimester time, the mid-trimester break and study week you should be prepared to spend on average 5 hours per week involved in activities such as attending classes, reading, listening to recommended recordings and preparing assignments.

Assessment

Approved assessment regime

The following assessment regime has been approved by the NZSM Academic Committee:

There are 2 items of assessment:

1. Performance assessment which will consist of an average grade from 2-4 performances, including the Audition Competition for orchestral students. If more than four assessments, for orchestral students, grades from the best 3 performances will be taken into account, plus the grade from the Audition Competition. Related to learning objectives 1-4. (50%) Marking criteria is on five elements – Balance/Blend, Ensemble Communication, Interpretation/Stylistic Factors, Performance factors (Conductor communication, demeanor etc) and Individual instrument achievement. A full marking rubric will be posted on Blackboard.

2. Preparation for, contribution to and professional etiquette at all scheduled rehearsals. Related to learning objectives 1, 3 and 4. (50%)

Extensions and penalties

Penalties

Assignments must be submitted by the due dates. In fairness to other students, unless a medical certificate is produced, assessment submitted after 5pm on the due date will be subject to a 5% demerit on your grade, increasing by 5% each further working day it is overdue.

Materials and equipment and/or additional expenses

In light of developments in music lending policies at the hiring institutions, students will be charged for lost and/or damaged parts or hired vocal scores. Damaged parts/scores include any markings made using a medium other than pencil. You are responsible for your parts and scores. At the end of the year, any outstanding fines will result in a K grade for this course until paid. Charges are as follows:

Lost or damaged part or score: $35

Excessive pencil damage on part or score: $10

We will agree on the condition of each part when it is signed out. If you are sharing orchestral parts with a stand partner, you are still responsible for your music.

Orchestral parts will often be collected directly after the performance. If not, they are to be returned to reception during office hours in the week following the concert.

Class representative

The class representative provides a useful way to communicate feedback to the teaching staff during the course. A class representative will be selected at the first lecture of the course. Students may like to write the Class Rep's name and details in this box:

Class Rep name and contact details:

Student feedback

Enhancements made to this course, based on the feedback of previous students, will be covered during the course.

Student feedback on University courses may be found at www.cad.vuw.ac.nz/feedback/feedback_display.php.

Events

Regular events are held during trimesters 1 & 2 at all NZSM campuses. These events are for the benefit of all students, and include performances, masterclasses, special lectures and workshops given by staff, students and visiting artists. All students are expected to keep time free to attend the weekly lunchtime concert on Friday at 12.10pm, along with other events as required.

Students should sign up to the Dawn Chorus, the NZSM's events e-newsletter, by emailing events@nzsm.ac.nz with 'subscribe dawn chorus' in the subject line.
