Prescription

Introductory performance study of gamelan ensemble, with an understanding of the cultural contexts of the music.

Course learning objectives (CLOs)

Students who successfully complete this course will be able to:

1. develop skills to perform different gamelan instruments within the ensemble
2. understand the role of each gamelan instrument and the forms and styles of the ensemble music
3. understand gamelan music within its social and cultural contexts.

These learning objectives contribute to the NZSM Graduate Attributes. For a full list, please see www.nzsm.ac.nz/study-careers/graduate-attributes

Teaching format

This course comprises one 1-hour lecture and one 2-hour lecture per week.

See attached course syllabus for more information.

Mandatory course requirements

In addition to achieving an overall pass mark of 50%, students must:

- a) complete each item of assessment worth at least 10%. In regard to the journal portfolios, at least 80% of these must be completed.
- b) attend at least 80% of lectures and 80% of tutorials (if relevant) related to this course, unless absence is due to verified medical reasons, or advance permission for absence has been given by the teacher/lecturer.

Workload

A 15-point one-trimester course should require at least 150 hours' work (including class time). This means that during the trimester, the mid-trimester break and study week you should be prepared to spend, on average, 10 hours per week involved in activities such as attending classes, reading, listening to recommended recordings and preparing assignments.

Assessment

Approved assessment regime

The following assessment regime has been approved by the NZSM Academic Committee:

There are 4 items of assessment:

1. In-class performance. Related to learning objectives 1 & 2. (50%)
2. Final performance project. Related to learning objectives 1 & 2. (20%)
3. Reflective journal. Related to learning objectives 1–3. (10%)
4. Essay (1,500 words). Related to learning objective 3. (20%)

Submission and return of work

Assignments should be deposited through the appropriate folders on Blackboard.

Marked assignments will be returned through Blackboard.

Assignments will normally be marked and returned within three weeks of submission.

Extensions and penalties

Extensions

Students, who for exceptional reasons can justify an extension for an item of assessment, must apply to the Course Coordinator before the due date. Please note that no extensions can be granted for tutorial assignments.

Penalties

Assignments must be submitted by the due dates. In fairness to other students, unless the student has made arrangements with the lecturer in advance and a medical certificate is produced, assessments submitted after 5:00pm on the due date will be subject to a 5% demerit on your grade, increasing by 5% each further day it is overdue. Please note that this policy does not apply to journal entries for the course, as these will not be accepted after the due date.

Materials and equipment and/or additional expenses

The Course Coordinator may recommend materials as required.

Set texts

Required readings for the course will be made available to students through Blackboard.

Recommended reading

See attached syllabus.

Class representative

The class representative provides a useful way to communicate feedback to the teaching staff during the course. A class representative will be selected at the first lecture of the course. Students may like to write the Class Rep's name and details in this box:

Class Rep name and contact details:

Student feedback

Enhancements made to this course, based on the feedback of previous students, will be covered during the course. Student feedback on University courses may be found at www.cad.vuw.ac.nz/feedback/feedback_display.php.

Events

Regular events are held during trimesters 1 & 2 at all NZSM Campuses. These events are for the benefit of all students, and include performances, masterclasses, special lectures and workshops given by staff, students and visiting artists. All students are expected to keep time free to attend the weekly lunchtime concert on Friday at 12:10pm, along with other events as required.

Students should sign up to the Dawn Chorus, the NZSM's events e-newsletter, by emailing events@nzsm.ac.nz with 'subscribe dawn chorus' in the subject line.
