Prescription

An introduction to modern American politics, with a particular focus on the continued development of America's system of government. The course examines major political themes in US politics against the background of the relationships between different branches of government under the US Constitution.

Course learning objectives (CLOs)

Students who pass this course should be able to:

- 1. demonstrate a good understanding of the basic features of the government and political system of the United States of America

- 3. write a well-organised, well-written, well-researched essay on an aspect of U.S. politics

Teaching format

The course has two 50-minute lectures per week. The second scheduled hour is for tutorials. Each student needs to join one of the two tutorial groups and may do so by attending a tutorial and advising the tutor.

Students are expected to attend the twice weekly lectures and the weekly tutorial. The course is delivered over 12 weeks of lectures and 11 weeks of tutorials. Both tutorials and lectures are essential aspects of the course and, with the textbook, constitute the primary means in which the course content is delivered. Students are expected to attend classes regularly, take part in tutorial discussion, and keep up with the required reading.

Mandatory course requirements

In addition to achieving an overall pass mark of 50%, students must:

- 1. attend 8 of 11 tutorials

We will notify students via Blackboard when graded essays are available (generally between 2-3 weeks after the date submitted).

Extensions and penalties

Extensions

Late submission of assignments will not be accepted unless the student makes an appointment as soon as practically possible with the course coordinator to explain the lateness (preferably before the assignment is due to be submitted). The circumstances under which an extension will be considered are outlined in section 3.2.1 of the Assessment Handbook. (See: www.victoria.ac.nz/documents/policy/staff-policy/assessment-handbook.pdf).

Penalties

Students will be penalised for late submission of assignments – a deduction of 5% for the first day late, and 2% per day thereafter, up to a maximum of 8 days. Work that is more than 10 weekdays late can be accepted for mandatory course requirements but may not be marked. Penalties may be waived if there are valid grounds (for example, illness [presentation of a medical certificate will be necessary] or similar other contingencies). In all such cases, prior information will be necessary. Extensions on deadlines for written work will only be granted under exceptional circumstances.
