Dr Miguel Arnedo-Gómez will be the course coordinator, lecturer and tutor for the first six weeks of SPAN 113 and Dr Nicola Gilmour for the last six weeks. Members of staff are available for student consultation at times indicated on the doors of their offices.

Communication of additional information

The Spanish and Latin American Studies Programme noticeboard is in the corridor outside vZ515. Additional information or information on changes will be conveyed to students either via class, noticeboards, Blackboard, or email.

Prescription

This course, taught entirely in English, introduces students to the history, society and cultures of Spain and the Spanish-speaking countries of Latin America.

Course learning objectives

Students who pass this course will be able to:

- (i) demonstrate a knowledge of the history, society and culture of the Hispanic world;
- (ii) understand and comment on texts in English dealing with contemporary Hispanic societies and Hispanic history and culture
- (iii) discuss, in spoken and written analysis, aspects of the political, cultural and social themes studied.

Teaching format

This course is delivered through two lectures and one tutorial per week. The lectures will cover the history, society and culture of the Hispanic world. The tutorials will focus on the development of analytical skills and will foster discussion related to the set texts and lectures. The tutorials will require students' active participation in group exercises or discussion activities.

Mandatory course requirements

In addition to achieving an overall pass mark of 50%, students must:

- (i) sit the written tests on the date indicated;
- (ii) complete the 2 essays by the due dates, subject to the provisions for late work.

Workload

The University Assessment Handbook has laid down guidelines as to the number of hours per week which students are expected to devote to a course in order to maintain satisfactory progress. Students enrolling in a one-trimester 20-point, 200-hour course should work on average 14 hours per week including contact hours - i.e., in the case of SPAN 113, 11 hours of private study outside class time. Some students will find they need to do more than this, especially if they are aiming to achieve high grades. A possible distribution of this time each week would be:

Class and tutorial attendance	3 hours
Reading and reviewing class notes	4 hours
Tutorial preparation	3 hours
Study for tests and reading for essays	4 hours

Assessment

Assessment items and workload per item	%	CLO(s)	Due date
1 Essay 1 (approx. 1000 words)	25%	ii, iii	Wednesday 29 April
2 Essay 2 (approx. 1000 words)	25%	ii, iii	Thursday 11 June
3 Written Test 1 (1 hour)	20%	i, iii	Wednesday 22 April
4 Written Test 2 (1 hour)	20%	i, iii	Wednesday 3 June
5 5 tutorial worksheets	2% each	ii, iii	Weeks 3, 5, 8, 9 and 11

Submission and return of work

All assignments must include a cover sheet which will be attached to your Assignment Instructions and will also be available on Blackboard. Assignments are to be handed in to the Spanish and Latin American Studies Programme assignment slot located to the left of the SLC Office on the 6th floor of von Zedlitz. Please note that up to a maximum of 5% may be deducted for poorly presented assignments. The Spanish and Latin American Studies staff aim to return work within three weeks of the hand-in date.

Tidy presentation of assignments is essential. Work may be typed or neatly handwritten. Crossings-out indicate that a piece of work is still at draft stage. Allow space for corrections: leave a 4-centimetre margin and write on alternate lines (or double space if typing). Do not write in pencil.

Students will be able to collect marked work from the SLC Office on the 6th floor of von Zedlitz between the hours of 10am and 2pm each day. A Student ID card will need to be shown to collect work.

Extensions and penalties

Extensions

Short extensions may be granted by the Course Coordinator for particular assignments if requested in writing prior to the hand-in date. Longer extensions will require appropriate supporting documentation.

Penalties

The due dates for the assignments given in the Course Programme must be adhered to. Although work may be accepted late in special circumstances, the Course Coordinator should always be contacted on or before the due dates if there is a problem. The penalty for work presented late without prior approval is a 5% deduction per day. In addition, please note that up to a maximum of 5% may be deducted for poorly presented assignments.

Please note that no work for assessment will be accepted after 19 June 2015.

Tests and impairments

The dates of the tests given in the Course Programme must be adhered to. You should always sit a test if humanly possible, obtaining a medical certificate if you wish to claim impairment. If you sit the test but believe your performance has been radically affected by some medical or other factor, inform the Course Coordinator immediately. If you fail the test, you may be able to claim impairment.

If it is quite impossible to sit a test, for severe medical or personal or family reasons, you should do everything possible to notify the Course Coordinator, if necessary through the Administrator, before the test, or to get a friend or family member to do so on your behalf.

Only in cases of severe illness or other exceptionally difficult circumstances, which must normally be documented, can the Programme consider allowing students to sit a test at a different time from that indicated.

Set texts

Lists of sources of research will be provided to students. Some relevant texts, like those used in the tutorials, will be made available through Blackboard.

Class representative

The class representative provides a useful way to communicate feedback to the teaching staff during the course. A class representative will be selected at the first lecture of the course. Students may like to write the Class Rep's name and details in this box:

Class Rep name and contact details:

Class reps will attend a meeting with the Head of School to discuss how the course is going and to raise any concerns or suggestions that they may have. You can find out more information on Class Representatives on the VUWSA website: www.vuwsa.org.nz

Language Learning Centre (LLC)

The Language Learning Centre (LLC) is the University's technology-rich, multimedia centre supporting language learning.

At the LLC you can practise and extend your language learning. You can:

- Find materials to support your language studies, including dictionaries, textbooks and graded readers.
- Study independently using language learning software, audio material and DVDs.
- Find a welcoming environment with services and events, and onsite assistance and support for languages
- Become a Language Buddy or find a conversation group.

Visit the LLC on Level 0, von Zedlitz Building and take a look at our website www.victoria.ac.nz/llc

Student feedback

Enhancements made to this course, based on the feedback of previous students, will be discussed in class or delivered via Blackboard. Student feedback on University courses may be found at:
