TEACHING FORMAT

THEA 308 will be taught through seminars, rehearsal, studio workshops, and performance. There are no lectures, and all learning activities are active. Students are expected to prepare appropriately and contribute actively to every session. Students must attend rehearsals as negotiated in class.

MANDATORY COURSE REQUIREMENTS

In addition to achieving an overall pass mark of 50%, students must:

- Complete at least 8 out of 10 responses to weekly prompts in the reflective journal.
- Complete all assignments.
- Attend all rehearsals, production meetings, technical rehearsals and performances, as arranged with the director.

WORKLOAD

The expected workload for a 30-point course is 300 hours over the trimester or 20 hours per teaching week. It is always difficult to precisely specify the workload of courses which have a high practical and creative content. The university anticipates that you should be able to devote 300 total hours to a 30-point course. Therefore you should probably expect to spend on average about 19 hours per week (apart from class time) in reading, image collecting, thinking, writing, designing, and building work. The intensive practical nature of this course means that there will be periods during the project and production work when these hours will be significantly increased, particularly during the mid-trimester break at rehearsal/build sessions and major production periods in May.

YOU SHOULD THEREFORE TAKE SPECIAL CARE WITH YOUR TIME MANAGEMENT, making sure you can balance your workload on this course with your work on other university courses. You should also take particular care with your general health and wellbeing.

In practical production work, it is vitally important that students support each other, in a collective and collaborative sense. Please always be prompt at classes and rehearsals, abide by the company's code of conduct, and always take full responsibility for tasks allotted to you, or for which you volunteer.

NO THEATRE WORK OUTSIDE OF YOUR THEATRE COURSES SHOULD BE TAKEN ON WITHOUT DISCUSSION WITH THE COURSE COORDINATOR BEFOREHAND.
